

Marian Lincoln Weds Barry Dance In Los Angeles

Marian Orvilla Lincoln, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred A. Lincoln, of Torrance, became the bride of Barry William Dance, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ben P. Dance of Los Angeles, Saturday June 29, at 8:00 p.m. in the Santa Barbara Avenue Methodist church.

The bride wore a light blue suit with navy blue and white accessories and carried a white prayer book adorned with a white orchid. Mrs. William Hood of Tucson, Arizona, served as matron of honor for her sister, and Lt. Thomas Dance of the Army Air Forces was best man for his brother.

After a honeymoon in Balboa Beach the young couple will reside in Leimert Park.

FIRST SON ARRIVES IN BURKE HOME

Capt. C. J. Burke and Mrs. Burke, the former Miss Joy Fossum, are receiving congratulations upon the birth of their first child, a son, Michael, born Saturday, June 29 in La Jolla. The baby's father is an oceanographer attached to the Army Air Forces and serving in La Jolla. The baby's grandparents are Dr. and Mrs. O. E. Fossum, of this city and Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Burke, of Los Angeles.

HONEYMOONING . . . Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Young, who were married on Wednesday afternoon of last week in rites performed by Judge Dudley S. Valentine. They will be at home to their friends in Altadena.

On a wedding trip to San Diego are Mr. Herbert Young and his bride, the former Helen Burgeier, of this city, whose marriage was solemnized on Wednesday afternoon of last week in the chambers of Superior Court Judge Dudley S. Valentine officiating, with Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Cook, of Torrance, as the couple's attendants.

The bride was beautifully attired in a gray blue gabardine suit which exactly matched that of the bridegroom. A smart white hat and gray snakeskin accessories completed her ensemble and she wore a beautiful white orchid corsage. Mrs. Cook chose for the occasion a gray suit with matching accessories complemented by a corsage of baby pink roses.

Dinner for the bridal party followed in the new Garden Room of the Town House, where exotic tropical plants in white urns, vermilion and blue cushioned walls and sparkling mirrors for the party.

Mr. and Mrs. Young will return to make their home in Altadena, where they hope to receive their many Torrance friends.

Among the lovely prenuptial affairs arranged for Mrs. Young was a beautifully appointed shower given last week by Mrs. Frederick Cook in her home, 2207 Carson st.

The dining room was beautiful with a large white ruffled umbrella hanging from the chandelier, the handle resting on a silver sprinkler. Tapers were tied to the umbrella stays and

Kinne-Kenworthy Wed Here Sunday In Home Ceremony

Of interest here is the announcement of the marriage of Mrs. Joy Kenworthy and Donald Kinne, both of North Hollywood.

The ceremony took place at the residence of the bride's mother, Mrs. Charles B. Dunham, 4103 Carson st. Rev. Ben H. Lingenfelter officiated at a double ring ceremony in the presence of the immediate relatives of the principals.

The bride was beautifully attired in a light pink ensemble and she carried Tallman roses and Peruvian lilies. Mrs. Edna Miller of North Bend, Ore., was her attendant and Lester C. Fix, of this city, attended the bridegroom as best man.

Mr. and Mrs. Kinne left for a motor trip to Nevada and New Mexico, and after July 25 will be at home to their friends in their North Hollywood home.

Mrs. Kinne was graduated from Torrance high school. He received his education in Minnesota schools and is now associated with Hammond Lumber Company.

At the end of each taper was a gift. The living room also was lovely with gladioli enhancing the setting. A mantel arrangement featuring a miniature bridal party completed the decorative theme.

At a late hour dainty refreshments were served on individual trays on which were placed diminutive umbrella favors. Those enjoying the party in addition to the honoree were Mrs. Veda Peer, Ena Hazzard, Rosalie Morgan, Mildred Edwards, Edna Babcock, Marie Morgan, Lucille Thompson, Ethel Derouin, Juanita Begue, Frances Snodgrass, Naomi Mark, Alma Smith, Mildred Mittan, Ruth Hardin, Gladys Pietzschke, Marcia Menmuir, Melvina Beckwith, Gladys

Viellenave, Florene Franklin, Grubb, McDonald, Blackhall, Benstead, Ward, Dorothy Banks, all of Torrance, and Florence Wolz of Redondo Beach, Hazel Hand of Los Angeles, Alice Beck and Mary Jones of Compton, LaPreal Bodley of Riverside and Harry Bodley, mother of the guest of honor, of Beaumont.

Also complimenting Mrs. Young was a luncheon given recently at Torrance elementary school when members of the faculty and the office staff entertained. A beautiful group gift was presented.

The Art Craft Club of Torrance also honored her with a shower at the home of Mrs. Cora B. Bohrer on Plaza Del Amo, when a group gift of china was presented.

Her co-workers, teachers of the development department, and Bernard J. Strand, principal of elementary school, entertained on the last day of school and presented her with a bronze statue of a horse on an onyx base.

Before the ceremony, "Aloha" and "Because" were beautifully sung by Miss Sammy Hammit, of Bellflower, whose accompaniment was played by Mrs. C. F. Slaback, of Lakewood Village. The ushers were Carrol Curtis, of Whittier, Stanley Russell, of Redlands and Jack Sievers, of Bellflower.

