Valley Lecture Enjoyable Affair At Woman's Club

Book lovers and those interested in world affairs and their effects on forthcoming events were delightfully entertained Friday morning when Lorita Baker Valley appeared for her March lecture before Torrance Woman's Club.

In her usual brilliant manner the distinguished commentator brought an interesting and instructive message to the more than 200 club women and their guests gathered in the clubhouse.

The following books were reviewed: "The Great Conspiracy," Sayres and Whom Palestine; "Frank Gervasi," "Washington Tapestry," Olive Ewing Clapper; "Starling of the White House," Sugre and Starling; "Mr. Lincoln's Camera Man," Roy Meredith; "The Street," Ann Peary; "Mrs. Palmer's Honey," Fannie Cook; "Negro Labor," Robert C. Weaver; "Marching Billies," Adam Clayton Powell; "My Lady of Cleves," Margaret Campbell Barnes; "The Foxes of Harrow," Frank Yerby; "Second Carrot from the End," Fred Beck; "Applejack for Breakfast," Helen and Alfred Campbell; "How to Be a Civilian," Morton Thompson.

At the conclusion of the program a coffee hour was enjoyed. At tables colorful with arrangements of calla lilies and wisteria.

Mrs. J. W. Post, C. T. Rippey, N. F. Jamieson and W. I. Laughon, poured.

Mrs. A. H. Silligo, ways and means chairman, reminds season ticket holders that Mrs. Valley will present another program here on April 17.

At this, the concluding lecture of the series, ticket holders may avail themselves of the opportunity to invite a guest for each date remaining unpunched, at no additional cost.

A St. Patrick's theme was followed for decorations and refreshments enjoyed by Mmes. Evelyn Schooley, Torrance; Dorothy Nobbs, Redondo Beach; Betty Stevens, Ethel Wolford, Thelma Sherman, Wanda Martin, all of Los Angeles; Iris Wild, Maxine Little, Lillian Wolford, Zip Garrison and Misses Audrey Merritt and Nadine Norton, all of Inglewood; Mrs. Billie Van Loan, Van Nuys and club guests Mmes. Alice McCune, Torrance; Amy Dilworth and Mrs. Taylor, Torrance.

St. Patrick's decorations added a colorful note to the dining room, where places were set for troop members and troop committee members.

Those participating were tenderfoot Scouts Shirley and Sandra Reeves, Coleen Steffen, Carol and Margery Lovell, Barbara Mondor, Virginia Shaner, Joan Weber, Willa Jean Whitten, second class Scouts Joan and Betty Zienke, Margaret Vonderahe, Shirley Moody, Neola Morin, Shirley Reichman, Ann and Maurine McGarry.

CHILDS-RIGGIO EXCHANGE VOWS
Bethany Evangelical Lutheran Church, Los Angeles, was the setting Sunday afternoon for the nuptials which united Kenneth E. Schwartz, son of Mrs. W. E. Childs, of Lomita and Miss Marie Rose Riggio, of Los Angeles.

More than 400 guests, including a representative group from Torrance and Lomita, witnessed the ceremony and attended the reception following.

The bridegroom, a nephew of Mr. and Mrs. A. Shriver, of this city, with whom he made his home for several years, has been stationed at Sheppard Field Army Air Base, as an intelligence officer. He will resume his studies at U.S.C. when he receives his release from the Army.

Musical Program Is Scheduled For Woman's Club

Torrance Woman's Club members and their guests have in store for them an unusually fine program scheduled for their regular meeting date, Wednesday afternoon, April 3, when Maurice Zam pianist and radio artist will be presented.

Of Maurice Zam's presentations it has been said: "A Zam program is a happy synthesis of illuminating comment, humorous insight into composers and their works, and what should particularly interest Americans—an unusually skilful presentation of the works of living American composers."

Such well known critics and musicians as Charles Wakefield Cadman, Alfred Hertz, Rupert Hughes, Dr. Otto Klemperer, and many others are high in their praise of his artistry.

Tea will be served at the conclusion of the program. Nomination of officers for the ensuing term will be a feature of the business session to be conducted by Mrs. R. R. Smith.

L. A. COUNTY C. F. W. C. CONVENTION PLANNED
The 15th annual convention of the Los Angeles County, C.F.W.C., will convene at the Long Beach Municipal Auditorium at 10:00 a.m. Monday, April 1, with Mrs. Scott J. Campbell, president, presiding. The theme will be "Post War Problems."

In the morning there will be a panel discussion on the subject "Reports vs. Programs," of which Mrs. Thornton Kinney will be moderator, and in which club presidents will participate.

Mrs. Benjamin F. Warner, president C.F.W.C., will speak on "Youth Activities." The afternoon speaker will be Robert Bauer, Better Business Bureau, of Los Angeles, who will talk on "Protecting War Time Savings;" Olive Howard, lyric soprano, accompanied by Bessie Butry, will entertain with songs, as will a chorus from the Long Beach City schools. Luncheon will be served in the Marine Room, Hilton Hotel.
