TAMMANY'S BEGINNING

The Tammany Society of New York, which for so long played an important part in the politics of New York City, was first organized May 12, 1780. At that time it was known as the "Columbian Order." In 1805 it was chartered as the "Tammany Society."

POLICE, STATE GUARD COOPERATION . . . Working jointly in event of disaster or emergency will be the police departments and the California State Guard as demonstrated recently by troops of the 2nd Battalion, 39th Regiment, and the Torrance Police department. Photo above shows Sgt. William Evans in a radio car receiving and sending disaster messages with Pfc. Harry S. Ramskill of Co. H, Torrance, communications man, assisting.

OBITUARY

JOHN JOSEPH MURPHY
John Joseph Murphy, 42, of 22309 S. Main st., for more than 20 years a resident of the district, died Friday at the Sunland sanitarium. He is survived by two daughters, Mrs. J. A. Reebe, Torrance, and Mrs. Carl Cone, San Diego; and a sister-in-law and nephew, Mrs. Maude Cook and Jack Cook, with whom he made his home. Funeral services were conducted in a San Pedro funeral home Tuesday.

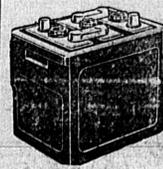

HARVEY FRANK BECKWITH

Funeral services for Harvey Frank Beckwith, 71, who died Saturday, were conducted in the Stone and Myers chapel yesterday by the Rev. Ronald J. Merritt. A member of the Modern Woodman of the World, Evergreen Lodge, he was a retired employee of the Pacific Electric Co. here, also a former employee of the Martin Stamping Co. in Torrance. He is survived by three daughters, Mrs. Ruth Harden, 1751 Andreo ave., with whom he made his home; Mrs. Vivian Cook, Torrance, and Mrs. Florence Welz, Redondo Beach; a brother, Fred E. Beckwith, Walnut Park, sisters, Mrs. Lona Turnrose, Huntington Park, and Mrs. Cora Honeycutt, Temple Tex., and two grandchildren, Richard and Carolyn Welz, Torrance; nephews, Floyd, Los Angeles; Ervino and Everett Honeycutt of Dallas, Tex.; nieces, Mrs. Elsie Berger and Mrs. Hazel Munsen of Los Angeles, and Mrs. Estella Rumble, Walnut Park. Interment will be in the Inglewood Park cemetery.

THE REAL FOUNDATION

Burn down your cities and leave your farms, and your cities will spring up again as if by magic; but destroy our farms and the grass will grow in the streets of every city in the country. — William Jennings Bryan.
