Local Tracksters To Compete In Harbor Finals

Local youths, 15 years of age and under, who are not members of a high school track team, will have a track and field meet all their own next Saturday, May 4, on Daniel's Field, San Pedro at 10:00 a.m.

Elmer "Red" Moon, of the city recreation staff, has arranged for the winners of the qualifying trials to make the trip to San Pedro and compete under the Torrance Recreation banner. Moon was assisted greatly by Coach "Pete" Zamperini who conducted the trials to select the youths who will participate in five events as follows: 50 and 75 yard dashes, high jump, running broad jump, ball put and 4 man 50 yard shuttle relay.

The meet is under the auspices of Ralph Borelli, Harbor district director of recreation.

Lomita Fighter Tagged Good Bet For 1946

A heavyweight "white hope" may be in the making right in Lomita.

Ozzie Staggs, just back from overseas duty in the Navy and a powerful hitter at 187 pounds, made his debut as a fighter at the Wilmington Bowl last Friday night, traveling to a draw with Buddy Smith, a veteran from Los Angeles—and some fight managers wrote immediately in their little black books that here was a man to keep an eye on.

Staggs moves into the semi-windup tomorrow night at the Bowl arena when he takes on Smith in a rematch, and his manager, Art Hoehn, a Lomita businessman, predicts that his boy will "knock him out this time."

Headline bout on the show features two of the finest little lightweights in Southern California, Albert (Sandy) Sandoval of Wilmington, Golden Gloves runner-up, against Charles Cureton of Los Angeles. Cureton sneaked in a terrific right on Sandy at Southwest Arena last week, winning by T.K.O. in the third, and there's certain to be fur flying tomorrow night when Sandy gets—or tries to get—his revenge.

LOMITA "WHITE HOPE"—Rated one of the more promising heavyweights in Southern California, Ozzie Staggs (above) will fight the first half of the double semi-windup at the Wilmington Bowl tomorrow (Friday) night when he engages Buddy Smith of Los Angeles in a rematch of last week.
