Mary Lee Taylor's
Three-way Cookies
Broadcast Sept. 17

2 cups all-purpose flour
3 teaspoons baking powder
1/4 teaspoon salt
6 tablespoons soft butter or other shortening
1 teaspoon vanilla
6 tablespoons sugar
1/4 cup white corn syrup or strained honey
2 well-beaten eggs
1/4 cup Pet Milk
1 teaspoon cinnamon
3 tablespoons cocoa
2 tablespoons white corn syrup, strained honey or sugar

Sift flour before measuring. Resift with baking powder and salt. Put soft butter and vanilla in bowl. Add sugar gradually, mixing until light and fluffy. Then beat in corn syrup gradually. Beat in eggs vigorously. Add flour mixture alternately with 3 tablespoons milk. Beat until smooth after each addition. Begin and end with flour mixture. Divide batter into 3 equal portions. Drop one portion by teaspoons onto greased baking sheet, leaving a 2-inch space between each. Bake in moderate oven (375° F) on oven shelf slightly above center 12 minutes, or until brown. Mix cinnamon into second portion of batter, then bake as directed above. Mix into third portion of batter the remaining 1 tablespoon milk, the cocoa, and the remaining 2 tablespoons corn syrup. Bake as directed above. The 3 portions make about 4 dozen. Plain cookies may be garnished with chocolate decorations and cinnamon cookies garnished with halved raisins before baking if desired.

*Syrup or honey may be omitted if sugar in shortening mixture is increased to 1 cup.
