Women's Groups Take Keen Interest In War Bond Campaign

Willingness to aid in the war effort by the sale of War Bonds and Stamps in Torrance was demonstrated last Thursday night when representatives of 16 women's organizations met at the home of Mrs. Gertrude Ralston, 1667 Gramercy ave., for instruction in the technique of bond sales.

It appears that the women of this city have only to be shown a way to put their leisure time to a patriotic use and their eagerness to serve is immediately displayed.

In response to letters sent out under the direction of Chairman J. Hugh Sherrey, the following organizations sent delegates: Woman's Club, Junior Woman's Club, American Legion Auxiliary, Auxiliary Steel Workers Committee, Order of the Eastern Star, Royal Neighbors, Methodist church, Christian church, Lutheran church, Baptist church, St. Andrew's Episcopal church, Catholic Altar Society, High school, Elementary and Fern Avenue Parent Teacher Associations.

School of Instruction

The National Business and Professional Women's club, which is sponsoring the women's drive, was represented by Mrs. Harriett V. Leech, who expressed her gratification at the large attendance and the very evident desire of cooperation that was shown by the women present.

A school of instruction was conducted by Dean Sears, manager of the Bank of America, and Postmaster C. Earl Conner. Another meeting will be called before the end of October for further instruction, and all those organizations which were not represented last Thursday night are requested to send a delegate. Notices of the date will be sent to all groups as before.

Open Booths Nov. 1

Mrs. Leech especially wishes all those women who are planning to aid in the actual selling campaign by manning the booths to be present at this meeting. Each organization is to select 12 members who will give their time to this work on a regular schedule.

It is planned to open the booths one at each bank and another at a downtown location, on Nov. 1 and Mrs. Leech hopes to have all the arrangements completed well in advance of that date.

Mary Lee Taylor's Golden Rice Ring
Broadcast Oct. 15

1 cup washed, raw rice 2 1/2 teaspoons salt
8 cups boiling water 6 tablespoons finely cut onion
3 tablespoons melted butter or other shortening
1/2 cup Fat Milk
1 1/2 cups grated American cheese or 1/2 cup Swiss cheese
1/2 teaspoon pepper

Cook rice until tender in boiling water and 2 teaspoons salt. Drain and rinse with hot water. Grease an 8 1/2-inch ring mold. Cook onion slowly for 10 minutes in melted butter. Add milk, cheese, remaining 1/2 teaspoon salt and the pepper. Cook very slowly until cheese is melted. Then add cooked rice and heat thoroughly. Pack into greased ring mold. Keep warm. Turn out and fill center with Creamed Green Beans (See below). Slice at once. If desired, garnish outer edge of ring with thin slices of carrot, cut crosswise then halved. Serves 6.

Notes: The rice mixture may also be packed in a greased loaf pan, then turned out and the creamed vegetable arranged around it.

Creamed Green Beans

1 cup green beans, 1 1/2 tablespoons freshly cooked or butter or other canned shortening
1/2 cup liquid off green beans 3 tablespoons flour
1/2 cup Fat Milk 1/2 teaspoon salt
1/2 cup Fat Milk 1/2 teaspoon pepper

Drain green beans and save liquid. Melt butter in saucepan. Blend in flour, salt and pepper. Stir in slowly 1/2 cup liquid off green beans. Boil 2 minutes, stirring constantly. Stir in milk. Then add drained green beans and heat thoroughly, but do not boil. Serve at once in center of Golden Rice Ring. Serves 6.
