Year's Theme is Stressed at P.T.A. Meet at Elementary
 "Home and the School — Our Community Yardsstick" was the theme chosen for the year's Torrance Elementary P. T. A. program and stressed at the first meeting of the year Tuesday afternoon when Mrs. Hillman R. Lee presided.
 "How the Home and the Parent Can Aid the Teacher and the School" was discussed by Mrs. Lovenia Boudinat and Mrs. Carl Pisel responded with a talk on "How the School and the Teacher Can Aid the Parent and the Home."
 Association members and the guests were welcomed and teachers introduced by L. R. Dykes, principal. Music was led by Mrs. Nadine Nickols. Tea was served at the conclusion of the meeting when Mesdames Grover C. Whyte and T. A. Mitchell served as hostesses.

No Fuel Waste Here, Mr. Ickes!

Community Card Party Attracts Many Players
 As result of the community card party held at the Civic Auditorium last Thursday night, the Torrance Rotary club netted approximately $150 which will be used to completely furnish a room in the addition to the Torrance Memorial hospital now under construction. To fully equip a hospital room will take about $200 and the service club plans to supplement the card party fund with enough from its treasury to accomplish this aim.
 The card party attracted a large number of players who enjoyed the affair from the awarding of the door prize, a fine electric clock to Dr. W. J. Hanson by President B. C. Buxton to the end of the refreshment period. Fay Parks was general chairman of the affair, assisted by his Community Service committee consisting of Sam Levy, Hugh J. Sherfy, Dr. John W. Beeman and Tom Mitchell.

MRS CAROLINE WILLIAMS CELEBRATES NATAL DATE
 The 80th birthday anniversary of Mrs. Caroline Williams was a gala affair celebrated recently at the family home, 1021 Cravens ave.

Young Cake Champion swears by the shortening that gives LIGHTER CAKES!

18-YEAR-OLD Dorothy Fleming (now a bride) entered 4 cakes at a Kansas County Fair. "I used Crisco to get finer, lighter cakes," she says. "All 4 cakes won first and I got grand champion ribbon, too!"

Another delicious CRISCO cake . . . CHOCOLATE MALTED MILK CAKE
 So smooth and moist! You'll love it!
 1/2 cup Crisco 2 cups cake flour
 1 cup sugar 1/4 cup chocolate
 2 eggs 1 cup malted milk powder
 1/2 teaspoon salt 1/2 teaspoon soda
 1 square baking chocolate, melted powder
 1 cup milk
 Blend Crisco, sugar, eggs, salt and melted chocolate (so easy with creamy-blending Crisco). Sift flour with malted milk powder, soda and baking powder; add this alternately with milk to the Crisco mixture. (A Crisco batter will amaze you—it's so much glossier, smoother!) Bake in two "Crisco" 8-inch layer pans in a moderate oven (350° F.) 30-35 minutes. Cool; put together with "CHOCOLATE MALTED MILK" (1 lb. (3 1/2 cups) of confectioners sugar with 1/4 cup of chocolate malted milk powder. Combine one cup of this with 1/4 cup Crisco and 1/2 teaspoon salt. Add rest of sugar mixture alternately with 1/4 cup of strong coffee, or enough to give a good spreading consistency.

IMPORTANT! New "Sure-Mix" Crisco gives you LIGHTER CAKES than any other shortening we know of!
 Don't envy the cake experts any more. . . Just change to New "Sure-Mix" Crisco—and begin to get those lighter cakes that win heaps of praise!
 Crisco alone gives you "active" blending due to a process not used in any other shortening you can buy.
 You'll see what "active" blending does when you mix up your Crisco cake batter. Why, Crisco seems to draw all your ingredients smoothly together . . . no other shortening will give you such smooth batters . . . or such light cakes! You'll see a big difference!
 Tests prove extra-lightness! Thousands of cakes were baked in Crisco kitchens with every popular shortening—including the most expensive. And the Crisco cakes were consistently up to 15% higher and lighter!
 Surprise your family with a fine-textured Crisco cake that's a dream of lightness! You'll love the flaky, tender pastry Crisco can give you! Enjoy crisp, digestible Crisco-filled foods! Buy Crisco today!
