

County Incinerator To Be Built In Torrance Under Plans of Supervisors

Eleven new public incinerators and the purchase of the existing one at Pasadena, at a total cost of $6,000,000 instead of the six originally planned at a cost of $4,610,000, are recommended in a supplemental report from the county refuse committee on file with the Board of Supervisors. One is proposed for Torrance.

After a number of months of study of the smoke and fumes nuisance in this area the committee, appointed by the board at the instigation of Supervisor Raymond V. Darby, made a report last July in which it recommended that six incinerators be built.

Average Haul Out
The committee now recommends 11 new incinerators and the purchase of the one at Pasadena, with the average haul reduced from 10 to 5 miles. The tonnage capacity daily at each plant would range from 200 tons in San Fernando Valley to 900 at a centrally located plant. The system would be financed by a county-wide bond issue.

The committee recommends incinerators be built in the San Fernando Valley, Glendale, San Gabriel Valley, Pomona, Norwalk, Long Beach, Torrance, Santa Monica, Inglewood, Vernon and Alhambra.

The original six were planned for the San Fernando Valley, San Gabriel Valley, Norwalk, Harbor district, West Bay and one centrally located.

Local officials said that they would watch closely plans for the Torrance incinerator, to assure its location in an area east of the city.

LONG BEACH HAS 242,081 RESIDENTS NEW CENSUS SHOWS

Population of Long Beach is 242,081 according to unofficial figures released today by George K. Klink, supervisor of the special census just completed here.

In 1940, the local population was 164,271 and in 1930, it was 142,032. Official figures on the special census will be released later by the bureau of census in Washington D.C.

Drunk Drivers Continue To Pay In City Court

Pleading guilty to drunk driving before City Judge John Shidler, Ruby G. Butler, Long Beach, and James Bays, 2309 Carson, each was ordered to pay a $40 fine along with losing operator's permits for 30 days.

The low level of the fines was decided upon by Shidler after determining the circumstances in the two cases.

Usually, it was explained, the penalty for drunk driving is a great deal more severe.

Local Sergeant With 1st Cavalry In Tokyo, Japan

Sergeant Ellis S. Rorer, Torrance, is among the latest group of men selected from the famous 1st Cavalry Division to return to the United States from Tokyo for demobilization.

Overseas 10 months, Sergeant Rorer served as First Sergeant of Service Troop, 6th Cavalry Regiment. He wears the Asiatic-Pacific Theater ribbon with one campaign star for Luzon, the Philippine Liberation ribbon with one star, the Good Conduct ribbon and the Victory ribbon.

His wife, Dixie Rorer, resides at 1012 Portola st., with their two children, Jacqueline and Larry.

U. S. Revenue Offices Open On Saturday

All offices of the Internal Revenue Service will be open to the public from 8:00 a. m. to 4:30 p. m. Saturday, March 28.

Minor children were warned today by Collector of Internal Revenue Harry C. Westover that they must file their own federal income tax returns if they earned as much as $500 during 1945.

"Even if the income was less than $500 last year the minor should file a return in order to secure a refund of any taxes withheld from his 1945 wages," Westover advised.

"Parents are no longer required to include the income of their minor children in their own tax return, regardless of the amount of that income. If it exceeds $500, the parents may not take a dependency credit for the child. If the income was less than $500 credit may be taken for the child as a dependent even though he secures a refund of withheld taxes. In such cases, however, the parents are cautioned that they must be able to prove they supplied more than one-half of the amount necessary for the support of the child during the year.

"Parents of minor children required to file tax returns and to remit taxes will be held liable if their children fail to meet their tax requirements," Westover declared.

Anaheim Blvd. Paving Job Goes To Griffith Co.

The Los Angeles board of public works Saturday awarded a contract for completing work on Anaheim st. east of Vermont ave. to the Griffith Co. on a low bid of $36,848.

Money for the job will come from the state gas tax fund, and work is expected to get under way within 10 days. A right-of-way agreement, which has been holding up award of the contract has been reached, the city said.

Approximately 60 days is the estimated time for completion of the job for which nearly three years has shut off Anaheim st. Eighteen thick asphalt will be used on the 7000 square feet of paving and 9826 square feet of rock and oil 'shoulders' two inches deep will line the road.

Kiwanis Club Hears Of Oil Development

Torrance Kiwanis Club Monday evening heard Hugh Matler, member of the National Geographic Society tell of his early experiences in the development of the oil fields of Persia and the conflict of interests there between Great Britain and Russia.

President John Stroh welcomed two new members to the club. They were Kermit E. Axelson and Jack L. Wheelchel.

The club voted to pay its share with the other clubs in the erection of nine signs on the outskirts of Torrance.

A special meeting is planned next Monday night to hear Dr. Richard Vollrath who will speak on "Atomic Energy and the Atomic Bomb." Dr. Vollrath is a scientist on the staff of USC and has been a contributor to the development of the atomic energy.

Local Woman Wins Chance For Spree

Mrs. Mary Ella McLeod, a Torrance army hospital laboratory technician, wanted to be "Queen" on the "Queen For a Day" radio program Thursday, not so much for herself as for the five other lady technicians who sat tense and waiting in the audience of two thousand in the Earl Carroll theatre.

Her wish, if she passed the table-top scrutiny of the housewife jury, was to see that her friends—with whom she had worked for three years during a four-year war—had a chance to paint the town red before the circle of six called it a day. She won.

As "Queen" Mrs. McLeod and her friends were taken on a tour of movie studios, and luncheoned at the gayest restaurants in Los Angeles and Hollywood.

Her gifts were many. The "Queen's" maids-in-waiting were Mrs. Evelyn R. Ayres, Miss Ruth A. Moberg, Miss Margaret Oesterle, all of Torrance and Miss Edith Sergeron and Miss Ruth Garrison of Gardena.

POULTRY FEED SHORTAGE BRINGS WARNING FROM U.C.

The poultry feed situation is such that dealers are supplying their old customers, thus taking care of hens now producing, and as a result new poultrymen will find it difficult to get feed.

With this in mind, L. D. Sanborn of the agricultural extension service, University of California, warns that this is not an advisable time for new people to enter the poultry business.

He urges that backyard flocks definitely not be expanded and believes most of them should be reduced to just the number of hens necessary to satisfy home needs.

Workers In Rubber Win Pay Increase

The nation's four principal rubber manufacturers and the C. I. O. Rubber Workers Union have agreed on an 18 1/2 cents hourly wage increase covering some 100,000 workers.

Twelve cents of the wage increase will be retroactive to Nov. 1, 1945, the union and company spokesmen announced. The agreement ended 11 days of the first industry-wide negotiations.

Agreement also was reached on payment of double time for Sundays and holidays.

L. S. Buckmaster, president of the union, said the wage agreement is contingent on approval by the National Wage Stabilization Board and ratification by the local unions involved at some 40 plants operated by the Goodrich, Goodyear, Firestone and U. S. Rubber companies, two of which are in Torrance.

Petty Theft In Schools Investigated

Mrs. Eleanor Allen, member of the Los Angeles Board of Education, told the board Monday night that an increase in petty crimes among pupils of elementary grades is "assuming the proportions of an emergency."

Mrs. Allen said she has visited certain schools recently and received firsthand information on various delinquent acts by organized youth gangs. In one such escapade, she declared, a schoolroom had been set afire and partially destroyed.

Commenting upon Mrs. Allen's report, Supt. Vierling Kersey disclosed that a committee from the School Principals Club has lately made similar allegations in a letter to the board.

Kersey informed the board that a study is under way of the crime situation in local schools and that a system of policing may be set up to combat the trend.
