LOVELY WEDDING . . . Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Forsberg, who were united in marriage in impressive rites performed Saturday evening in First Lutheran church. The bride is the former Miss Ruth E. Kerber, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Kerber of 2412 Cabrillo ave. The bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. John Forsberg of Long Beach. (Vaughn Studio photo.)

Giyer-Pawley Vows Exchanged In Church Rites
In rites performed Saturday in St. Cross Episcopal Church, Hermosa Beach, Mrs. Dorothy K. Pawley, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Henry C. Kayser, of Spencer and Amie St., Torrance, became the bride of Mr. Cecil C. Giyer, of Los Angeles. Rev. Richard H. Parker officiated in the presence of relatives and intimate friends of the principals.
Dr. Kayser accompanied his daughter to the altar and gave her in marriage.
Beautifully attired in a navy blue suit with navy and white accessories complemented with a white orchid corsage, the bride was attended by Mrs. Wanda Kayser, who wore a beige suit with brown accessories and gardenias.
A reception followed at 1266 W. 134th st., Gardena, where the couple will make their home.
Mrs. Giyer was graduated from Franklin high school, Los Angeles, and her husband received his education in Kansas City, Mo., school. Before his marriage he made his home with his sister, Mrs. Mildred Bogard, of 2945 W. Avenue 35, Los Angeles. * * *

Nadine Nickel, Piano Pupils Are Commended
At a recent meeting of the Music Teachers Association of California, held at Compton Junior College, Mrs. Nadine Nickel, musician and teacher, presented a group of her pupils before Dr. Paul Pisk, head of the music department of Redlands University.
A feature of the program was a series of tests for private teachers working toward college degrees, conducted by Dr. Pisk, noted composer and one of six doctors of musicology in the United States.
Following Mrs. Nickel's personal audition, in which she included selections in many languages, and covered a range from an early classic to modern periods; Dr. Pisk gave her the following rating:
Unusual musical ability; beauty of tone; ability to interpret; good diction in all languages; one of her piano pupils, six-year-old Margaret Cunningham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Cunningham, of 1407 Cota ave., played solos and several duets with Dr. Pisk. Delighted with her playing, he made arrangements to hear her next year. He predicted that she will become a great artist and expressed the wish to watch her progress.
Other students of Mrs. Nickel to be presented later are Kay Frances Smith, Emma Blackburn, Wesley Smith and Jimmie Nickel. * * *

G. S. TROOP 472 AT NOVEL PARTY
Outstanding among recent social meetings of Girl Scout Troop No. 472 was that held recently in Christian church guild hall when the girls' mothers were guests.
Serving on the entertainment committee were Janet Lee, Elvira Lindenberg, Emily Burchfield, Barbara Jackson and Donna Weber, who appeared in clever pantomime presentations to the accompaniment of their records. Appropriate costumes worn by the entertainers added to the enjoyment of the affair.
Each mother was presented with an attractive floral corsage and refreshments were served by committee members Joyce Bever, Janet McCluer, Marilyn Schumert and Betty Barnard.
Mothers attending were Mmes. Hillman R. Lee, A. L. Jackson, Lindenberg, Weber, Schumert, Johnson, Mrs. Fred Bever, leader, and Mrs. Burchfield, assistant leader. * * *

EVENING PROGRAM ENJOYABLE AFFAIR
Saturday evening was an enjoyable occasion for members of Beverly Court Social Club who met at Women's University Clubhouse, Los Angeles, for a musical and card party.
The affair, arranged by Mrs. Orda V. Pettake, business manager of Southern California Telephone Company here, was attended by a large group of her Torrance and Los Angeles friends. Another party is being planned for Saturday, June 15.
The following program was presented by Kathryn E. Buffington, pianist and teacher, of this city:
Tallulah Nagy: "Hungarian Rhapsody" (Liszt-Thompson) and "Prelude in C Minor" (Chopin); Marie Louise Acord: "Solfegetto" (C. P. Bach); "Clair de Lune" (Debussy) and "E Minor Waltz" (Chopin); Geraldine Far- nington: "Polonaise-A Major" (Chopin); Bill Morgan: "Liebestraume" (Liszt).
Following the musical program, cards furnished diversion. * * *

1319 SARTORI AVE TORRANCE

One of the most beautiful selections and accompanied Glen Hall who sang, "I Love You Truly" and "Always." As the bridal couple knelt at the altar, they sang "The Lord's Prayer."

Candlelighted Aisle.
The bride and her father walked through the aisle formed with white candelabrum and covered with fern linked with white tulle ribbon, caught at the top where clusters of calla lilies were tied with bows and streamers. Fern lined the pathway to the foot of the chancel where a bower of palms and baskets of white gladiolus and larkspur completed the setting. There her father placed the bride's hand in that of her bridegroom.
A reception for more than 300 guests followed the ceremony. Under an arch of flowers and wedding bells, the bride cut her wedding cake. Mrs. Charles Law and Miss Lucy Briganti poured.

Bridal Attendants
Miss Grace Forsberg, a sister of the bridegroom, as maid of honor, wore peach faille taffeta and carried Talisman roses. The bridesmaids were Miss Barbara Watson of Arcadia, and formerly of Torrance, whose gown was of dusty rose taffeta complemented by a bouquet of yellow roses and orchid sweetpeas and Mrs. Elette Spaugh Massie, of Gardena, who wore aqua taffeta and carried pink roses and sweet peas. Jerrilyn Long, three-year-old cousin of the bride, was flower girl in peach taffeta. Four-year-old Sandra Lee Zulk, of Los Angeles, a niece of the bridegroom, was ringbearer in a ruffled green organza dress which had been worn by the bride on a similar occasion 16 years ago.
Lt. Harold Kerber, U.S.N., the bride's brother, stationed at San Francisco, attended the bridegroom. Lt. Col. James Irish, of Long Beach, brother-in-law of the bridegroom and William Collier, of Wilmington, ushered.
Proceeding the wedding, Mrs. Jean Arrasmith played organ.
