Dramatic Episodes by Noted Actress Arouse Interest

The appearance of Mary Waterstreet, noted American solo actress, in her famed production of "First Ladies of the Land" tomorrow (Friday) night at the Torrance Women's clubhouse under auspices of the Betsy Ross club has aroused considerable interest here.

Miss Waterstreet's portrayal is an intensely dramatic indictment of aggressor nations and a scathing indictment of war lords now stalking the earth. The production shows the gradual influence of women in national affairs and through the emotions and psychology of those impersonated one feels the pulse of our national life.

She appears in authentic period gowns, coiffures and appropriate musical accompaniment adds to the charm of her portrayals. Tickets are 50 cents for adults and 25 cents for children. The presentation will begin at 8 o'clock, according to Mrs. Naomi Brown, president of the Betsy Ross club.

UNION PACIFIC

Key men in government and industry require fast, dependable transportation. That's where Union Pacific Streamliners play an important part. They are on the job — day in and day out.

And so it is with Union Pacific freight service. Production and assembly plants demand a steady stream of materials and parts. Union Pacific freight locomotives, powerful giants of the rails, are keeping 'em rolling so that Uncle Sam can "keep 'em flying."

Today, our Nation's war program comes first and Union Pacific is cooperating to the fullest extent. We appreciate the patient understanding of travelers who are not always able to obtain the accommodations they desire. Our thanks to you for your past and future cooperation.
