How do I go about buying a home?
 What are the requirements for a loan?
 Do I qualify?
 How much can I afford?
 How much will it cost per month?
 Can I borrow the entire purchase price?
 Is the red tape really gone?
 How do new building regulations help me?

A program has been arranged.

Hamilton-Dunlop In Altar Rites At St. Andrew's

Mr. and Mrs. Edward W. Dunlop, formerly of Birmingham, Ala., wish to announce the recent marriage of their daughter, Doris Jean, to Mr. Donald Stewart Hamilton, of Great Barrington, Mass.
 The marriage took place in St. Andrew's Episcopal church, Rev. Paul Moore Wheeler officiated in the presence of intimate friends of the principals, including Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Dean, Mr. and Mrs. Marcel Demonet and daughters, and the Misses Marquerite McGarry and Marie Stupke.
 Given in marriage by her father, the bride was beautifully attired in a sheer wool turquoise suit with patent accessories. An orchid corsage complemented her costume. Miss Barbara Dunlop, as her sister's attendant, wore aqua crepe with British tan trim and accessories and gardenias.
 A dinner party for the wedding party followed in Florentine Club, Hollywood. Mrs. Dunlop received her guests in ice blue crepe with contrasting accessories and a corsage of gardenias. Subsequently Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton left by plane for a New York honeymoon. They will make their home in Great Barrington. The bride was employed at Columbia Steel Company. Her husband was a National Supply Company employe following his discharge from overseas service.

BRIDE-ELECT FETED AT EVENING SHOWER

Complimenting her granddaughter, Miss Mary Ellen Hickman, bride-elect of Mrs. Ralph Albert Ramsey, U.S.N., Mrs. M. E. Attebery entertained recently at Recreation Center, 4010 Sepulveda boulevard.
 Dancing was the principal diversion for the honoree and 85 of her friends. Following the presentation of beautiful miscellaneous gifts, dainty refreshment laneous gifts, dainty refreshments were served at a buffet table centered with a pastel pink parasol. White, pastel green and pink was the color theme used throughout.
 The Ramsey-Hickman wedding will take place on Saturday, June 15.

Grefna Green Is Setting For Nuptial Rites

Grefna Green wedding chapel, Yuma, Ariz., was the scene of a pretty wedding ceremony when Miss Lila Hudgeons exchanged vows with Mr. James Lee Clampitt, of Long Beach. Rev. L. L. Roberts officiated at the rites.
 The bride, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Hudgeons, of 21814 Dolores ave., Torrance, was attractively attired in powder blue crepe with black and white accessories with corsage of gardenias and roses. She was attended by Mrs. Michael Hughes, who wore beige with contrasting accessories and gardenias. Michael Hughes was the bridegroom's attendant.
 At a reception for 50 guests at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clampitt shared honors with her nephew and his bride, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Bates, whose marriage immediately followed that of the Clampitts in the Yuma chapel.

Phoebe Sykes, Royal Matron, Is Honored

One of the most enjoyable of recent meetings of Lomita Court No. 61, Order of Amaranth, was that given recently on the occasion of the 78th birthday of Royal Matron Phoebe Sykes. About 100 were present, including the following distinguished guests:
 Past Grand Matron Mary Holt, sponsor of Matrons and Patrons Ass'n., of the Southland, Mary McCormick, grand associate conductress; Anna DeMott, grand secretary; Annetto Babcock, grand Faith; Martha Simonson, grand representative to Ohio and about 18 matrons and patrons of 1946.
 A novel feature of the birthday party was the presentation of a beautiful bouquet to which was attached a coin for each of the honoree's birthdays.
 Following the showing of a motion picture, birthday cake and other refreshments were served.

ANNIVERSARIES ARE INCENTIVE FOR PARTIES

The celebration of the 51st wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Cooper of this city was the incentive for an enjoyable reunion and picnic party held Sunday at Torrance City park. A decorated cake and other delectable refreshments were served.

In the evening the group was entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Cooper, where cards furnished diversion. Those present were the honored guests and Messrs. and Mesdames Leon Cooper, Earl P. Kent Sr., Robert Barry, Larry Benton and son, Frank W. Smith and Dorothy, Mrs. Anna Bell Holland and children, all of this city, and Mr. and Mrs. Len Saunders, of Long Beach.

Mrs. Cooper is feted
 Another enjoyable occasion for Mrs. Cooper was a surprise party at the home of Mrs. Marie Bankston in Gardena. The affair marked her 71st birthday. A decorated birthday cake and other party refreshments were served and later she was the recipient of many beautiful handkerchiefs. The guests were members of Torrance Chapter No. 44, Women of the Moose.
