Junior Woman's Club Fashion Show Outstanding Among Local Programs

By MARY VONDERAHE Outstanding among recent Torrance club affairs was the highly successful fashion show presented by Torrance Junior Woman's Club Thursday evening to a capacity audience in Civic Auditorium. Mrs. H. L. Wagner, Jr., club president, was charming as narrator. The exhibition, made possible through the courteous cooperation of Torrance merchants, featured advance spring fashions, beautiful workmanship, the smartest fabrics, and appropriate accessories. The lovely models—club members and their children—presented around-the-clock styles suitable for the most discriminating.

Torrance merchants, whose garments and accessories were modeled, were Gay Shop, Mode O'Day, Jane Grey Shop, Beston's, Tiny Tyndal, Kiddie Lane, Charlston's, Ellwood's, Karl's Shoe Store and Bernard's Family Shoe Store. During intermissions, many beautiful prizes, contributions from the above named stores and others, were given away by Mrs. Von Bergen and her youthful assistant, Dal Derouin.

Highlighting the show was the presentation of the lovely young participants in the club-sponsored "Miss Torrance of 1946" contest. Mrs. John H. Ritchie, contest chairman, introduced the girls. The successful contestant will receive her crown at 8:30 Saturday evening, March 16, at Torrance Woman's Clubhouse, during the senior club's second annual Spring carnival.

Proceeds from the fashion show and the queen contest will be contributed to a fund to further the institution of the Y. W. C. A. in Torrance. At the conclusion of the program, refreshments were served at attractively appointed tables arranged by the juniors. Mmes. Dean L. Sears, H. E. Massie, J. H. Moore and John T. Oursler, present and past sponsors who are members of the senior Woman's Club, poured.

The complete success of the fashion show is an evidence of the untiring efforts of all the juniors, who participated in every possible way.

Founders' Day Program Marks PTA Meeting

Founder's Day was commemorated Tuesday, Feb. 26, with a joint P.T.A. meeting of Torrance high, Fern Avenue and Torrance elementary schools in the high school auditorium with Mmes. Frank S. Selover, H. T. Markham and Don Wolf, respective presidents, conducting the meeting.

Boys from Scout Troop 219 lead the pledge of allegiance followed by an inspirational reading by Mrs. Don Wolf. Raymond Cassey, new high school principal was introduced by Mrs. Selover. Miss Nancy Ann Whyte entertained with a piano solo selection, "Fantasie Impromptu in C-Sharp Minor" (Chopin).

A Founder's Day skit "With Faith and Hope," directed by Miss Irene Mills was cleverly portrayed by Jay Stroth, Joe Ban, Arline Atwood, Shirley Severin, Polly Robinson, Darrell Comstock, Mary Tibbitts, Zaida Bourne, Jack Blackburn and George Larson with incidental music by Miss Storrs, Louis Sauter and high school students.

Life memberships were presented to Mrs. Don Wolf and Mrs. H. T. Markham of Torrance elementary and Fern Avenue P.T.A. respectively. Miniature scrolls representing a shareholder in the new Parent-Teacher Health Center were received by the following past presidents: Mmes. Charles E. Woodcock and L. E. Watson of Torrance high, J. J. Millard, John Garner and Jack Long of Fern Avenue and Mina Shilder, James E. Hitchcock, M. J. Edwards, Harold P. Smith, Hillman R. Lee, W. H. Tolson and Irene Perry of Torrance elementary schools. A publicity book which had received high merits was presented to Mrs. Watson by Mrs. Millard.

Gateway Council was represented by Mrs. Millard and Mrs. J. S. Dresser and Lomita-San Pedro Council was represented by Mrs. Garner, president. B. J. Strand, principal of Torrance elementary, Miss Salisbury, principal of Fern Avenue and Miss Elizabeth Parks, vice-principal of Torrance high schools were introduced and each in turn presented the teachers.

Following the traditional silver offering, the meeting was concluded with the Popovich sisters in a clever song and dance routine. Tea was served in the foyer with Mmes. S. F. Hopkins and A. C. Turner pouring.

