

CATHOLIC PARTY THIS EVENING

Hostesses for this week's Catholic ladies' card party are Mesdames B. Powers and E. Powers and Babbitt, Strasser, Murray, Finlayson, Hunt and J. N. Anderson. The parties will be held each week on Thursday evenings. Everyone is cordially invited. A valuable door prize will be given in addition to regulation prizes. Tables of contract and auction bridge, pinocchle and 500 will be in play.

GIRL SCOUTS OBSERVE THANKSGIVING WITH PLAY

Girl Scouts of Troop No. 2 observed Thanksgiving with a play at their Scout hall last Tuesday in which they depicted the origin of this holiday. Julia Menni's Firefly Patrol members were in charge of arrangements. Membership cards were presented to several new enrollees and plans were completed for a Christmas play and party, according to troop reporter, Carol Venable.

Clubwomen To Hear Carols by Ensemble Group

The December meeting of Torrance Woman's Club will be held at the clubhouse Wednesday, Dec. 3. Reservations for the 12:30 luncheon must be made by calling Mrs. E. M. Johnson, 340-W, not later than Monday evening. Mrs. C. B. Mitchell will preside and Mrs. A. H. Silligo, program chairman, will present Adna Smith Flo, State Music Chairman, C. F. W. C. in a program of Elizabethan Christmas carols, sung by 15 costumed singers.

Instead of the usual gift exchange, members will contribute to a fund for those less fortunate. The ladies are also asked to remember their articles of staple foods for the annual Christmas basket presentations. Mrs. W. J. Needlands and her committee will be in charge of arrangements, and Mesdames F. T. Porter and J. A. Merriam will serve on the Hospitality Committee.

BRIDAL PARTY SUPPER GUESTS

Honoring her cousin Miss Della Lewis, whose wedding to Mr. James George took place at Inglewood last night, Miss Leah Bratton entertained at a supper party at her home Monday evening. Guests were members of the bridal party and covers at the supper also were placed for 17. A rehearsal at the church preceded the party. Assisting were her mother, Mrs. W. H. Bratton, and her aunt Mrs. A. L. Lewis. Diminutive bridal figurines centered the heart-shaped table arrangement and an effective candle lighting arrangement created a glamorous atmosphere. Miss Bratton served as her cousin's bridesmaid.

CLUB GROUP AT LUDLOW HOME

The home of Mrs. Scott R. Ludlow at Sherman Wood was the setting for an enjoyable party, when she entertained members of her former Torrance bridge club last Friday afternoon. Luncheon covers were placed for 10. Mrs. Ludlow was presented with a handsome housewarming gift from the group, and bridge awards were received by Mesdames Ralph Hatton of Los Angeles, and John B. Shaw, while Mrs. C. B. Mitchell received the travel prize.

HOSTESS AT DINNER PARTY

Dinner guests of Mrs. Charles B. Pennington last Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Evinger, who recently returned to the United States from Bahrain Island in the Persian Gulf; Mr. and Mrs. Harry Fifield, Torrance; Mr. and Mrs. Pete Pizanni and Mrs. George Harris, Los Angeles, and Al Pennington of Downey.

Higgins-Pierson Wedding Attended by 125 Guests

The wedding of Miss Betty June Pierson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry R. Pierson, to Mr. Thomas Richard Higgins, son of Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Higgins, 1329 Portola ave., was performed Nov. 19 at the bride's home, 1803 Andrea ave. Rev. F. T. Porter officiated in the presence of an intimate group of family members and friends. White chrysanthemums and gladioli were used to decorate the rooms. Immediately following the ceremony a reception for 125 guests was held.

The bride, beautiful in a blue luana cloth gown, fashioned with sweetheart neckline and basque waist, carried an arm bouquet of Briarcliffe roses and bouvardia. She was attended by Mrs. Jerry Hodges of Los Angeles, her cousin, as matron of honor. Mrs. Hodges wore dark blue crepe and coral accessories complemented with Talisman roses. Frank Higgins attended his brother as best man.

Mrs. Pierson received her guests dressed in blue crepe with a bouvardia and carnation corsage, while Mrs. Higgins' gown was brown with gold accessories. Her flowers were yellow rosebuds.

Mesdames Ted Simonson and Irma Trezise, assisted by Mrs. Merton Gilbert, sister of the bridegroom, poured at the buffet table, where a decorated wedding cake was cut by the bride.

Mr. and Mrs. Higgins left immediately for a honeymoon trip to San Francisco and upon their return will be at home at 21 Cajon apartments on Torrance Blvd. He is a graduate of Torrance high school, class of Summer '40, and is now employed at the National Supply Company while the bride graduated in 1941.

SHOWER HONORS BETTY PIERSON

Among the many lovely pre-nuptial courtesies for Betty June Pierson was a miscellaneous shower given recently at the home of Mrs. Cecil Smith. Mrs. Ted Simonson assisted as co-hostess. A bridal motif was effectively carried out in flowers and table appointments. Shower games were enjoyed and prizes were awarded to high score holders.

Those present were Mrs. Harry Pierson, mother of the bride elect; and Mesdames Alice Singer, Haley of Redondo, Ella Robinson of Los Angeles, Irma Trezise, Katherine Gossiaux, Zoe Deithers, John Davis, A. E. Fletcher, A. C. Stamp, Al Wright, Clay Suttle, T. H. Higgins, Merton Gilbert, Roy Willis and Paul Smith.

ENGAGEMENT IS ANNOUNCED

Announcement of engagement of Miss Lorabell Taylor, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Taylor of 722 Portola ave to Clyde Woods of Long Beach, was made recently.

Miss Taylor, a graduate of Narbonne high school, has set Feb. 15 as her wedding date. Her fiance, a graduate of Compton Junior College, is employed by a Long Beach oil company. Miss Taylor is now a student at Frank Higgins Trade School, in Los Angeles.

LUTHERANS PLAN BAZAAR, FOOD SALE

The Ladies Aid of the First Lutheran church will hold a bazaar and food sale at their hall on Sonoma ave. Thursday, Dec. 4 from noon until 5 o'clock. A sale of fine needle work will also be featured. Friends of the church are cordially invited.

Mme. Bellini on Program Honoring Symphony Conductor

On Sunday afternoon, Nov. 16, a reception, program and tea was given by the San Pedro Civic Symphony at the San Pedro Y. W. C. A. in honor of Conductor Robert Resta. The homelike atmosphere of the living room made a most gracious setting for the reception and beautifully appointed tea which was held after the program. Chrysanthemums in fall colors and a roaring fire in the large fire place added a charming holiday touch.

A most interesting program was given by Orrin Tucker, violinist from Long Beach; Mrs. Twyman Hurley of San Pedro and Mme. Teala Bellini of Torrance. The speaker was Richard Drake Saunders, nationally known music critic and lecturer, his subject, "The Civic and Cultural Value of a Symphony Orchestra to the Community." The program was held in the Y. W. C. A. auditorium which was filled with an interested and enthusiastic audience. Several people from Torrance attended.

JOE'S DAUGHTERS ELET OFFICERS
At the last business meeting of Torrance Bethel No. 50, Job's Daughters, held at the home of Miss Shirley Guttenfelder, the following officers were elected: Lois Jayne Allen, honored queen; Margaret Mort, senior princess; Marilyn Moyer, junior princess; Beverly Whitney, guide and Enid Weis, marshal. Plans were made for a dancing party to be held Saturday evening, Dec. 6, at Rolling Hills club house.
