

Multiple-Home Unit Planned South of Lomita

Plans for the construction of between 450 and 500 four-and-a-half room dwellings south of Lomita have been drawn for Harcourt Heights, Inc., headed by Edward Burrell, whose business address is given as 417 South Hill Street, Los Angeles.

Location is more specifically described as on the east side of Western ave., near Palos Verdes Pkwy., which is near the County Planning Authority's Harbor Hills project.

Philip Cravitz, 1109 Vermont ave., Los Angeles, will be in charge of construction, the owning corporation being prepared to act as its own contractor, it is reported.

Walterians Want Dependable Guard

A demand that the city commission a "dependable" crossing guard for the Walteria school was received by the city council Tuesday night from the Walteria Civic Organization. This group reported Mrs. Milton, who was a duty early in the year, was "entirely satisfactory." Police chief John Stroh informed the council that a Mexican woman now serving as guard has been giving good service since having her car repaired and was on duty.

CLEANUP APPRECIATED
Thanking the city council for removal of a number of unwholesome shrubs in the park area directly in front of the high school, Principal Thomas H. Ellison wrote Tuesday night the clean-up was most welcome to the school authorities.

Colburn-Shaffer Wedding in Yuma Nov. 15 Announced

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Shaffer of 1845 24th st. have announced the marriage of their daughter, Jean Alice, to Edward H. Colburn, son of Mrs. Edward Gall of 2606 Carson st., Torrance. The wedding ceremony was performed at Yuma, Ariz. Nov. 15 in the presence of the parents of the bride and her sister, Barbara Ann Shaffer.

The bride, who graduated from Narbonne in 1938, was attended in a dusty rose suit with brown accessories and wore a corsage of orchids. Following the ceremony the couple left on a honeymoon trip through southwestern Arizona.

Safety Message Goes To School Children

In the halls and on bulletin boards of junior high and elementary schools of Southern California this week were the latest posters supplied the institutions throughout the school year by the public department of the Automobile Club of Southern California.

"Watch and Obey Signals" is the theme of the December poster which depicts a student keenly alert awaiting the signal before crossing the street. Professional models were used in carrying out the photographic themes of all posters prepared this year by the Auto Club's public safety department.

Across the bottom panel of the December poster is the slogan "Signals Safeguard Lives and Property." Completing the poster are a list of safety rules in connection with signals, including the interpretation of the colors flashed by signal lights, and the reminder that "arm signals are the sign language of safety."

Salvation Army Needs Bedding

An urgent call is made upon the citizens of Torrance and vicinity for a supply of warm bedding, blankets, comforts, sheets, mattresses, bedsprings, and beds.

"We find that our supply is exhausted and we are unable to meet the many serious demands," Army leaders said. "Families are in distress due to the cold weather. Warm underwear and bedding are badly needed. The large supply of bedding held for the emergency has been exhausted through our relief stores. We also need heaters of all descriptions; gas, wood, or coal. With the large number of families moving into Torrance our activities are increased and the demand is much greater than formerly."

Home Nursing Course Planned at Torrance

Details of the home nursing class to be offered at Torrance Evening school starting after the first of the year were given about 25 women attending the Torrance Red Cross meeting in the Civic Auditorium last Monday afternoon. Mrs. Louise Floyd, chairman of the Home Nursing department of the Los Angeles Red Cross chapter, outlined the program designed to train women for care of the sick.

Mrs. Rose Connelly read a number of congratulatory letters to the local unit concerning the work done during the earthquake emergency and Mrs. R. R. Smith, chairman of the local unit, presided.

Local Equestrians In S. P. Event

Equestrians from Torrance and Lomita will compete with more than 100 other crack horsemen tomorrow night in San Pedro. Scheduled to participate in the event are: Mr. and Mrs. Ted Kleinmeyer, The Rippers' Plain Western Riding club, Jean and Bobby Shaffer, Alec and Bob Matheson, J. A. Harkness and Miss Harris. A. R. (Shorty) Harris of Lomita is chairman of the meet and will act as one of the judges.

DRUNK DRIVER FINED
Judge John Shidler assessed a $75 fine on Jack W. Sanford, 26 of 1816 Cabrillo ave., Monday for driving while intoxicated on Cravens ave., Sunday night. Sanford arranged to pay the levy on the installment plan.

Basketball Now Fifty Years Old

Just a half-century ago the late Dr. James Naismith tacked up a pair of peach baskets in Springfield, Mass., and thus invented the game of basketball. A four-month birthday celebration of the great winter sport's now in progress throughout the nation with many games being played for the benefit of a fund for a Dr. Naismith memorial in the casaba game's home city.

World demand for strategic minerals has led to intensive prospecting in Argentina.

Nova Scotian Dinner Scheduled Dec. 4

The annual turkey dinner and get-together of the Nova Scotia Society of Southern California will be held Thursday evening, Dec. 4, at the Roblyn Hotel, Fifth and Main sts., Los Angeles, starting at 6:30 o'clock.

Several good speakers and a musical program has been scheduled. Any former Nova Scotian living in or near Torrance should call Torrance 1386 for reservations.

The Azores is a great international nerve center of trans-Atlantic cables.

New Resident Dies Suddenly

Just a day after moving into the new home at 25917 Market Place, which had been purchased from Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Hunt, Alpheus M. Rogers, retired merchant marine, died suddenly on Monday from a heart attack. He was 54 years old. Services will be held tomorrow (Friday) at 2 p.m. at the Barker-Fowler chapel, Wilmington. Interment will be in Wilmington cemetery.

Mr. Rogers leaves his wife, Carrie, sister, Margie Sinnett of Gresham, Ore., and a brother, William of Marshfield, Ore.
