

School Day Sweethearts Wed

CLIMAXING A SCHOOL DAY romance, Phyllis Sears, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dean L. Sears was married in a simple church ceremony last Friday evening to Robert Klink, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Klink. It was the third recent marriage in the Sears family. The bride's two sisters, Marion and Jean, were also wed in beautiful ceremonies at St. Andrew's Episcopal Church.

Sears-Klink Nuptials Celebrated At Lovely Church Wedding

In a beautifully simple ceremony performed by the Rev. Thomas R. Marshall last Friday evening at St. Andrew's Episcopal church, Miss Phyllis Ann Sears, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dean L. Sears of 1428 El Prado, became the bride of Mr. Joel Robert Klink Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Klink of 1521 El Prado. Wedding guests were an intimate group of relatives of the principals.

The bride, accompanied to the altar by her father, was beautiful in traditional white satin, fashioned with long sleeves and train, the sweetheart neckline embroidered with seed pearls. Her exquisite three-tiered veil fell from a pearl beaded coronet and she carried a white prayer book with an orchid and bouvardia corsage.

Mrs. Earl E. Clayton was matron of honor for her sister. Her gown was peach marquisette and she carried Tallman roses and peach colored sweet peas.

Reception at Home
James Herlett served as the bridegroom's best man and Robert B. Trezise, brother-in-law of the bride, ushered. Mme. Teala Bellini played the wedding marches and incidental music.

Following the church rites a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. At the table, decorated with white blossoms, Mrs. Robert B. Trezise and Mrs. Donald C. Mitchell, poured and a beautifully decorated three-tiered wedding cake was cut.

Home In Torrance
Mrs. Sears received her guests dressed in powder blue crepe and Mrs. Klink's gown was of pink marquisette.

Mr. and Mrs. Klink left for a brief honeymoon at Arrowhead and Big Bear and are at home to their friends at Gramercy Apartments.

Both are graduates of Torrance high school, class of 1939 and attended Compton Junior College while the bride studied at a Los Angeles business college.
