Hollywood Bowl will present a week crammed full of dance and musical events July 29 through Aug. 2. Celebrated Ballet Russe de Monte Carlo comes to the famed amphitheatre for three performances, Tuesday, July 29; Wednesday, July 30 and Saturday August 2. Programs of the ballet are as follows: July 29, Les Sylphides, Scheherazade, Le Beau Danube; July 30, Les Elfes, Rouge et Noir, Vienna 1814; August 2, Swan Lake, Caprice Espagnol, Blue Bird and Prince Igor. Elmer Kurtz will conduct the Los Angeles Philharmonic Orchestra for these notable dates.

Returning to the Bowl by popular demand, Jose Iturbi will play the piano and conduct July 31. On the program with him will be his gifted sister Amparo Iturbi, Bruno Walter will have the honor of conducting the Bowl's 600th concert Friday night August 1. In keeping with the popular significance of this date he has arranged a popular symphonic program including "The Emperor Waltz," "Tales from the Vienna Woods" and overture to the "Gypsy Baron" by Johann Strauss, a group of lively dances by Mozart and the Kleine Nach Musik.

DINNER AT GRAMLING HOME FETES TWO

Mrs. Carl J. Gramling, Sr., and Miss Genevieve Leatherman shared honors at a dinner party given last Friday evening at the Gramling home, 908 Cota ave. The party served to celebrate Mrs. Gramling's birthday anniversary and as a pre-nuptial courtesy for Miss Leatherman. An arrangement of pink amaryllis centered the dining table at which covers were placed for Miss Leatherman and her fiancé, David V. Figueroa; Messrs. and Mmes. C. O. Leatherman and C. J. Gramling, Sr., Mrs. Clyde C. Holley, Mrs. Dorothy Weber and daughter JoAnne Weber and Carl J. Gramling, Jr.

THURSDAY AFTERNOON CLUB AT MOORE HOME

Mrs. J. O. Moore was hostess when she entertained members of her bridge club at her home last Thursday afternoon. Colorful flowers were used for the tables and places were marked for 12. Those present were Mrs. Clemma Watson, a club guest, and Mmes. Myrtle McManus, Fred Knudson, B. F. Dye, E. C. Winkler, O. W. Hudson, T. H. Kendrick, F. Shields, H. A. Lewis, F. H. Clark and May McKinley. Contract awards were received by Mmes. McKinley and Winkler.

A first rate fashion buy is this two piece dress which also can be worn as a suit. Featured in the August issue of Good Housekeeping magazine, it comes in soft wool with a neat finish in shades of deep brown, black, green or blue. Modish is the short jacket with a slimming tucked bolero effect with just the proper amount of shoulder padding. The dress is set off by a bright clip and double-brimmed brown felt hat with a forward-dipping feather.

Herald Staff Honors First Member to Join U. S. Army

As a farewell courtesy for James Hunt Haines, first member of Herald staff to enter the army service, Mr. and Mrs. Grover Whyte, entertained with an informal party at their home last Friday evening.

Those present were the guest of honor and Messrs and Mmes. Micheal Strasser, R. L. Lewellen, Perry G. Smith, C. L. Jones, Ed. Pugh, Paul Vonderahe, Misses Lute Fraser and Birda Paddock and Richard Carver and Leslie Foster.

Later the group enjoyed a dinner party arranged in the private dining room of the Christy's Cafe where tables were appropriately decorated with a patriotic motif. Haines was presented with a handsome gift from Mr. Whyte and the staff.

William E. Keefe, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Keefe of 2255 Torrance blvd., left Saturday for San Diego where he will take a course at Ryan School of Aeronautics in the Air Corps Training Detachment at Lindbergh Field.

Eastern Stars Fete Worthy Matron at Birthday Party

The birthday anniversary of Mrs. Lois Hoover, worthy matron of Torrance Chapter, Order of the Eastern Star, was celebrated with a gala party following the regular chapter meeting last Thursday evening.

