

P Peace on earth good will to men

Christmas, 1945 . . . of all Christmases . . . looms as the most soul-stirring, the most med-itative. A friendly day in which to dream as well as make merry . . . a day when "Peace on Earth, Good Will to Men" will assume a greater meaning . . . a hope so profound that it transcends utterance. Give thanks for this land where people are free to gather openly and pray. Give thanks for the birth of the Saviour who taught the world that love is more powerful than hate, good mightier than evil, life stronger than death.
Express your thanks—by attending church.
