Millerton Lake Open To Bass Fishing May 29

Millerton Lake, which will be open to bass fishing May 29, is expected to be the Mecca for fishermen this summer. This new man-made lake, impounding the waters of the San Joaquin river behind Friant Dam, is now recognized as probably the finest bass fishing area in the State. Stocked in 1941 and 1942 by the Fresno County Sportsmen's Club, this lake drew to its shores last year upward of thirty thousand fishermen. These fishermen caught an estimated twenty thousand bass and one hundred ten thousand blue-gills—a total of approximately thirty tons of fish. With gas rationing off, the return of servicemen and auto travel freed of restrictions, the Bureau of Reclamation, which operates the dam and reservoir, expects an even greater influx of fishermen this coming season.

The State Fish and Game Commission, in cooperation with the Bureau of Reclamation and the National Park Service, is making special arrangements this summer to keep accurate count of the fishermen and their catch.

Bowl Features Drama In Show Tomorrow Night

There's a bit of fight drama in the main event of the amateur boxing show at the Wilmington Bowl tomorrow (Friday) night.

Albert (Sandy) Sandoval, favorite junior lightweight of the Harbor area, and Ray Perez of Pasadena will be clashing in the four-round main event—but a blind man will be in the second's corner of one, and he has his heart set on the world championship.

Canto Robieto, blind since 1924 when an automobile accident cut short his fight career at the time he was California State featherweight champion and heading right for the national title picture, is manager and trainer for Perez.

Robieto has set up a training camp in his garage for his six brothers, all fighters—and he has a stable of some 30 other Pasadena lads. His one hope is to train a champion. He has had several close ones, he may have the answer in Perez—but the drama is that he'll never see his own champion.

Both boys have built up terrific records. Sandoval has swept all before him at the Bowl; Perez is equally potent at Pasadena Arena. Both have class, good coaching, a punch and a future. Tomorrow night tells which one is ripe for the pro racket.

SULFA DRUGS

"The magic germ killers, sulpha drugs, owe their parenthood to pyridine, a chemical obtained from the steel industry's coke ovens. Nearly one and a half billion sulfadiazine tablets—one form of sulpha drugs—manufactured for the Army, saved the lives of countless fighting men in World War II.—Steel in the War.

Tony Contreras of Wilmington, an unorthodox slugger who has won his last eight fights, six by kayo, draws Bob Trujillo of Compton in the four-round semi-windup—and it's a good bet that the fight won't go to the limit since both boys boast kayo punches. First of six preliminary fights will begin at 8:30 p.m.

STRIPTEEES

JACKSON TEES A SCREAMER . . . Big, Jim Jackson, former Torrance high school student who was three-year letterman there prior to enlisting in the Navy where he spent nearly four years, is giving the San Jose press plenty of copy these days as a result of his performances at San Jose State College. Jackson, who was christened James Ray, was king of the Tartar diamond while in high school but after entering the Navy, Hampton Pool, great Stanford player, coaching the Navy team at Ft. Pierce, Fla., discovered the 210-pound baseball player was better football material.

After several practice sessions, Pool saw fit to replace the brilliant Johnny Lujack, Notre Dame quarter, with Jackson. Lujack, if you guys aren't impressed, was an All-American. Jim learned the "T" formation from Pool, who is an expert in this style of play, and since Coach Bill Hubbard of San Jose State will use this formation, Jackson is a welcomed addition to the Spartan campus. In fact, Jim is the only player named by Hubbard, who is a conservative man, for the fall football squad.

Hubbard predicted that Jackson would become as great as Leroy Zimmerman, Bob Tilchenal and the late Keith Brilem, all of whom were successful in pro-football after graduation. The records at State reveal that Herman Zetterquist has long been considered the longest passer in history of the college. But Big Jim can throw them 70 yards with an ease and accuracy that amazes the northern sports scribes.

