Etta McCulloch, Vernon E. Alfier Wed In Garden

At twilight on Saturday, July 27, in the attractive patio of Mrs. Lucy L. Edmunds, 198 S. Wheeler ave., Fontana, solemn wedding vows were exchanged by Etta McCulloch of this city and Vernon E. Alfier, of Long Beach. The Rev. Clyde H. Shaff-stall, of the Fontana Community church, performed the ceremony. The bride wore an aqua blue crepe dress complemented by an orchid corsage. Clay Y. McCulloch, brother of the bride, and Mrs. Margaret Blakemore attended the couple. Mrs. Blakemore wore a blue brook and a gardenia corsage. After the wedding a delicious supper, including the traditional wedding cake, was served by the bride's sister, Mrs. Edmunds. Later, the couple left for a short honeymoon, and upon their return they will reside temporarily in San Bernardino. Mrs. Alfier has been employed at the Torrance Memorial Hospital for several years. Her bridegroom was in the armed forces for three years, two of which were spent in Iceland. He is now construction foreman for Foster-Kleiser Sign Co. in the San Bernardino area.

Chris Tarplay Says Vows In Glendale Wedding Chapel

Wedding vows were exchanged Sunday, July 21, at 1:00 p.m. in the Little Church Around the Corner in Inglewood, by Miss Chris Tarplay, daughter of Mr. Lee Tarplay of 1537 W. 223rd st., Torrance and Mr. Richard Furlano, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. Furlano of 4124 Victoria ave., Los Angeles. Rev. J. Arthur Fish read the ceremony. The bride was attired in a white silk crepe afternoon dress with matching accessories and carried lavender and white orchids on a Bible. She was given in marriage by her father, Miss Lenora Navarr, maid of honor, wore a grey wool suit with a yellow rose corsage. Louis Furlano attended his brother and another brother, Dominic, and Richard Wass, were ushers. Ralph Reitz played "Medley" on the organ. Sixty guests enjoyed a reception at the home of the bridegroom's parents in Los Angeles. After a honeymoon trip in the San Gabriel mountains, the couple will reside in Torrance.

Women's Activities

Wedding Reception At Lakewood Club Attended By 150

Highlighting the social activities of the week was the wedding reception held Sunday afternoon at Lakewood Country club when Mr. and Mrs. William Rojo entertained honoring their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Thomas Rippy Jr., whose wedding took place in Las Vegas, Nev., on June 29. About 150 guests were bidden. The bride was lovely in a white lace and tulle gown. Her mother received her guests in gold colored silk jersey and Mrs. Rippy's gown was of rose hued crepe. Mr. and Mrs. Rippy will live in Torrance. He will resume his studies in law at U.S.C. in September. Mrs. Gordon Peterie, an aunt of the bride, entertained in her honor at a recent post nuptial shower given in her Los Angeles home. A pink and white theme was followed for floral and table decorations and menu. Many beautiful miscellaneous gifts were presented. About 30 guests attended, including the following group from Torrance: Mesdames C. T. Rippy, William Rojo, Guy Kelley, Frank Paour, F. A. Covington, Guy DeWitt, Richard Rojo (Jo DeWitt), and the Misses Nadine Paour, Patty Townsend and Dolores Hanko.
