

Rev. Bauer Says Easter Brings Glow of Hope to War-Torn World

"Soon the Catholic Church thruout the world will throw aside all the austere garments of the penitential Lenten season and stand forth at Eastertide in all the sublime dignity of her Liturgical pomp to celebrate the greatest event in the history of the world—a Conqueror over death and sin—a pledge to her children of a glorious resurrection and future immortality," Rev. Father Joseph L. Bauer's Easter message to the community, issued this week, states.

"The breath of Easter fans into a warm glow the dying embers of hope because Easter is the eternal embodiment of hope and the solemn promise that tragedy is converted into triumph and defeat turned into victory. All who either observe the happenings in this world or in some way or other try to work for the betterment of mankind need Easter to rekindle their lagging zeal and to restore their ebbing confidence," the Catholic pastor's greeting continued.

"Easter in reality is a philosophy of life. It stands for an actual fact but it is also the symbol of hope and the source of optimism. Now that the world situation is alarming and the tree of life is heavy with deadly fruits, our hearts would sink within us and our souls freeze with numbing fear were it not for the glow of Easter Morn."

"He is the True Lamb—Who by dying hath overcome our death and by rising again hath restored our life. Yesterday I suffered with Christ on the Cross, today I am glorified with Him. Yesterday I died with Him; today am I become alive with Him; yesterday was I buried with Him; today do I arise with Him. (St. Gregory Naz.)"

"On this most solemn festive occasion, I invoke the blessings of the Risen Saviour upon all members of this community, praying to God that having spent a sincere and penitential season of Lent we are prepared to receive Him worthily into our hearts," Father Bauer's message concludes.

Noted Choir Will Give Vesper Concert April 20 in Evangelical Church

The Westmont College Choir of 30 voices will be presented at the Central Evangelical Community church, Arlington and Marcelina, Sunday, April 20, at 4 p. m. in a vesper concert of Easter music. There will be no charge.

Westmont College is the youngest four year liberal arts college in the United States, opening its doors last September with a faculty of 20 full-time and 15 part-time professors and instructors, and a student body of 90. To their attractive campus and progressive program students have been drawn from 19 states and five foreign countries.

The Westmont Choir will have completed a tour of Oregon, Washington and California with more than 25 appearances. Besides the choir of unusual merit there will be a string ensemble, a trumpet and voice trio.

Miss Helen Catherwood directs the choir. She is a graduate of Wheaton College, Illinois. Miss Catherwood was on the music faculty of Bob Jones College in Tennessee, and was director of music in the Honolulu Bible Training school in Hawaii.

Civic Auditorium Scene of Easter Sunday Service

A special Easter program will be presented by the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints Easter Sunday morning at 10 o'clock in the Civic Auditorium. The sermon will be by Ada Roberts Naylor and there will be vocal, violin and piano solos.

The contributing artists will be Mamie Stark and Richard Nibley. The public is cordially invited to attend.

This affair should be a real treat for music lovers. Richard Nibley is a well-known Hollywood concert violinist and his brother Reed Nibley has appeared as guest artist with many symphony orchestras. They will play the music of Brahms, Schuman, Schubert and Dvorak and, as a special attraction, Richard Nibley will present his original composition "Three Poems."

The Torrance Men's Bible class, instructed by Oscar Butterfield, is planning special Easter music for the Sunday morning meeting at 9:30 o'clock at the hall on Cravens avenue. All men are cordially invited.

RENEWAL OF HOPE

SOME 1900 years ago there was revealed to the world an amazing truth!

That world, too, needed faith and love! It had known bloodshed, the rule of tyrants, and the fall of empires.

But—it had never known a Resurrection! Then He came! Jesus, who took the humble station of a Carpenter's Son, and showed men how to live, to die, and live again!

He was King of LIFE! Life in all the universe . . . in nature . . . in man!

He was King of the wild, restless ocean billows tossing their spitting foam against the egg-shell ships of little men. Of velvet covert, sprinkled with the gold dust of stars, that softly rested over the sleeping world. Of the great sky gavel splashed with rose and gold, as day melted into dusk. Of the arched bow in the sky after summer raindrops had bathed the soiled air. Of the aged forest, and the tiny brook!

Miracles, these, before man's eyes . . . he had seen the naked earth, stretched beneath the sky canopy, suddenly rise into newness of life. The little birds return from the southland, filling the air with their chirpings. A small, hard seed, planted with in the earth springs into a living shoot, its tiny arms outstretched toward the sun's warm rays.

Yet man knew hate. He made war. He suffered. He saw death, and feared it.

But, on that first Easter morning, the King of Life taught him that no grave can hold the spirit of man. That even as there is renewal of life in nature there can be new hope and courage within the human breast.

There is no death! Now, today, our world is engaged in another war. Perhaps a greater war than ever before! But, there can be a new peace . . . perhaps a greater peace than ever before!

So, as the flowers of another Easter burst into blossom, silent reminders of that amazing truth revealed some 1900 years ago, let us look forward with faith and confidence to this new and better world!

Sunrise Service in City Park Easter Morn

A union Easter Sunrise service is planned for next Sunday morning at Torrance City Park. The service is to start at 5:30 a. m.

Lovely music is being planned to make this an outstanding devotional. Rev. H. Wesley Roloff, pastor of Central Community church, will bring the early morning message "An Easter Visit to the Tomb of Jesus."

A trumpet salutation to the Easter dawn by Howard Foster will open the service. Rev. C. M. Northrup, pastor of the Baptist church will give the Scripture reading and Leland Pisel will present special vibra-harp solos. Rev. Harry Branton, pastor of the Methodist church is to offer the prayer and Soot Ludlow and Leonard Babcock will sing a duet number.

Experience is something you get while looking for something else.

Catholic Services Leading Toward Easter Announced

With the possible exception of Christmas, no other season of the year holds so much for members of the Catholic faith as Easter and its two preceding Holy Days—Good Friday and Holy Saturday. Rev. Father Joseph L. Bauer, in conjunction with his pastoral letter to the community, this week announced the following services on those great days of penance and joy:

Good Friday, April 11, will be observed with the Mass of the Pre-Sanctified and Adoration of the Cross. There will be a procession at 8 o'clock; Stations of the Cross at 2:30 p. m. and veneration of the Cross during the day. Stations of the Cross, and a sermon on the Passion and Adoration of the Cross will be at 7:30 p. m.

Holy Saturday, April 12 has the blessing of the New Fire, Incense and Paschal Candle, reading of the Prophecies; blessing of the baptismal font and High Mass at 8 a. m. Confessions will be heard from 3:30 until 6 p. m., and from 7:30 until the end.

Easter Sunday, April 13, will be celebrated with Masses at 6, 8 and 10 o'clock, with the High Mass at 8 o'clock. Benediction will follow after the last Mass. There will be no evening services.
