"FANCY CUTS, YES. But how can Safeway guarantee the thrifty cuts to be tender and full flavored every time?"

So often have we heard this question, that we want to make clear the reason right now: Both the fancy cuts and the thrifty cuts that Safeway sells are from the same sides of beef. And the beef is the best to be had.

All cuts are properly aged at our central meat plant - brought to market by the exclusive five-step plan.

The diagram at the left shows why Safeway's inexpensive cuts (pot roasts, short ribs, etc.) are the way's high quality as safe-roasts, steaks and chops. All are cut from the same area from the best beef to be had.

Try a Safeway pot roast tonight.
