

Turman-Everett Wedding Held at Baptist Church

Miss Genevieve Elizabeth Everett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Everett of 1004 Arlington avenue, became the bride of Mr. William Harold Turman in a beautiful ceremony performed at First Baptist church last Friday evening, August 29.

Rev. C. Miles Northrup officiated in the presence of 100 guests. The bride, given in marriage by her father, was beautifully attired in white net and satin fashioned in train with finger tip veil falling from a semi-crown. Her bouquet was a crescent of orchids, white roses and stephanotis.

Miss Lois Kelsey, as maid of honor, wore a Grecian draped gown of peach chiffon and carried blue water lilies. Mesdames Don Kelly of Harbor City and Carl Lindenberg of this city, sisters of the bride, wore Nile green and blue gowns fashioned like that of the maid of honor, and their flowers were cressets of cactus dahlias in contrasting shades.

Little Verna Bates, cousin of the groom, was flower girl in a dainty blue taffeta gown. Joe Morris of Harbor City served as the bridegroom's best man while Milton Everett, brother of the bride and Harland Bates of Harbor City, ushered. Proceeding the ceremony Mrs. Clifford Ruppel, accompanied by Clifford Hemmerling of Anaheim, sang.

Mr. and Mrs. Turman will be at home to their friends at 1021 Cravens avenue.
