

Highway Bill Amendment Is Introduced

An amendment to Assembly Bill 1350, under which each county will receive a $60,000 biennial base allocation to be expended for postwar state highway improvements in rural areas, has been introduced, and hearings on this bill were set for next Wednesday before the Assembly Conservation and Planning Committee. Authors of the bill are Assemblymen Stream, Kraft, and Mrs. Niehouse.

The amendment, introduced by the authors, modifies the allocation formula as originally written in the bill, and further recognizes the needs of the rural counties with respect to future state highway construction and improvements. After the basic biennial allocation of $60,000 has been made by the State Highway Commission, the balance of the limited access highway funds are to be expended in the proportion that the motor vehicle registration in each county bears to the total state motor vehicle registration. The pending legislation, sponsored by five statewide organizations, provides for future construction of approximately 2700 miles of limited access roads in the rural areas of California, and 600 miles of urban freeways in the seven metropolitan centers. Supporting organizations concur with the authors in recognizing needs of the rural counties, as is provided in the amendment. These organizations include the Automobile Club of Southern California, the California State Automobile Association, the California State Chamber of Commerce, the County Supervisors Association of California, and the League of California Cities.

Torrance Visitor, Repatriated From Manila With Family, Says Japanese Atrocities Worse Than Revealed

Japanese atrocities are twice as bad as they are reported to be in the United States. They couldn't be worse. Authority for this statement is Mrs. Carmen Loewensohn, who just arrived with her three children on Navy transport from three years in custody of the Japanese in Manila. The three children, Richard, Ronald and Robert, say they owe their lives to the fact that they could speak Spanish to the Japanese, refraining from the use of English.

Mrs. Loewensohn, whose brother, William Baugh, married Margie Castle, daughter of Mrs. C. Ward of Torrance, is staying with the Wards for the present. Her husband, a civilian engineer for the U. S. Army, was killed in China by the Japanese. Her father, also an engineer who assisted in laying out the tunnels of the fortress of Corregidor was taken to Corregidor soon after he was captured by the Japanese in their ravages of underground avenues. Later he was killed. The sister-in-law of General Valdez, famed Philippine patriot, she was repatriated with John Valdez, brother of the general, and his wife, Ruby, and their two children.

Her sister and her family, except one boy, were buyoneted by the Japanese in their ravages of the Philippines. Mrs. Loewensohn's sons are being placed in a military academy in California, she said.

Tuition Free War Training Classes Start

The Long Beach War Training Center of the University of California announces two tuition-free courses, designed especially for men and women employed in war industries, opening next week.

Industrial Applications of Electronics, opening May 8, will present some of the many cases to which electronic control is applied in industry today. It is intended for engineers and others who are working with electronic equipment. This class will meet in Room 8, at 240 E. Third st., at 7:00 p.m.

The purpose of Descriptive Geometry, opening May 9, is to give competent engineering draftsmen sufficient knowledge of advanced principles of projection to allow them to do layout and design work. This course will meet in Room 606, at Polytechnic high school, at 7:00 p.m., each Wednesday for 20 weeks. Enroll at 240 E. Third st., or at the first class meeting. Telephone Long Beach 6-6735.

Gaffey Storm Drain Work To Be Started

After long negotiation the Navy is ready to restore drainage conditions on N. Gaffey st. as they existed prior to the filling of the south arm of Bixby slough with silt dredged from west basin, it has been reported. Los Angeles City Engineer Lloyd Aldrich said today $26,000 has been authorized for the improvement and that the successful operation of the plan depends on the Navy putting in a reservoir on property it owns west of Gaffey.

Aldrich said the improvement will include the building of two channels, one under Gaffey and another under Anaheim. Also included in the work is a spillway on the east side of Gaffey. The drainage project will carry storm waters from the Navy fuel depot property into Bixby slough.

Aldrich pointed out that flooding of the heavily-traveled road will be prevented during normal storms but that at the end of extra heavy rainy seasons the slough level may go high enough to flood back onto the road, as happened several years ago. The city engineer in his report to the city council said that eventual solution of this flood problem can be corrected only by construction of a diversion channel to drain approximately 25 acres of land through the long-proposed drain to carry excess slough waters into the west basin near Figueroa st. Applications for Lanham act funds for this latter project were filed a year ago but no action has yet been taken, Aldrich said.

Lomita Folk Are Honored on Big Radio Program

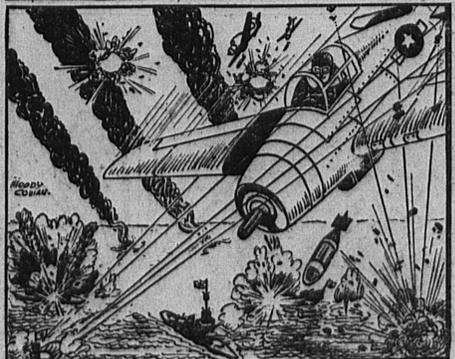

D. R. Toppliff, 96, and his daughter, Mrs. H. V. Adams, 75, both of Glendale, and grandfather and mother of Mrs. A. E. Cook, 24314 Allene ave., appeared on Art Baker's Radio Show, "Never Too Old," on Friday.

Mr. Toppliff and Mrs. Adams both qualified for the radio show by being over 70 years of age and by sending in letters of their eventful lives.

A wrist watch was presented to Mr. Toppliff and $10 to Mrs. Adams.

AMERICAN HEROES

COMDR. JAMES HAILE MINI, U.S.N., already holder of a DFC, has been awarded a Navy Cross for leading a flight of carrier planes against the Japs in the Philippines. He so deployed his command that they severely damaged six major combat vessels. Despite heavy anti-aircraft fire, he made an accurate bomb-run on a battleship, scoring a direct hit with a 1000-pound bomb. War Bonds helped pay for the planes and bombs that enabled the Manila-based officer to render that foe ineffective. His home now is at Vallejo, California. U. S. Treasury Department

Archer Named On 7th War Loan Committee

Franklin Archer, advertising manager of Bullock's, Los Angeles, has been named as one of the three members of the national retail advertising committee for the Seventh War Loan drive, which starts May 14. The committee's activities will be confined to department stores, clothing stores and specialty shops.

Archer's appointment, made by Samuel J. Cohen, national head of the retailers' Bond selling activities, was announced by Los Angeles War Finance Committee headquarters. Bert M. Sarazan of Washington, D. C., is chairman of the special committee, while the third member is Reuben Ryden of Detroit. Paramount aim of the committee will be to stimulate the use of more War Bond advertising by retailers, especially during the coming drive. Ads prepared under direction of the group will be made available to retailers and will supplement the series of Bond ads in mat form furnished by the War Advertising Council and the War Finance Division. It was announced.

First series of the committee's ads will feature the Small Bond certificates obtainable at store booths as gifts for men and women in the armed forces overseas.