JOBS DAUGHTERS REPORT MEETING Torrance Bethel No. 50, Job's Daughters, reports an enjoyable meeting Tuesday evening which marked the official visit of their grand deputy. Initiation was a feature of the ritualistic work. Refreshments were served in the banquet room.

A come-as-you-are breakfast, to be held in the home of Frances Barrington, is being planned. Another activity scheduled by the girls is a pot luck supper for Job's Daughters and DeMolays to be held on March 31.

Mrs. Bernice Busse was named as one of the saleswomen that will assist in the store.

MARRIED... Mr. and Mrs. Marvin P. McArthur, whose marriage was solemnized recently in Catholic Church of the Nativity. Following a reception for about 175 wedding guests, the couple left for a Palm Springs honeymoon. They will make their home here.

HAREMOTT BITES READ HERE SUNDAY First Baptist Church was the setting for the ceremony performed Sunday afternoon when William E. Hare, of Compton, took as his bride, Miss Mary Ellen Moffitt, of Maywood. Rev. C. C. Northrup, an uncle of the bridegroom, officiated in the presence of about 100 guests.

The bride attendants were Mmes. Frances Podurziel and Nell Hooper. Franklin DeWitt and Robert Hare attended the bridegroom. Leslie Long played the accompaniment for Howard Gilliam, who sang. A reception followed in the church parlors, where refreshments were served.

Knitters are asked to call at once for supplies and instructions.

SICKLES-AMBELL ENGAGEMENT TOLD Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Ambill, of 2018 Andrea ave., have announced the engagement of their daughter, Lois Virginia, to W. Arthur Sickles, of this city. The bride-elect, formerly of Pittsburgh, Pa., is an employee of National Supply Company and her fiancé is employed at Todd Shipyards, in Wilmington. An early June wedding is being planned.

FROM OREGON Mr. and Mrs. Walter Crenshaw, of Prospect, Ore., are house guests of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bolln, of 2415 Border ave.

All white stock and greenery created an effective background for the recent impressive rites which united in marriage Miss Polly Janet Bartlett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert H. Bartlett, of 1618 Amargosa ave., and Mr. Marvin P. McArthur, of this city. Rev. P. J. McGuinness officiated in the presence of 175 wedding guests.

Given in marriage by her father, who accompanied her to the altar, the attractive bride wore a beautiful white satin gown, fashioned with pearl beaded yoke, long sleeves and train. She carried a white prayer book on which was placed a white orchid in a shower arrangement. A pearl cross, a gift of the bridegroom, was her only jewelry.

Mrs. L. J. MacArthur, as matron of honor, was attired in turquoise satin, complemented with yellow veiling and roses worn in her hair. A Colonial bouquet of matching roses completed her ensemble. The other attendants, Mrs. William E. McGinnis, of this city and Mrs. J. J. Radford, of Redondo Beach, wearing marquisette gowns fashioned alike of orchid and blue respectively, performed a pretty candlelight ceremony preceding the rites. Little Mary Clare MacArthur, a niece of the bridegroom, was flower girl in a dainty white marquisette frock over pink satin. J. L. MacArthur attended his brother and Mrs. J. Parke Montague and Edward Shaner ushered.

At the reception which followed in Nativity Hall, Mrs. Bartlett received her guests in plum colored crepe with black accessories. Her flowers were Lucille pink roses and violets. Mrs. Clara Schwinck, of Los Angeles, who represented the bridegroom's mother, wore shocking pink with black accessories and a corsage of gardenias and roses.

Assisting with reception arrangements were Mmes. McGinnis, Radford and J. E. Miller. Mrs. J. Parke Montague, assisted by Mmes. F. L. Parks and E. E. Banks, completed the floral arrangements for the wedding and reception. The former presided over the guest book.

Upon their return from a honeymoon in Palm Springs, Mr. and Mrs. McArthur will make their home here. The bridegroom, a native of Holdingford, Minn., had recently received his honorable discharge following 40 months' overseas service with the 164th Infantry.

A Tech sergeant, he holds the Asiatic-Pacific and American Defense campaign ribbons and the Philippine Invasion ribbon with a bronze star and participated in actions in Guadalcanal, Northern Solomons and the Southern Philippines.
