FERN AVE. P.T.A. REPORTS MEETING

"Improved World Health" was the theme for the regular monthly meeting for Fern Avenue P.T.A. held in the school auditorium Wednesday afternoon of last week. In conjunction with the health theme an interesting and educational film entitled, "The Fifth Column" was shown depicting the damage done by rats, the diseases that are spread by them together with an explanation of how to protect the home from these dangerous rodents.

Mrs. Herbert T. Markham, president, conducted the business meeting. She introduced Mrs. John R. Garner, president of Lomita-San Pedro Council, who gave a brief welcoming message. S. C. Green, assistant program chairman, introduced Mrs. Machin, the school nurse and explained the immunizations and dental care that are given at the school. Preceding the meeting refreshments were served by Mrs. J. L. Moore and Mrs. F. F. Hodges with Mrs. Homer Schooley, hospitality chairman, assisting.

Mims-Adams Vows Are Recited In Beach City Chapel

Miss Ellen Adams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Adams, of this city, was married Sunday, Nov. 18 in Normandy Wedding Chapel, Long Beach. The bride wore a gown of traditional white slipper satin and carried a white orchid on a matching Bible. The wedding party included Miss Phyllis Campbell, maid of honor, who wore pastel blue and carried a nosegay of rosebuds and delphinium. Cadet Mack Mims, AAF, was his brother's attendant. Dick Boschetti ushered. Miss Charlene Rister, sister of the bridegroom, presided over the "guest book." At the reception, Mrs. Edgar Boschetti poured and a beautiful three-tiered wedding cake was served.

Mrs. Mims was graduated from Torrance high school with the class of 1942 and her husband was graduated from Bell High School. The young couple chose a desert ranch near Palm Springs for their honeymoon.

O.E.S. Arranges Installation Nov. 24; Reports Farewell

Following the regular business meeting of Torrance Chapter, No. 380, Order of the Eastern Star, held Thursday evening in Masonic Temple, a colorful Hawaiian theme was followed for the annual farewell night honoring their worthy matron, Naoma Brown and worthy patron, J. E. Miller.

Mrs. Frances Buckley served as chairman of arrangements and Mrs. Persia K. Fess was hostess.

A special escort was provided for Billie Kerber, Grand Ruth for 1945 and past matron of the chapter and for Lillian Menard, retiring district deputy for 1945. A varied musical program featured guitar, accordion and vocal selections, which were thoroughly enjoyed. Lorraine Ulrich and Persia Fess, attired as a native Hawaiian belle and queen respectively accented the theme used throughout. Banquet room tables were resplendent with blossoms and other decorations.

Handsome gifts were presented to Mrs. Brown and Mr. J. E. Miller from their staff of officers and other friends.

Formal installation of officers for Torrance Chapter will be held at the Temple at 8:00 o'clock Saturday evening, Nov. 24. Members and friends of the order are cordially invited to witness the rites when Hazel Fossum, as worthy matron, and O. E. Fossum, as worthy patron and their staff of officers will be inducted.

Fern Ave. P.T.A. Arranges Party For Next Thursday

Fern Avenue P.T.A. is sponsoring a card party to raise funds for the community youth activity budget. The party will be held in St. Andrew's Guild Hall on Thursday, Nov. 29 at 2:00 p.m.

There will be contract and auction bridge and a chat-sawing program. Refreshments will be served and prizes will be provided for all groups. Tickets are 50 cents and reservation will be taken as follows: auction bridge, Mrs. S. R. Green, 473-M; contract, Mrs. Lloyd Davis, 590-W; pinocchie, Mrs. E. A. Stamper, 944 and the chat-sawing group, Mrs. D. A. Murphy, 999-W.

ANTICIPATION SHOWER HONORS MRS. WHEELER

Mrs. Paul Moore Wheeler was honored at an attractively appointed surprise shower recently arranged at the home of Mrs. Benjamin W. Roberts on Amapola ave. Guests, numbering 12, were all members of her sewing club.

