Committee Acts To Put School Issue On Ballot

 administer the affairs of the schools of this city. The charter would be ratified by the State Legislature in January, and the schools would come under control of the Torrance Board of Education late next year, under the provisions of the school code and municipal laws. For many years the control of Torrance schools by Los Angeles has been the subject of much controversy, and the discussion has reached the point where the people at the June 4 election registered their protest against domination by Los Angeles by returning the only "no" vote against the vast $75,000,000 bond issue by Los Angeles city school district. Torrance voters registered a "no" vote of 9 to 7, while the rest of the district went from 5 to 1 to 8 to 1 in favor of issue. A two-thirds vote was necessary to carry the bond issue, and the fact that Torrance returned more than a bare majority against them was taken as sufficient notice by the people that the time has come to decide once and for all the vital issue. Torrance, it is pointed out, has sufficient assessed valuation to have the finest schools in California, and it is paying the City Schools of Los Angeles some $700,000 a year to operate the schools. Los Angeles is spending only approximately one-half of this amount in Torrance. The money being given to Los Angeles over and above the cost of operation of the local schools could be spent for the benefit of the children of Torrance, giving them better schools, charter proponents say, and in a few years the tax rate for schools could be reduced materially. The City Council charter committee will meet again today at noon, making final preparations for the public hearing Friday night. The charter, as approved by the committee, will go to the City Council in time for approval and publication in the next issue of the Torrance Herald, under plans of the committee, Dr. Wood said.

Young People To Attend Youth For Christ Rally

The Young People of the South Lomita church will leave the church at 3:30 Saturday afternoon for Griffith park, where they will enjoy a pot-luck picnic supper before going on to the "Youth for Christ" program at the Hollywood Bowl. In charge of the group will be Mr. and Mrs. John Gorbet. The church is located at 2345 W. 25th st.

Frank Church New Chairman

Frank Church was installed as chairman, Mrs. Katharine Kuhns, vice chairman and Mrs. Florence Carvill, secretary-treasurer of the Lomita-Harbor City coordinating council today at the meeting held in the Lomita elementary school. Committee and yearly reports were given, and plans outlined for a program of constructive action for civic betterment.

used on place cards, for table trim or on the cake.
 Make a circle of heavy paper and cut out the center to form a "ring." Wrap firmly with folded strips of yellow paper (cut across the grain). The two rings together with ribbon and tuck small flowers into the bow.
 If you want them to stand, a toothpick may be put through the back of the bow.
PARTY MENU
 Food for the party will be important, too. For luncheon, you might serve creamed chicken in patty shells, buttered peas, frozen fruit salad, dessert and coffee.
 Such a menu fits the party. It's good to eat, and it's pretty and gay.
FROZEN FRUIT SALAD
 1 No. 2 1/2 can fruit salad
 16 marshmallows
 1 tall can evaporated milk
 3 tbs. lemon juice
 1/2 c. mayonnaise
 1/2 c. chopped walnuts
 Drain fruit, (2 c. canned or fresh fruit may be used.) Cut into small pieces. Cut marshmallows in eighths. Fold in other ingredients. Line freezing tray with waxed paper and pour in salad. Freeze. Slice and serve on crisp lettuce leaves.
MERINGUES
 4 egg whites
 1 c. sugar
 1 tsp. lemon juice
 Beat egg white until stiff and dry. Add sugar gradually, beating constantly. Beat until mixture will stand in firm peaks. Add meringue to firm peaks. Add lemon juice. Form into individual meringues on a baking sheet, covered with brown paper. Bake in modern gas range oven at 250° for 50-60 minutes. When ready to serve, fill with sweetened fresh fruit.
PRETTY AND GAY
 The date has been set and the bride are planning delightful surprises to honor her. The bride-to-be will find many ways to make the affair pretty and gay.
 Of course, the bride-to-be and the array of gifts will be the center of attraction. But the party decorations and food will receive plenty of attention.
TRIMS AND FAVORS
 Quite an array of lovely party trims and favors may be purchased, but the supply of such things is still quite small.
 Nimble fingers, guided by happy imagination, can make dozens of clever novelties to accent the theme of this party. You'll need heavy white paper, crepe paper of the desired colors, bits of white lace, pastel ribbons and flowers.
 Just to get you started, we'll give you directions for making a couple of favors.
TINY PARASOLS
 Perky little parasols make pretty favors. A card may be fastened to the handle to make place cards.
 Wrap narrow strips of green paper around a lolly-pop stick or wire. Next cut a piece of pastel colored crepe paper 2-1/2"x9". Cut scallops on one side and paste a strip of white lace behind the scallops. Gather the other side about 1/2 inch from the edge and tie one end of the stick. Decorate with tiny ribbon bows and fluff out the "parasol." Stand in large light-colored gumdrops.
DOUBLE RINGS
 Wedding rings of various sizes are easy to make. They may be
