Furniture 5 THE TRADER SAYS
Reason there hasn't been any gab from us is because we were mad. Reason is that everybody got their names in this paper and told us, you and me, what was going to happen in '44 and right on the (2) page — But nobody asked us even on the back page and we think we have a right to predict too; so first we thought, well we won't talk, and then they'll suffer — But now so many folks ring us up, write to us and come in and ask us what we predict, that we are giving in and predicting — so cut this out and paste it on the bottom of your waste-basket!
We predict—1944 will be only one day longer than 1943 but it'll seem a lot longer, the sun will rise in the East in the morning, some days you can see it, most days it'll be there only 3000 feet high; $10 Alarm Clocks will ring and 7,104 people will get up and try to find it and get mad and cold and maybe swear—1999 won't hear it at all or have that many people get Alarm Clocks? Soap chips will be hard to get unless they are easier to get—so will butter; children won't want to go to school and will come a hungry, late, dirty. Everybody, you talk to will tell you (1) What's wrong with the government, (2) How to win the war, (3) When the war will be over, (4) How to cure a cold, (5) How much they paid for things back in '39, (5) What's a Democrat—a Republican, (7) How long it took to get their laundry back.
