AT MARRIAGE RITES... Miss Kathleen June Ainsworth and Wesley Lewis Kottmeier are photographed by Dick Hammer, Beverly Hills, as they march down the aisle of St. Andrew's Episcopal church during their wedding ceremony recently.

In a double ring ceremony before an altar beautifully decorated with white asters, dahlias, gladioli and softly lighted by candles, Miss Kathleen June Ainsworth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ainsworth, 1304 Crenshaw, and Wesley Lewis Kottmeier Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Kottmeier Sr., of Visalia, recently exchanged wedding vows in St. Andrew's Episcopal church. The Rev. Paul Moore Wheeler officiated.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride chose traditional white satin, a fingertip veil secured with a coronet of orange blossoms and carried white orchids on a white prayer book. The prayer book originally belonged to the bridegroom's great grandmother and has been used by brides of four generations in the Kottmeier family.

Mrs. R. Eugene Fleming, matron of honor, was attired in pink net over pink taffeta and carried matching dahlias. The bridesmaids were Mrs. Harry Davis Jr., Mrs. Alison Wise, Visalia, and Miss Laura Ainsworth, the bride's sister. They wore pastel net gowns over matching taffeta and carried contrasting dahlias. Russell Fleming, ring bearer, carried a white satin pillow. Jack Sisler of Visalia attended the groom as best man and ushers were Alison Wise and Wesley McCormick, Visalia, and Herbert Stewart of Torrance. Miss Nell Ainsworth, sister of the bride, sang "Calm as the Night," "Oh, Perfect Love" and
