Fibber, Molly In Laugh Hit

Said to be much funnier than their earlier success, "Look Who's Laughing," Edgar Bergen and Charlie McCarthy and Fibber McGee and Molly combine forces again for a new cinematic assault on dignity in "Here We Go Again," which starts today at the Plaza theatre in Hawthorne.

While not a sequel to the former film, the new offering carries on the exploits of the McGees and their business relations with Bergen. Most of the action takes place in and around a swanky summer resort in the West, where Fibber and Molly go to celebrate their 20th wedding anniversary after their snobbish Wistful Vista friends have run out on the party Fibber intended for the occasion.

A notable supporting cast aids the quartette of stars in putting over the laughter-packed film. Harold Gray again plays the part of Gildersleeve, Fibber's patronizing enemy, and Ginny Simms has the romantic lead with Bergen. Ray Noble and his orchestra are featured also, and Isabel Randolph again plays Mrs. Uppington, with Gale Gordon as Cadwallader and Sterling Holloway, Bill Thompson and Esther Fernandez in important roles.

The above-mentioned check or bidder's bond shall be given as a guarantee that the bidder will enter into contract if awarded the work, or any part thereof, and will be declared forfeited if the successful bidder refuses to enter into contract after being requested so to do by the Board of Education.

The successful bidders will be required to furnish labor and material bonds in an amount equal to 75% of the contract price, and faithful performance bonds in an amount equal to 100% of the contract price, said bonds to be secured by a surety company or surety companies satisfactory to the Board of Education.

The Board reserves the right to reject any or all bids, and/or waive any informality on a bid. No bidder may withdraw his bid for a period of sixty (60) days after the date set for the opening thereof.

By order of the Board of Education of the City of Los Angeles. DATED Los Angeles, California, December 8, 1942.