At the reception immediately following the ceremony, Mrs. Alverson received her guests in a navy blue dress with contrasting gloves and hat, while Mrs. Beulah Smith, mother of the bridegroom, wore delft blue with matching accessories. Mrs. Agnes Jennings, grandmother of the bride and a member of the bridal party, was attired in navy blue. Contrasting hat and gloves, with a pink and white carnation corsage, completed her ensemble. Both mothers wore pink carnation corsages.

The beautifully decorated four-tiered wedding cake was served by Mrs. Frank Steinhilber, of this city. She was assisted by Mrs. Leo Mock of Manhattan Beach, the former Lucille Acres, of Torrance. Mrs. Dave Cairns, of Santa Monica, who before her marriage was Coral Lindeman, of this city, presided over the guest book while Mrs. Kay Chapman of Long Beach, poured.

Mr. and Mrs. Smith remained with their guests for the duration of the reception, after which they left for a two-weeks' honeymoon at Pine Crest. Upon their return they will make their home in Bellflower.

EXCHANGE MARRIAGE VOWS . . . In sacred rites performed Sunday afternoon, June 23, Miss Muriel Virginia Alverson became the bride of Ensign Maurice Gene Smith, United States Naval Air Corps. Rev. W. R. Hall officiated in the presence of 150 wedding guests. Following a reception, the happy couple left for a honeymoon at Pine Crest. They will live in Bellflower.

On Sunday afternoon, June 23, Miss Muriel Virginia Alverson, daughter of Torrance and C. P. Alverson of Gardena, became the bride of Mr. Maurice Gene Smith, of Bellflower, ensign U.S. Naval Air Corps. Lakewood Village church was the setting for the impressive candlelight ceremony, where Rev. W. R. Hall read the sacred marriage vows in the presence of about 150 guests. She was given in marriage by her father.

The bride was lovely in an aqua suit with navy blue accessories. Her only jewelry was a necklace of pearls, wedding gift from the bridegroom. On a white Bible she carried her bridal corsage of pale yellow roses. Miss Echo Hanke, of Los Angeles, as maid of honor wore a gold suit with dark brown accessories. Her corsage was made of tiny lavender calla lilies tied with matching ribbon. The bridegroom was attired in uniform as was his brother, Lt. Roy Chapman, U.S.C.G., of Long Beach, who attended him.

Before the ceremony, "Aloha" and "Because" were beautifully sung by Miss Sammy Hammit, of Bellflower, whose accompaniment was played by Mrs. C. F. Slaback, of Lakewood Village. The ushers were Carrol Curtis, of Whittier, Stanley Russell, of Redlands and Jack Sievers, of Bellflower.

Torrance Elementary P.T.A. Tells Varied Year-End Activities

One of the enjoyable concluding affairs for the current year for members of Torrance Elementary P.T.A. was a covered dish luncheon, when faculty members and office personnel were entertained. Mrs. J. L. Popovich and her committee were in charge of arrangements.

Those present were Messrs. B. J. Strand, principal; Wilbur Griffith, Graydon Blue, Norman Sowers, Darrell Tanner, and Misses Mae Haslam, Lovina Boudinot, Phyllis Knorr, Norma Look, Louise Boyle, Kathleen Wehmeier, Millie Machin, nurse, and Misses Evelyn Coles, Emma Burgess, Helen Whitney, Helen Cole, Dorothy Barrie, Lillian Barr, Pauline Hartley, Margaret Jensen, Gretta Wells, Ruth Sanders, Evelyn Morgan, Lois Wise, Pauline Button, Ruth Lang, Stella Meloy, Helen Lehman, Jeanne Bentwood, Elizabeth Stebbins, Mildred Bartley, Helen Barger, Virginia Westlund, Mattie Smith, Rachel Lathan, Mollie Hobe, Hattie Bibbe, Leona Kaudinger, Marshall Tappin, Emma McElfresh, Esther Zumwalt and Ethel Petty.

Another affair sponsored by this P.T.A. organization was a party at Torrance City Park for members of the A-6 graduating class of Torrance elementary school. Appropriate games were enjoyed by the group and later refreshments were served.

Lovely corsages were provided for the girl graduates and each of the boys was presented with a carnation boutonniere, gifts from the P.T.A. membership.

V.F.W. GROUPS PLAN PARTICIPATION IN FETE

At a joint meeting of the Veterans of Foreign Wars of the United States, Post 3251, and the Ladies' Auxiliary, held in the Civic Auditorium Monday evening, arrangements were made for the groups' participation in the programs during the forthcoming "Welcome Home Veterans" celebration, July 3 to 7. All members of both organizations were urged to volunteer to staff the various booths and to assist in the detail work. The desirability of attending local churches on Sunday, July 7, the closing day of the celebration, was also stressed.

Members of Women's Society of Christian Service will meet at 1:00 p.m. Thursday, July 11, at the church. Mrs. William Sinclair will lead devotions. Dr. R. Peters will be presented as guest speaker, using as his topic, "Korea."

Circle No. 3 will have charge of arrangements for the silver tea following.
