

Edison Masons In Torrance for Dinner Meeting

More than 500 members of Masonic lodges employed by the Southern California Edison Co., in an area from Long Beach to San Bernardino and from Santa Ana to the Tehachapis met at the civic auditorium Saturday afternoon and evening for a business session and for a dinner and entertainment.

Ernest M. Mosher, Lomita, master of Torrance Masonic Lodge 447, together with Gordon Mothersell, senior warden, and Fred Cook, junior warden, both of Torrance, were among those who welcomed the visitors.

The business session began at 8 p.m. with key Masonic lodge members and Edison employees from Long Beach, Compton, Lynwood, Torrance, Santa Ana and nearby cities participating and the dinner started at 6:30 p.m.

Following the formal addresses of welcome, five acts of vaudeville were presented.

Two Torrance Leaders Named Church Officers

Two Torrance citizens were elected to offices of Episcopal Diocese of Los Angeles at the 50th annual convention held at St. Paul's Cathedral, Los Angeles, last week.

The Rev. Paul Moore Wheeler, rector of St. Andrew's Episcopal church, was named a clerical member of the Department of Christian Education, and H. B. Lewis, executive secretary of Torrance Chamber of Commerce, was chosen one of the lay members of the department. Other clerical members are the Rev. W. O. Brown, the Rev. E. E. Hailwood, and the Rev. J. A. Luther. The other lay members are H. O. Cook, G. G. Entz and Judge J. H. Pope.

Bishop W. Bertram Stevens, who celebrated the 25th anniversary of his consecration here, reported "unprecedented prosperity" in church institutions here, paralleled, however, by need for more workers and facilities.

He called for a "necessary re-dedication of ourselves to service of all kinds in our grave emergency," and urged "thorough action now on postwar expansion plans.

Torrance Fire Damage for Year Is $8,071

Torrance fire department made a total of 218 runs responding to alarms in the calendar year 1944, and damage by fire resulting in calls to the department amounted to $8,071.00, according to Fire Chief J. E. McMaster.

Grass fires accounted for the greatest number of runs during the year, a total of 145 calls for this type of blaze resulting in fire department equipment being summoned in 1944.

During the year, 562 inspections were made by fire prevention officials, and 255 fire permits were issued. The department traveled 117 miles on runs, and used a total of 46,366 feet of hose. Fifty acres of land were burned to eliminate fire hazards.

During the year there were eight inhalator and first aid calls; one airplane crash resulted in a call; nine residence and apartment fires; six business alarms; seven oil fires; one box car fire; one haystack fire; two garage alarms; 14 auto alarms; 14 rubbish alarms; 14 miscellaneous alarms, and two false alarms.

Seventy-two drills were conducted during the year.

Local Teacher's Husband Has Big Mess Assignment

Herbert C. Burke, recently promoted first lieutenant, is perfectly willing to step into any feud regarding food with a staggering set of figures, at a U. S. Army General hospital in Paris. His wife is teaching at Chadwick Seaside school, Rolling Hills, Lomita.

Twelve,000 and 15,000 meals are served daily. This tremendous turnover is handled through a system which assures the many patients and permanent personnel the finest foods prepared in a most delectable style.

Heading a staff of 60 enlisted personnel, Lt. Burke has four dietitians, who in turn are ably aided by a staff of 125 French civilians.

In addition to his spacious modern mess halls, Lt. Burke's responsibility includes 22 ward kitchens which are separately staffed, handling of over 500 special diets, procurement of rations and special catering.

Red Cross functions, dinner meetings, civilian children parties or any get-together involving the serving of food, comes under Lt. Burke's jurisdiction.

A graduate of Vancouver university, British Columbia, Lt. Burke did post-graduate work in Sociology at the University of Chicago.

Lt. Burke enlisted in the army in January, 1942, and joined his present unit June of the same year.

Underwear and Nightwear to Be Reduced in Price

Women shoppers of Southern California within the next month will find a reduction of approximately seven per cent in the prices of women's, children's and toddlers' underwear and nightwear—about 60 items in all. OPA district apparel price heads, in announcing this also said that there will be a slightly increased supply of these articles.

The price reduction, is being obtained through a regulation which will require wholesalers to pass on to retailers and retailers to pass on to consumers a new reduction in the prices manufacturers may charge.

Townsend Club No. 1

Torrance Townsend Club No. 1 will hold its regular semi-monthly social night on Feb. 2. There will be the usual games with prizes for high scores and a door prize and dancing to the best music obtainable. The refreshments will be sandwiches and coffee. The public is always welcome to any and all meetings of this club. The meeting on Jan. 26 was attended by an unusually large crowd. After a short business session a door prize was awarded and dancing filled the remainder of the evening. Mr. Dawson assisted Mr. Buckley with the music. Floyd Reheimer also helped and Mrs. Morton played a delightful three step. There were visitors from both Redondo clubs No. 1 and 2, also Hawthorne. To Mrs. Newell, Mrs. Fox, and Mrs. Collier go the praise for the good home made rice pudding, sauce and coffee. Everyone had an enjoyable evening.

Good Chance That Palica May Play With Dodgers

Branch Rickey, Jr., head of the Brooklyn Dodger farm enterprises, said Friday that Ervin Palica, 16-year-old Lomita high school youth, recently signed to a contract, has been sent to the team's Montreal club, but that "he may even get to play with the Dodgers this summer."

"He is a fine prospect and we have been after him for a long while," Rickey said. "He is to report to Montreal for spring training, but there is a possibility if the baseball player shortage becomes more acute, that he may even get to play here in Brooklyn."

Palica played in New York last summer as a member of the West team in the first annual All-America boys' game.
