Ruth Taylor Pretty Bride at Rites in Church Thursday

White gladiolus and larkspur provided the background for a pretty candlelight ceremony last Thursday evening when Miss Ruth Louise Taylor, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William P. Taylor of 903 Cota ave., became the bride of James B. Wallace, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Wallace of 2219 Andree ave.

The ceremony was solemnized at Central Evangelical church, with Rev. H. Wesley Roloff officiating before 150 wedding guests.

Accompanied by her father, the bride was lovely in white marquisette. Her finger tip veil, caught with orange blossoms, fell from a pearl-embroidered coronet and she carried an arm bouquet of white roses.

Reginald Smith served as the bridegroom's best man while Jack McCune, brother-in-law of the bride and Jack Gamby of Inglewood, ushered. The wedding march was played by Miss Norma Patterson who also furnished accompaniment for Mrs. Maxine Clark Raymond who sang.

Mrs. Wallace is a graduate of Torrance high school, class of S. 1939, attended Metropolitan Business College and is employed in the auditing department of Broadway Department store, while her husband, who also received his education at Torrance high school is now employed at Columbia Steel company.

Mexican Motif Is Followed at H.S. P.T.A. Gathering

Members of Torrance high school P. T. A. and faculty members were guests at a luncheon Monday honoring retiring and incoming P. T. A. board members. Mrs. W. J. Schroeder, president-elect of Gateway Council, served as installing officer. Mrs. J. O. Bishop, retiring president, following a brief talk presented Mrs. William Jolley with the gavel.

Officers who will serve as Mrs. Jolley's board during the ensuing year are Mrs. Rufus Page, first vice-president; Miss Irene Mills, second vice-president; Mesdames W. H. Tolson, secretary; T. R. Yoder, corresponding secretary; C. W. Stevens, treasurer; E. C. Prime, auditor; E. L. Hatter, historian, and C. E. Woodcock, Parliamentarian.

A Mexican theme was used by Miss Ada M. P. Chase in the table decorations of banana palm leaves and place cards were diminutive Mexican figurines, hand-painted by Miss Chase's art students. At the board meeting which followed, Mrs. Bishop thanked her aides for their splendid cooperation during her term of office.

A program depicting the political and social life of Mexico was presented by Miss Chase, chairman for the afternoon. Highlights of their visits in that country were given by the Misses Sara Vaubel, Marguerite Jones and M. J. Neve's, and Chase. The talks, augmented by an interesting display of Mexican art objects created much interest.

Trumpet solos by Joe Escobar, accompanied by Barbara Watson and Winifred Philip, and Spanish vocal selections by Helen Torres with Ramona DeBra as accompanist, completed the Mexican motif of the day. Mrs. Garner, president-elect of Fern Avenue P. T. A., was introduced and Principal Thomas H. Ellison made a short talk to the group.