The incentive for the party was disclosed to the honoree at the dessert course, when a beautifully decorated cake, carrying a baby motif, was served. Pink snapdragons centered the table and place cards were inscribed with the following names:

Mmes. J. W. McMillan and her daughter, Mrs. G. T. Edwards, of West Los Angeles and Mmes. Sydney E. Hopkins, Harvel Guttenfelder, F. A. Covington, W. J. Rojo, Frank Paour, G. A. Kelley, H. E. Appenzler, John McVilvie, J. W. Post, the honoree and the hostess, Mrs. Harriett Leech, a member of the club, was unable to attend but sent a handsome gift for the bride-to-be and her felicitations. The dainty and useful gifts were especially treasured by the recipient when she learned that each was the handiwork of its donor.

The bride and her husband were educated in eastern schools. Before her marriage Mrs. Nobbs was employed as a secretary at National Supply Company. The bridegroom is salesman with the Birdseye-Snyder Frozen Food Company, of Los Angeles. Upon their return from a honeymoon in Crestline, the happy couple will make their home temporarily in Redondo Beach.

LOVELY BRIDE... Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cunningham Nobbs, whose wedding was solemnized in a beautiful candlelight ceremony Friday evening in the presence of about 60 wedding guests. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Kopas, of 21525 Harvard. Her husband's parents are Rev. and Mrs. William Nobbs, of Winchendon, Mass. Photo, courtesy, Ken Roberts.

In an impressive candlelight ceremony performed Friday evening at First Evangelical-Lutheran Church, Miss Dorothy Helen Kopas, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Kopas, of 21525 Harvard and Mr. Charles Cunningham Nobbs, son of Rev. and Mrs. William Nobbs, of Winchendon, Mass., exchanged wedding vows. Rev. F. D. Mechliff officiated in the presence of relatives and intimate friends of the principals. Accompanied down the aisle by her father, the attractive brunette bride was beautifully gowned in white brocade, fashioned with long sleeves and a slight train. Her lace-edged fingertip veil was draped from a halo of bouvardia and her bouquet was a white orchid and bouvardia showered with white satin ribbon.

The bride's attendants were Mrs. William Bernard, of this city, who wore golden Oriental brocade and carried Tailsman roses and Mrs. Louis Lutes, of Redondo Beach, whose gown was of aqua taffeta, complemented by an arm bouquet of Briardlife roses. Little Jeanette Wright, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Wright, of 1562 215th st., was flower girl in a charming frock of pink net over taffeta. A halo of sweetheart rosebuds completed her costume. William Bernard and Louis Lutes attended the bridegroom and Francis Roberts ushered. Mrs. Roberts presided over the guest book.

A reception for 60 guests followed at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard at 1602 W. 215th st., where a decorated three-tiered wedding cake and other refreshments were served. Mrs. John Wright and Mrs. Francis Roberts assisted with reception arrangements. Mrs. Kopas received in floral crepe with contrasting accessories and a corsage bouquet of Lucille Supreme roses and bouvardia.

The bride and her husband were educated in eastern schools. Before her marriage Mrs. Nobbs was employed as a secretary at National Supply Company. The bridegroom is salesman with the Birdseye-Snyder Frozen Food Company, of Los Angeles. Upon their return from a honeymoon in Crestline, the happy couple will make their home temporarily in Redondo Beach.

Civic Orchestra To Be Sponsored By South Bay Area

Under the auspices of adult education, a civic orchestra for the whole South Bay area is organizing and will meet at Redondo high school at 7:00 p. m. Wednesday, Nov. 28 and every Wednesday thereafter.

Over 20 of the best musicians of the community have already expressed their desire to participate. It will provide an excellent opportunity for young artists of this area to develop and display their ability. For those to whom music is a hobby, it will enable them to enjoy and improve a beloved art.

Elyse Aehle, who has a leave of absence from the directorship of the civic symphony in Alton, Ill., will direct. Mrs. Aehle has had a fine musical background, being president of the School of Fine Arts in St. Louis. She has toured as a concert violinist in the United States, Europe and Canada; was soloist on two radio programs each week, and directed a Spanish orchestra which was also on tour. While in Europe she was concertmaster of the Smetana Symphony of Czechoslovakia and broadcast over an international hookup from Paris, France.
