Junior Woman's Club members were entertained last Wednesday evening at an enjoyable bingo party. The desirable prizes included such items as nylons, Crisco, chocolate chips, bacon, pineapple, syrup and mayonnaise. Chairman of the committee in charge of the party were the club sponsors Mrs. J. H. Moore and Mrs. H. E. Massie and assisting were Miss Korena Carlin and Mmes. Ralph Ruffraff, V. G. Rumbold, Frank Farrell and R. M. Rogers.

Junior Clubwomen Report Convention Plan Activities

On Friday afternoon, May 24, a workshop to prepare for and discuss club work for the coming year was held at the Municipal Auditorium in Long Beach as part of the State Convention of the Federation of Junior Women's Clubs. Attending from Torrance were Mmes. S. V. Rauss, H. E. Massie, H. P. Jensen, H. L. Wagner Jr. and J. P. Montague. The workshop consisted of classes in membership, advisors, presidents and program work.

In the evening a formal banquet at the Hilton Hotel was attended by Mmes. H. L. Wagner Jr., J. P. Montague and R. E. Stone. Dr. Paul Popenoe spoke on "Making a Success of Marriage" and The House of Westmore, Inc., featured a make-up demonstration entitled "Be Your Prettiest Self."

The Saturday business sessions were also held at the Municipal Auditorium and featured district president's reports. The general chairman of the convention was Mrs. Thomas Perder, state president. There were 64 clubs represented with an attendance of 411. The closing address, "The Challenge of Federation," was presented by Mrs. B. F. Warner, president C. F. W. C. Attending from Torrance were Mrs. J. P. Montague and Mrs. H. L. Wagner Jr.

On Saturday, June 1, at Huntington Park Clubhouse the annual achievement awards will be presented and installation will be held.

CARSON STREET P. T. A. AT INTERESTING MEET

"The United Family Plays" was the topic for the regular meeting of Carson Street P.T.A. held Thursday afternoon at the school auditorium. Mrs. E. W. Lancaster presided.

Augmenting the meeting theme a motion picture on Eskimo life was enjoyed. A talk on the bond issue and a report on the P.T.A. state convention also were featured.

Interested persons are asked to note the change of date for the next meeting to Thursday, June 13.

Marina M. Lewis Field Secretary For Riviera Club

With a wide experience in club work, Marina Mitchell Lewis has been assigned to the Torrance area as field secretary for the new Riviera Club. C. C. Alexander, manager of the club, has announced.

The new secretary has served a number of Southern California clubs and is well known in this area. She is a charter member of Sigma Tau Psi, Long Beach.

Coming from Atlanta, Ga., where her father, Eugene W. Mitchell, of Mitchell Bros. Advertising Co., handled the original Coca-Cola campaign, her grandfather, William Mitchell, was a business partner of Asa Candler, of the Coca-Cola Co.

Mrs. Lewis is making the early membership contacts for the Riviera club in this area, and the club is due to open about June 15.

MATEON IS HONOREE AT RECENT SHOWER

Mrs. William Rook was honoree at a stork shower when Mrs. J. J. McCune entertained recently for her. Pink and blue flowers created a dainty color scheme for party appointments and shower games furnished diversion.

The honoree was recipient of many lovely gifts for the baby-to-be, after which refreshments were served to Mmes. M. McIntyre, of Santa Monica; A. J. Clinger, of Inglewood; William Stewart, of Palos Verdes; J. Lines, J. P. Montague, Vernon Coil, L. Sprong, W. P. Taylor, J. B. McCune, J. B. Wallace, Phillip Solino and Miss Marion Lincoln, all of Torrance.

MRS. SHIDLER ENTERTAINS FOR FAMILY, FRIENDS

The home of Mrs. Mina Shidler, 1310 Manuel ave., was a setting for an enjoyable dinner party when she entertained Friday evening for Mr. and Mrs. George W. Neill, of Pasadena, formerly of this city, and their son, George, who had recently returned from Army service in Germany. Other guests were Judge and Mrs. John A. Shidler, of Hollywood Riviera, and Jim Shidler, of the home address.

EXCHANGE VOWS . . . Mr. and Mrs. Gene A. Schilling, whose marriage was solemnized recently in the Long Beach home of his parents. Mrs. Schilling is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Olsen of 1558 W. 214th st.

Doris E. Olsen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Olsen of 1558 W. 214th st., was recently married to Gene A. Schilling, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Schilling, of Long Beach. The ceremony was solemnized in the home of the bridegroom's parents. Rev. Allen Pearce officiated in the presence of 75 guests.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was attired in a gown of white net and lace fashioned with fitted bodice and a sweetheart neckline. She carried gardenias on a white prayer-book. Her attendant was Mrs. Lorene Rogers who was gowned in pink net, complemented by a Colonial bouquet. Jimmy Schilling was his brother's attendant. Jackie and Jeanne Paul and Patsy Keen, who wore identical gowns of pale pink and as hostesses at the reception following, served a three-tiered wedding cake and other refreshments. Barbara Kilpatrick was in charge of the guest book.

Subsequently the bridal couple left for a Yosemite honeymoon and upon their return will be at home in Long Beach.

He had received his honorable discharge from the Navy in January following 30 months' service in the South Pacific. Mrs. Schilling attended Torrance high school and her husband was a student in Long Beach schools.

Music for the ceremony was a vibraharp selection by Ethel Hocking and Edna McClellan was the vocalist.

Evening Shower Is Arranged For Young Matron

In a simulated garden setting in the parlors of First Methodist church, Mrs. B. L. Haggard, of 1519 Greenwood ave., complimented her daughter, Mrs. Clifford Risher, at a "blessed event" shower Saturday evening. Scramble Amble, guessing and nursery rhyme games were the diversion with Mrs. Lulu Ray, of Ventura, an aunt of the honor guest, Mrs. Ermanella Benito and Mrs. S. H. Brown as prize-winners.

A beautifully decorated bachelorette filled with baby gifts was then wheeled to the honoree to be opened.

At individual tables, pottery booties filled with sweet peas and gypsophila, were centerpieces. Place cards were miniature scales each holding a diminutive yarn baby and the napkins were tiny bits with ties.

A stork figurine, surrounded with blossoms, and tall white lighted tapers completed the decorations at the table where tea and coffee were dispensed. Here also a beautifully decorated cake was cut by the honoree, each serving embellished with an appropriate motif.

About 38 guests were present from Torrance, Ventura and Fullerton.

VACATION ENDS

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Ambach, of 1813 Border ave., have returned from two weeks' vacation in Texas and Oklahoma. They were accompanied by her sister, Mrs. Emma Beckwith, of Redondo Beach.
