

Flowers Frame Their Bridal Scene

In a floral setting of unusual beauty, enhanced by the use of white larkspur, chrysanthemums and gladioli, Eva Marie Peer became the bride of Everett Lee White of Burbank last Sunday afternoon at the Central Evangelical church. Miss Peer's gown was white slipper satin fashioned princess style with long sleeves and train. Her finger tip veil was draped from a Juliet cap charmingly styled of her hair studded with brilliants. She carried a shower bouquet of mystery gardenias and bouvardia.

Scores Attend White-Peer Wedding

On a honeymoon trip this week were Mr. Everett Lee White and his bride, the former Eva Marie Peer, whose wedding ceremony—solemnized Sunday afternoon at Central Evangelical church—was witnessed by scores of their relatives and friends.

The ceremony, performed by Rev. Frank Porter, pastor of First Christian church, was followed by a reception for the immediate families and intimate friends at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Ray Peer.

Miss Phyllis Jean Schultz, in pale pink net and lace over matching taffeta, was bridesmaid. Her flowers were an arm bouquet of Briarcliff roses. Lloyd White of Burbank served his brother as best man and Eldon Peer, brother of the bride, and Don Ferguson of Burbank, ushered. Proceeding the ceremony Mrs. Lloyd White played the accompaniment for Kenneth Zeller of Burbank, who sang.

At the reception Mmes. Oland White and Ray Purrier poured while Mrs. F. A. Zeller cut the beautifully decorated three-tiered wedding cake. The bride graduated from Torrance high school, class of Winter 1940, and from Frank Wiggins school where she studied cosmetology. The bridegroom is engaged in the building business in Burbank.
