Famed Musical Show Due in L.A.

Headed by Billy House and Eddie Galt, "Hellzapoppin," the Olsen and Johnson screamloud musical revue which has been doubling up Broadway with laughter for well nigh on three full years, opens a limited engagement at the Billmore theatre on Wednesday evening, August 6. The present company will come to Los Angeles directly from Chicago where it will have completed a run of three months and it will remain here for two and a half weeks, with matinees on Wednesday and Saturday. Mail orders now accepted and will receive prompt attention.

"Hellzapoppin," is more than just a title. It is an apt one-word description of the rowdiest and most scatterbrained revue in the history of the American theatre. Where other musicals may seek to bedazzle the customers with elaborate and intricate scenes, "Hellzapoppin" is a show filled with mad monkey-shines that spill off the stage into the auditorium — making the boxes and aisles as much a part of the production as that section of the theatre behind the footlights.

"Hellzapoppin," has broken several of the traditions of the theatre. It begins before it is supposed to end, it does not end when it is expected to; it enlists the audience as its conspirators and the patrons participate in the mad goings-on; there is dancing in the aisles as well as on the stage. It is funny, irreverent, waggish and at times verges on the fringe of non-sensical lunacy. It holds the record for consecutive performances of any musical in history, and it has played to more people and grossed more money, both on Broadway and on the road, than any other American revue. Its humor is typically American, and yet it is unlike any other musical production before it. Decidedly, "Hellzapoppin" is in a class by itself.

Houseguests of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Kerber are her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Rush and daughter Mary Linnis of St. Joseph, Mo.
