More First Aid Classes Starting

An Advanced First Aid class begins tonight, Thursday, at 7 o'clock in the city hall council room with Fred Folts as instructor. A Standard First Aid class also opens this evening at 7 o'clock in the city hall courtroom with Homer Wood as instructor.

Members of the Casualty Clearing Station personnel who have been holding regular meetings every Friday night since March 6 will hold their next practice session April 17. All First Aiders signed up for this work are expected to attend.

There is still an opportunity for a number of husky young men, 17 years of age or older, to serve in an emergency by reporting now for stretcher-bearing work. Those willing to learn how to handle a stretcher should apply to Police Chief John Stroh or Caspar Clemmer, whose phone is 850.

Property Officer to Handle OCD Supplies Suggested for City

Appointment of a "Local Property Officer" to handle any equipment and supplies the Torrance civilian defense organization may obtain from the OCD was recommended to the city council Tuesday afternoon by the League of California Cities. The suggestion was referred to the local defense council for recommendation to the council at its next regular meeting.

'Shutterbugs' Invited to Snap Bathing Beauties at Long Beach Sunday

Photogenically pretty girls and ardent amateur cameramen of Torrance: Long Beach invites you to compete for national defense bonds and stamps in the fourth annual Beach Girl Contest for Amateur Photographers, Sunday, April 12. The invitation is officially extended in a letter from the Long Beach Junior Chamber of Commerce to this city's chamber. A $50 defense bond, a trophy, a huge bouquet and the title "Camera Queen of America" go to the six-pastakes beauty winner in the contest, slated for 1:30 p. m. on the strand between Rainbow and Silver Spray piers.

All amateur lens artists and attractive girls are eligible to enter and a special invitation is given service men. The girls are required to register at the Long Beach Plunge on the day of the event. Each camera contestant must obtain a photographer's ribbon by buying to keep a 25-cent defense stamp at the judges' stand.

Torrance Hotel Open to Guests

Open today for the first time since the Nov. 14 earthquake, the Torrance hotel at the corner of Cabrillo ave. and Carson st. presents a fine appearance both inside and out as a result of extensive alterations and reconstruction.

James L. Lynch, proprietor, says that the hotel is ready to receive guests and offer them comfortable, pleasant accommodations. The renovation of the Torrance hotel was done by Edward G. Neess and Frank Schoenrock, who combined an attractive exterior with exceptionally strong structural construction.

AMBULANCE SERVICE

OBITUARY

WILLIAM VALEN... who lived in Torrance for a number of years died last Saturday afternoon as result of a sudden heart attack while he was en route to his home in Alhambra after a business trip here to look after his property. Mr. Valen was 58 years of age and had many friends here. He had been in ill health for several years. He was survived by his wife, Gertrude. The funeral service was conducted today at the Little Church of the Flowers in Glendale and interment was at Forest Lawn.

MRS. BETTY LEE HAUCK-INS CALDWELL... Who succumbed at Torrance Memorial hospital a few minutes after she was brought there April 1 as result of an automobile smash-up in Los Angeles city territory, was 19 years old and the mother of an 11-months-old son. The family lived at 9217 South Figueras st. An inquest was held at Stone and Myers chapel and the other driver involved in the crash was held negligent. Mrs. Caldwell suffered a fractured skull.

She was survived by her husband, Harry B. Caldwell, her son, parents, a sister and three brothers. Funeral service was held at Forest Lawn with Rev. Frank T. Porter officiating. Arrangements were made by Stone and Myers.

Confirmation Classes Starting Now at St. Andrew's Church

Adult and children's confirmation classes are now being formed at St. Andrew's Episcopal church to meet for study with the vicar, Rev. Paul M. Wheeler. Confirmation will be May 17 when the Rt. Rev. W. Bertrand Stevens, bishop of Los Angeles, will officiate at the rites and also sneak. This will be the bishop's annual visitation at the local church.

Those desiring to know more about the church are cordially welcomed to confer with the vicar about attending one of the classes.

The Panama Canal was opened for navigation in August, 1914.

President Benjamin Harrison was an enthusiastic stamp collector.
