Beadle-McClurg Wedding Attended By 80 Guests

The wedding of Miss Wilma June McClurg of South Gate to Mr. Lloyd William Beadle, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. V. Beadle of 1513 Madrid ave., was solemnized at Compton Sunday, Dec. 21. Rev. H. Spruit, Methodist pastor, performed the double ring ceremony in the presence of 80 guests.

Jean Hosking Becomes Bride of Glen Arrasmith

One of the lovely weddings of the week was the ceremony which united Miss Lois Jean Hosking, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Hosking, and Glen H. Arrasmith of Long Beach. Rev. F. D. Mehlching officiated in the presence of 100 guests last Tuesday evening at First Lutheran church.

MRS. GLEN H. ARRASMITH and her husband in the Army

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of ivory brocaded moire and a fingertip veil. Her flowers were gardenias and white carnations. Mrs. Glenn Dysart of Arcadia, wearing blue moire, attended her cousin as matron of honor. She carried a colonial bouquet of contrasting sweet peas. Gordon Arrasmith of Dominguez, served as his brother's best man. Gynell and Elaine Dysart, in white sprigged organdie with velvet ribbon trim, were ring bearer and flower girl respectively. William Luedke and D. G. Cheek of Harbor City, ushered.

Preceding the ceremony Miss Dorothy Letz sang, accompanied at the organ by Mrs. E. A. Schwartz. A reception followed at the home of the bride's parents, where a beautifully decorated three-tiered wedding cake was cut. Mrs. Sara Murray and Mrs. A. E. Kerber poured. Mrs. Hosking received her guests dressed in leaf green crepe, complemented with a corsage of pink carnations, while Mrs. Arrasmith wore blue and gold crepe and a pink rosebud and gardenia corsage.

Mrs. Arrasmith is a graduate of Torrance high school, class of '37, and attended Metropolitan Business College in Los Angeles. She is employed as secretary at Frank Wiggins Trade School. Mrs. Arrasmith is a graduate of Narbonne high school and is now serving in Coast Artillery Signal Corps at Fort MacArthur. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry S. Arrasmith of Long Beach.

Business Women Consider Defense Work at Meet

Vice-President Marge Huber presided over the business meeting of the National Business and Professional Women Monday night, in the absence of the president, Mrs. Edna Smith, who was attending a meeting of the Civilian Defense Council in Los Angeles. The meeting was given over principally to a discussion of the club's part in defense work.

A donation was made to the newly organized Coffee Corps which has assumed the job of supplying hot coffee and sandwiches to soldiers on guard duty at night and a call was sent out for books and magazines to be turned over to the U.S.O. for use in libraries and recreation centers in various camps. The club is donating a phonograph with a supply of records for this purpose.

By unanimous vote, the club will abandon its evening dinner meetings "for the duration" and substitute a Sunday morning breakfast meeting. The first will be held Jan. 18 at the Daniels cafe, at which time the Torrance group will be hosted to the Bay Section. The legislative committee will be in charge of the meeting.

On Jan. 24 it is expected that Torrance will be on the air with a 12-minute script telling of the club's projects. Mrs. Julia McManus is in charge of this activity.

HOUSEWARMING AT ADAMS HOME

Mrs. C. D. Adams of 2027 Abalone ave. was the honored guest at a housewarming party given last Friday evening. Group games, under the direction of Mrs. Cavitt and Miss Ellen Adams, were enjoyed and prizes were won by Mrs. Fulford and Mrs. Elmer Crawford. Refreshments were served. Those present were Rev. and Mrs. Frank T. Porter and Mesdames Cavitt, Franklin, Davis, E. Crawford, Cook, Bryant, Banks, Alders, Fulton, Clark, Bohrer, Prime, O'Neill, Boschetti, Rowell, Adams, and Miss Ellen Adams.

BEVERLY JEAN CROOK IS TWELVE NOW

The twelfth birthday of Beverly Jean Crook was celebrated with a party at her home last week. Holiday decorations were used and an attractively decorated birthday cake and other refreshments were served. Those present were Karmee Dolley of Niland, Patty Sue and Nancy Allen, Betty Lou Sommers, Patsy Merritt, and Peggy Jo Crook.

CLUB HONORS MEMBER'S BIRTHDAY

The birthday anniversary of Mrs. John Disario was celebrated when members of the H-B Club gathered at the home of Mrs. M. J. Beale for luncheon last Wednesday. Pink roses and matching glassware were used for the table at which covers were placed for Mrs. Disario and Mesdames O. Kress, John T. Oursler, E. M. Johnston, Joseph Zelenka and Paul Weston. Mrs. Disario was presented with a handsome gift from the group and the ladies spent the afternoon knitting and sewing.

Jack Price accompanied by his son Glenn returned to Torrance this week where they joined Mrs. Price at 1732 Andree ave. They have been in Mahopac, New York for three years and one year respectively.
