Gun Trophies Of War Must Be Registered Is Report

In behalf of public safety, Joseph D. Nunan, Jr., commissioner of Internal Revenue, today appealed to all members and veterans of the armed forces and their families to register and safeguard all machine guns and similar automatic weapons which have been brought into the country as war trophies.

Calling attention to the mandatory provisions of the National Firearms Act of 1934, and the regulations promulgated thereunder, Commissioner Nunan said:

"We have hesitated to do anything to hinder service families in the enjoyment of their richly earned trophies of war. However, our attention has been called to several instances in recent months where criminals have stolen or otherwise acquired war trophy guns and have used the weapons for criminal purposes. I am issuing these cautions for the safety both of service families and the public at large.

"Under the law, registration must be made at once by every possessor of any firearms of the automatic type, such as machine pistols, machine guns, sub-machine guns, or any type gun from which a number of shots or bullets may be discharged with one continuous pull of the trigger. I urge all servicemen, veterans, and their families having such guns to communicate at once—in person, by telephone, or mail—with the nearest office of an investigator in charge, Alcohol Tax Unit, Bureau of Internal Revenue, or to write to me in Washington. A representative of the Bureau will call and assist them with the registration without charge.

"At the same time, I urge possessors of these weapons to accept the assistance of the Bureau representative in rendering them permanently inoperable. This will not affect the sentimental value of the weapons, but will prevent accidents and keep them out of the hands of the criminal element.

"Furthermore, as long as the weapon is serviceable, the law requires payment of the $200 tax upon each sale, exchange, gift, or other transfer of the firearm. If the gun is made permanently inoperable, it may be transferred as a war trophy without payment of the $200 tax by the filing of Form 5 (Firearms) with the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, Washington, D. C.

"I earnestly hope that service families will understand that these cautions are being issued for their protection—protection not only against the consequences of possessing deadly weapons, but also protection against violation of the National Firearms Act which provides penalties up to five years in prison and a $2,000 fine for each violation. Careful compliance with this law, will, on the other hand, permit safe enjoyable war trophies of the type mentioned.

A 'Yam What Am' Grown By Local Firemen-Farmers

Believed to be the largest sweet potato ever grown, the Torrance city firemen have produced in their very own garden, adjoining the station, a four and one half pound 'yam what am.' This giant potato measures 10 inches in length and nearly 18 inches around.

The proud firemen report that their "Champ Yam" makes them the winner by at least three quarter pounds over any reported sweet potato. Fireman Robert Moffitt, appointed guardian of the garden, denied that he had injected any grow-quick vitamins into the yam, but insisted that it was the Torrance soil aided by the climate here that did the trick.