More than 150 attended the meeting at which chairs were filled by matrons of the district and from Los Angeles chapters. Arrangements for the party were made by Mrs. Helene Miller and her committee. A clever skit was presented by a group of Redondo friends. A patriotic color arrangement was accented in the flowers and flags used for the tables and a beautifully decorated birthday cake and other refreshments were served.

Mrs. Hoover was the recipient of a handsome gift from the chapter and many personal gifts.

DAUGHTERS HERE FOR VISIT

Mrs. J. H. Young of 1803 Gramercy ave., has as her guest for the summer her youngest daughter, Mrs. E. H. Loatelli of New York City. Tomorrow the eldest daughter, Mrs. F. R. Carlson, will arrive from Duluth, Minn., and remain here until her sister leaves August 20 when they will motor east to their homes together. Friends who met Mrs. Carlson on a previous visit have been asked to meet in the patio of the Young home for a Scotch luncheon Friday to welcome her here again.

After receiving congratulations of their guests, the bride and groom cut the beautifully decorated wedding cake which was served by Miss Miles. Mrs. Clyde C. Holley assisted at the punch bowl.

CHRISTIAN CHURCH CONFERENCE CLUB NOTES

The Conference Club of the First Christian church met at the home of their sponsors, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Engle, 2216 Gramercy, Monday evening. Officers for the following year were elected and new by-laws were drawn. They urge all young people who are interested in attending conference next year to come to Christian Endeavor next Sunday night at the church 6:30 p. m. and hear all about it. Legion Auxiliary Installs Officers Following Dinner

American Legion clubhouse was the setting for an impressive installation ceremony Tuesday evening when Mrs. Alice Thompson was installed as the president of Legion Auxiliary for the ensuing year. Mrs. Lucille Lewellen, past 19th district president and past president of the local unit, assisted by Mrs. Selma Godard as marshal and Mrs. Ethel Sears as sergeant-at-arms, inducted the officers.

Other officers installed with Mrs. Thompson were: Olivia Lee, first vice-president; Gladys Moore, second vice-president; Nettie Babcock, secretary; Merle Youngken, treasurer; Janet Woodington, chaplain; Daisy Watson, sergeant at arms; Clara Conner, marshal, and Edith McDermid, historian. The executive board will include Mmes. Lucille Lewellen, Ella Robinson, Clara Conner and Madge Lyman.

Mrs. Williams opened the business meeting and gave her annual report. Mrs. Thompson accepted the gavel from Mrs. Lewellen and in turn Mrs. Williams was presented with a past president's pin by Mrs. Ella Robinson. Mrs. Nettie Babcock was presented with a past secretary's pin and Mrs. Williams remembered her installing officer and her entire board with personal gifts while Mrs. Woodington, who has served as chaplain for the past 11 years, was presented with a handsome white bible imprinted with her name in gold.

Preceding the ceremony a dinner, arranged by Mmes. Ella Robinson and Merle Youngken, was served. Graceful arrangements of garden flowers and ivy provided a pretty background for the long pastel gowns worn by the officers. Roses were used to decorate the dining table at which covers were set for 36 members and their guests. Vocational sections by Mrs. Bea Chett who played her own accompaniment and Mrs. Forne Laughon, accompanied by Mrs. Fan Wittes, were enjoyed.

Ruth Leatherman Becomes Bride of David Figueroa

Mr. and Mrs. Clare O. Leatherman of 912 Cota ave. announce the marriage of their daughter, Ruth Genevieve, to Mr. David Vira Figueroa, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. Figueroa of 1604 West 218th st., last Friday evening. They exchanged vows standing before an arch of spirea and pink and white sweet peas flanked with large baskets of pink wallpaper. The wedding service was read by Rev. B. J. Lingenfelter at the home of the bride's parents.

Guests were relatives and close friends of the principals. Miss Lorraine Miles was the bridesmaid while Richard Beecher served as the bridegroom's best man.

After receiving congratulations of their guests, the bride and groom cut the beautifully decorated wedding cake which was served by Miss Miles. Mrs. Clyde C. Holley assisted at the punch bowl.

Mr. and Mrs. Figueroa are graduates of Torrance high school and he is employed at Columbia Steel Company. Following a brief honeymoon trip to San Francisco they will make their home here.
