Easter Play To Feature Services At Foursquare

Easter services in the Foursquare Church at 1207 El Prado in Torrance, will include the Sunday School program at 9:45 a.m. when many numbers will be rendered by the children of that department. At 11:00 a.m. Rev. Arthur Pedersen will bring the Easter message. In the afternoon, Easter numbers will be rendered. At 7:30 p.m. the Easter Play, "I Know He Liveth" will be presented by the youth of the church. This beautiful play will be given with colored lights and in costume. The characters participating are:

Magdalene, Thelma Johnson; Mary, Charlene Johnson; Martha, Ed Reynolds; Lazarus, Charles March; Salome, Ruby Sizemore; Suzanna, Melva Sizemore; Joanna, Ruth Schimnick; Hagar, Joyce Reynolds; The Voice, Walt Kinsey; Selfishness, Beverly Lockhart; Arrogance, Grace Moore; Pride, Susan Moore; Wealth, Joyce Crain; Covetousness, Marian Jones.

Special musical numbers which are part of the play will be rendered by a group of singers composed of Alene Pedersen, Martha Bell, Lela Bell, Maybelle Carlton. Pianist is Edith Kinsey.

Local Schools Return To Basic 3-R's Program?

Los Angeles Public Schools including Torrance have returned to the sound basic program of the three R's, Reading, Riting, and Rithmetic. Kersey made his statement in connection with Public Schools Week.

"Nor are the arts and crafts and good citizenship being neglected," he added.

Easter Sunrise Services, Special Observances Mark Holy Week

Easter Sunrise services will mark the arrival of Easter and the conclusion of Holy Week rites in the various churches of Torrance and Lomita.

A youth Easter Sunrise Service is being planned for 6:30 a.m. Easter morning at the band shell in Torrance Park by a representative youth committee from the Y.M.C.A. sponsored Tartar Town, Wanda Moore, chairman, is led by Jay Stroh, Darrell Comstock, Ralph George, and Carlotta Dean.

Identical Rites Plan Of Lomita Presbyterians

For the convenience of Easter worshippers, two identical services will be held at the Community Presbyterian Church, 2154 245th St., Lomita, on Easter morning. The earlier service will be at 8:30, and the regular service at 11 o'clock. The pastor will speak on "The Lord of Life." Special music will be as follows: "Easter Dawn," "O Death Where Is Thy Sting?" and "Hallelujah Chorus" by the choir. "Art Thou the Christ?" by Mrs. Donald Olsen. "He Shall Feed His Flock," and "Come Unto Me," by Mrs. Herman Jensen and Mrs. Tom Willace. Sunday School will meet at 9:45.

In the evening at 7:30 the pastor will speak on "Two Friends Talk with Christ," and special music will be sung by the Young People's Choir.

New Type Church Service Started At Evangelical

Working on the theory that the Christian message can best be brought, and that worship can best be taught, to young people in a service conducted on their own level, Central Evangelical Community Church inaugurated such a plan last Sunday. Sunday morning services now consist of three divisions: Church of Youth at 9:30; classes in Christian Education at 10:15, and the traditional 11:00 o'clock Worship Service. The young people were well pleased to have their own service, complete with youth choir, and the first Sunday's experience was most gratifying to all.

Next Sunday there will be reception of members and baptisms in both the 9:30 and the 11:00 services. Rev. Paul E. Miller will speak in the first service on the subject, "Why We Love Easter." In the second service Rev. H. Wesley Roloff, minister of the church, will speak on "The Resurrection Challenge."

The most prominent feature of the evening service will be the use of a high grade colored sound motion picture, "Journey Into Faith," to help bring the Easter message. It is the story of the first Easter. This is a Cathedral Film, which is sufficient assurance that it is well worth seeing. The pastor extends a cordial invitation to all to share in their service.

Ministerial Union and all youth and adults of this community are encouraged to attend

The Annual Union Easter Sunrise services of the churches of Lomita, Harbor City and nearby communities will be held at 5:30 a.m. on Cypress st. hill in South Lomita. Major James W. McConchie, U.S. Army chaplain, will deliver the message of Easter, and pastors of Calvary Church Assembly of God, Community Presbyterian, First Baptist, Lomita Baptist, Missionary Church of Christ, Normont Baptist, South Lomita Community and Wayside chapel will participate.

The annual Easter Sunrise Service will again be held at Roosevelt Memorial Park, Vermont ave. and 182nd st., Sunday at 5:15 a.m.

Big Easter Egg Supply Assured

There'll be plenty of eggs for the traditional Easter morning breakfast and egg hunt and an abundance of chicken and turkey for Easter dinner, it was reported here today.

"For the first time since before the war, the nation's egg supplies will be sufficient to permit resumption of all the traditional Easter festivities," Barnett Gabriel, head of A&P Food Stores' national egg and poultry department said. "Chicken and turkey supplies are at an all-time high and can be substituted on Easter menus for the traditional ham, expected to be a casualty because of continuing meat shortages."

Easter Services At St. Andrew's Are Announced

St. Andrew's Church, Protestant Episcopal, will celebrate the Easter festival with four services of Holy Communion, 7 a.m.; 8 a.m.; 9:30 a.m. and 11 a.m. The early service is for those who have to work. The 8, 9:30 and 11 o'clock services will be full choral Holy Communion services, with a sermon by the rector, The Rev. Paul Moore Wheeler. The Girl's choir will sing for the 8 a.m., and the 9:30 a.m. services. The special Easter music will include, "The Holy City," "All Glory Laud and Honor," "List! The Cherubic Host," and the "Hallelujah Chorus." In the absence of Mrs. Carl Lane, Mr. Frank Church is directing the choir. Miss Amy Bourquin and Mrs. Addie Parks will be the organists.

The Senior choir under the direction of Mr. Charles Eade, with Miss Amy Bourquin as organist, will sing the special anthems, "Late On The Sabbath Day," "In Joseph's Lovely Garden," "They Have Taken Away My Lord," and "Hallelujah."

T. W. Robinson Commissioned Maritime Ensign

Truman W. Robinson, 23, 1917-G Cabrillo ave., Torrance, was commissioned ensign in the U. S. Maritime Service in graduation ceremonies at Alameda, California, recently.

Ensign Robinson also received a license as a Third Mate in the U. S. Merchant Marine. He will be assigned to a merchant vessel delivering the goods to American fighting men overseas.

Ensign Robinson also received a license as a Third Mate in the U. S. Merchant Marine. He will be assigned to a merchant vessel delivering the goods to American fighting men overseas. Captain Malcolm E. Crossman, USMS, is superintendent of the school.
