Reistab-Weber Wedding Held At Bride's Home

In a simple but impressive ceremony performed Sunday afternoon at the home of the bride's parents, Miss Dorothy Marie Weber exchanged wedding vows with Mr. Robert W. Reistab, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Reistab of San Pedro. Rev. C. M. Northrup officiated in the presence of an intimate group of relatives and friends of the principals.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was lovely in a white marquisette afternoon gown complemented with a corsage of gardenias and roses. Miss Vera Mae Weber, in pink embroidered pique, and wearing gardenias, was her sister's maid of honor. Dale Dougherty was the bridegroom's best man. Music for the ceremony was provided by Mrs. Laura Short at the piano.

A reception for 55 guests followed the ceremony. The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. D. Weber of 1903 Andro ave., graduated from Torrance High school and from Chicago College of Beauty, Long Beach. Her husband was educated in San Pedro schools and is now employed at Columbia Steel Company. Mr. and Mrs. Reistab will live at Mayfair Apartments.

SUB DEBS MEET AT BRAY RESIDENCE

The home of Miss Mary Bray was the scene of an enjoyable party when she entertained members of the senior girls Sub Deb Club recently. At the close of the business session, Miss Jo Bayless, bride-elect of Paul Hansted, was showered with many lovely gifts.

The girls' plans include a horseback riding party, a picnic and a trip to Glenn Miller's broadcast. Those present at the evening party were the Misses Irene Findley, Connie Fernley, Marcella Smith, Barbara Evans, Phyllis Campbell, Regina Horbeck, Virginia Hall, Jo Bayless, and their guests, Marcia McWald and Ellen Adams.

Woman's Club to Hold Birthday Function May 6

Members and friends of Torrance Woman's Club are anticipating the annual birthday celebration next Wednesday, May 6, at 12:30 o'clock and the especially fine program which has been arranged for the afternoon. A birthday motif will be accented in the candle-light cakes and the traditional observance of the club's founding. Mrs. C. B. Mitchell will preside and Mrs. A. H. Silligo will present Marie Joe Browne, negro dramatic artist, who for six years was an active member of a well-known Little Theatre Group.

Mrs. C. E. Ruppel, club music chairman, will sing a group of selections, accompanied by Mrs. L. D. Babcock. Luncheon reservations must be made not later than Monday evening with Mrs. P. M. Johnston, phone 1220.

MATRON HONORED AT STORK SHOWER

Mrs. H. H. Cowan was honored at an attractively appointed luncheon and shower given last week at the home of Mrs. Phillips M. Brooks. Mrs. J. A. Covington assisted as co-hostess. Luncheon covers were placed for the honoree and Mrs. I. H. Harris, D. C. Mitchell, John Melville, Kenneth Dudley, R. L. Moffitt, W. M. Watrous, W. M. Watrous and Miss Laurela Lancaster, all members of Mrs. Cowan's bridge club.

Arrangements of pink ruffled petunias centered the luncheon table where diminutive baby booties and scales were used as favors. Contract prize winners were Mrs. I. H. Harris, W. M. Watrous and Miss Laurela Lancaster.

Mrs. Cowan was again complimented when members of her book review club met Tuesday evening at the Long Beach home of Mrs. Harold Ager. Spring flowers were used at the tables where dainty refreshments were served at the close of the evening. Mrs. Cowan was presented with a handsome gift from the group. Mrs. F. A. Covington, Mrs. J. A. Eisenbrandt and the honoree are Torrance members of the organization.

Educator's Value Theme of Address At Fern Ave. P.T.A.

"Educational Opportunity" was discussed by Mrs. Tone D. Swan, principal of Woodlawn Avenue school, at the regular meeting of the Fern Avenue P.T.A. Tuesday. She said an educated person is one who lives the richest, most useful, satisfying kind of life.

"Education is a change constantly taking place within us, we are never through with it until we die," Mrs. Swan said. She enumerated seven qualities an educated person should cultivate: good physical health, emotional health, ability to get along with people, good sense of value and sense of humor, problem solving, mental and physical skill and ability to enter into another world.

During a short business session the following officers were elected for 1942-43: Mrs. John G. Garter, re-elected president; Mrs. Geo. Grubbs, first vice-president; Miss Mary Waddell, second vice-president; Mrs. Marie Benson, third vice-president; Mrs. L. F. Watson, secretary; Mrs. A. C. Turner, financial secretary; Mrs. A. C. Steele, treasurer; Mrs. D. A. Murphy, auditor and Mrs. L. Stamps, historian. A social hour followed with Mrs. A. C. Steele and Mrs. Roy Myers as hostesses.

Spring-Fresh FRUITS and VEGETABLES

FRESH and CRISP as the morning dew—that's the sort of Vegetables and Fruits you will always find at the Carsonmart.

We cater to discriminating patrons, who DEMAND the BEST... that's why we carefully select only TOP GRADES of Fresh Fruits and Vegetables. Prudent housewives know that CHEAP PRODUCTS are always more costly in the long run.

A few pennies difference in price is often more than wasted in discarding or trimming away un-estable spoilage.
