THEY THOUGHT HE WAS A MOUNTAIN CLIMBER

This man thought he was well-dressed—but he had no idea what people said about his run-down shoes. Worn heels make you look like a mountain climber. Give people the impression that you're careless about things that count. And keeping shoe heels in shape helps preserve the basic construction of your shoes.

You can count on FASTER SERVICE at Fenwick—I'm pleased to announce the association of my brother with the shop and you can be sure we'll both make every effort to please you.
