Hilarious Skits Enliven Rotary Dinner Party

Members of the Torrance Rotary club, with their wives and friends as guests, found a good cure for their earthquake jitters last Thursday evening in a highly entertaining and laugh-provoking "mystery" program presented following a dinner meeting at the Woman's clubhouse.

The nature of the program was kept a dark secret to the members, but they soon caught the spirit of the gathering and joined in an evening of fun, planned by past-president Harold E. Appenzeller and his committee.

Highlights of the fast moving round of amusing skits included a "Battle of the Sexes" in which the men and women fought out their cases in sarcastic songs to the tunes of well-known favorites. Ray Casey, club song leader led the male chorus and Mrs. Emma Quaglin led the ladies. But it all ended happily in "Auld Lang Syne."

Another laugh provoking act was put on by five club members who wore head masks representing Roosevelt, Hitler, Mussolini, Stalin and Gandhi. Bernhard Bunie, dressed as a crystal gazer, drew many rounds of applause when he answered questions from the audience. A delightful turkey dinner was served by Mrs. Edith Weiss.

Atmosphere music for the various skits was furnished by Mme. Teala Bellini, who, also played the piano for the song numbers.
