Awards Assembly At Torrance High Conducted

On Friday, Jan. 19, the semi-annual awards assembly was held in the high school auditorium. It was here that the various awards for service were presented, of which there were many. Also the old council members turned over their offices to the newly elected members.

A few of the awards made at that time were: The Council awards by Harold E. Perry, principal; the Girls' League awards, Miss Elizabeth F. Parks, vice principal; the Tartar Knight awards, Olin Hoyt, sponsor; the Tartar Lady awards, Mrs. Lorraine Goodwin, sponsor; the various sports awards, John Winfield, Milton Katz, and Louis Sauter, the coaches; the safety awards, Werner Sommer, commissioner of safety; the Hall Patrol awards, Gus Gray, commissioner of halls and bonds.

Principal Perry also read the names of those students who have successfully maintained a perfect attendance record during the past semester.

This assembly was, as it always is, enjoyed by all except the senior A's for whom it was the last Aud Call at T. H. S.

At 12:30 p. m. on Friday, Jan. 19, a luncheon was held in the teachers' cafeteria at which were present all council members, those going out and those coming in. Also present were Harold E. Perry, principal; Miss Elizabeth F. Parks, vice principal, and Miss Irene Mills.

It was at this luncheon that Bert Smith handed the gavel to Richard Honrath. That gavel is in the possession of the student body president during his entire term of office.

Besides replacing Bert Smith as student body president of Torrance high, Dick Honrath will take Smith's place as an honorary member of the Torrance Rotary club.