REFUSED PRO OFFERS
Jackson turned down a half dozen pro offers, to enter State. His top passing record reveals he completed 10 out of 17 to turn back a powerful Third Airforce eleven last year.

FOLLOWING THROUGH . . . Something new is being added to the boxing picture in Southern California which promises to control amateur fights. An association composed of 11 leading promoters and matchmakers throughout the southern portion of the state has been formed with the principal aim of consolidating rules and regulations to insure each arena of enough teeth in its booking rules to make possible eight fights for every boxing night card.

Joe Craig, former L. S. U. football star, now promoter at the Wilmington Bowl, was elected to preside over the organization, which has full sanctioning of the State Athletic Commission. Jack Perry of San Bernardino is vice-president and Irving Clark of Southwest Arena is secretary.

Good news to this scribe is that a workable code will be set up for the amateur fighter to follow, including a set scale of expense pay for both fighter and manager.

So far nothing has been said as to how many fights in a given period of days. This is important. We believe that once a week is enough. This is, of course, highly controversial. Nevertheless, we still believe that enough chances are taken by the amateur battler without fighting him twice in a night or twice in a week.

TARTAR KEYSTONE GUARD . . . Pete Dodos, who completes his last baseball season with the Torrance high school tomorrow afternoon, is pictured above at his favorite sack—the second one, and wearing his old weather-beaten orange cap which was given to him by Louis Briganti, Torrance All-Marine and All-City Leaguer a year back. Louis gave Pete the cap when he left Santa Clara College to enter the Marine Corps. The Tartar second baseman has worn it in every game during the past two years. Dodos has a batting average of .304 and a fielding average of .996 which is marred by only one error.

New Application Filed For Sports Stadium Near City

A revised application for permission to establish a sports stadium and auto race track on property bordering Carson St. west of Alameda St. was filed with the Regional Planning Commission in Los Angeles by Bob Ware and Dave Croley. It is the second time that the application for a zoning exception has been presented. The first one was denied several months ago, primarily because Carson St. could not handle the heavy traffic. The promoters now have presented an offer to pave 30 feet of the frontage of the property involved which would be dedicated to public highway purposes.

It is also planned to limit the use of the stadium to night events, thus meeting previous objections to daytime traffic congestion. The planning commission has called a hearing on the matter for June 5 in Los Angeles.

Torrance Takes Strong Lead In Pedro Defeat

The Torrance Tartars Friday took over first place in the Marine baseball league by blanking the San Pedro Pirates, 2-0, at Torrance City Park.

Narbonne upset Banning, 9-3, in the other loop tilt played Friday.

The Tartars hopped into the No. 1 position on the strong right arm of Joe Waters, who had the Bucs at his mercy as he set them down with three singles, two of them by Centerfielder Frank Marinkovich.

Torrance took advantage of two San Pedro miscues to score unearned runs and tag Nello Saggiani with his first loss of the season.

In the bottom half of the second, Waters was safe at first on Joe Horta's wide throw. Jim Meyer bunted the third strike foul, but Pete Dodos whacked a one-base blow to left to move Waters to second. Gil Bennett followed with a line single to center to score the Tartar pitcher with the first run of the game. When Dodos tried to reach third on the blow he was out, Marinkovich to Marco Guglielmo to Pete Madsen. Turner ended the inning by lofting to Marinkovich.

Torrance chalked up the second run of the tilt in the third inning.

Joe Ban opened with a walk. "Moe" Jarratt laid down a bunt and when Guglielmo threw wild to second attempting to nail Ban all hands were safe. Bill Stanley then rifled a double down the third base line and Ban sped over the plate.

The Bucs loaded the bases in the first frame but lacked the punch to drive runners home. Marinkovich opened the game with a single to short left. Rodriguez bunted and was safe at first when Ban dropped Waters' throw, Marinkovich dropping anchor at second. Jerry Lovarov popped to Stanley. Saggiani drew a walk and the baselines were jammed. However, Waters bore down and struck out Horta and Guglielmo to squelch the threat.
