

GARDEN CLUB ANNOUNCES TREE PLANTING DATE

The Torrance Terrace Garden club has announced Nov. 2 at 1 p.m. as the date and hour for tree planting ceremonies. Program will begin at the home of the club president, Mrs. Arthur Fritz, 1563 W. 214th st., and will continue until each family on the street has planted a Magnolia tree on the front area of the respective lawns.

Neighbors will assist in removing eucalyptus and other trees from the parkways of several lots to facilitate uniform effect of the planting. Each resident has been requested to prepare the ground for planting the day before to enable the program to proceed without delay. Final collections for the cost of the trees will be made by the committee on Oct. 20.

The club met yesterday at the home of Mrs. Marie Wood, 1632 W. 213th st.

MORTS ENTERTAIN

Mr. and Mrs. L. Mort have as their house guest her niece, Mrs. Marie Griffiths, of Baltimore, Md., who arrived recently to make her home in Southern California.

Torrance Clubwomen Observe National Business Women's Week

Irons Cottage, Redondo Beach, was the meeting place for members of National Business and Professional Women's Club of Torrance Monday evening, when National Business Women's Week was observed.

Guests of honor at the dinner meeting, attended by a large group of club members and their guests, were Lilly Hawkins, state federation president, and Ruth Spenser of the Huntington Park club.

Julia McManus, as chairman of arrangements, presented Nadine Nickel, mezzo soprano, who beautifully sang several solos.

Interesting highlights of her observation at the biennial convention held in Cleveland this summer, were summarized for the enjoyment of Mrs. Hawkins' audience.

ENJOYABLE VACATION

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Carriger and daughter, Martha Ann, 1606 W. 215th st., have returned from a three months' vacation trip to Pensacola, Fla. They were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. P. Blackwell, relatives.

THS Class Reunion Set For October 27 At Moose Hall Here

A gala class reunion is being planned by members of the class of summer 1938, Torrance high school, Moose hall, 1861 Carson st., will be the setting for the festivities scheduled for Sunday, Oct. 27 from 4:00 until 11 p.m.

A feature of the affair to which class members and their families have been invited, is a group picture to be taken at 8:00 o'clock that evening.

With the exception of a few hard-to-reach alumni, all have indicated their approval of the plans and their promise to attend.

Music and dancing will be featured during the evening, and light refreshments will be served. Children of the graduates will be welcome during the afternoon hours, it is stated.

AT MOUNTAIN RESORT

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Shepherd, of 2233 229th st., have returned from a weekend trip to their Big Bear cabin. They entertained as their guests Mr. and Mrs. A. Sorenson, of San Bernardino and formerly of this city.

Legion Auxiliary At Interesting Meet; Programs Planned

A very interesting meeting was held Monday night in the Parish Hall of the St. Andrew's Episcopal church.

The 19th district president, Margaret Warwick, spoke on the national convention recently held in San Francisco. Bea Trumbull, 19th district parliamentary, gave pointers on parliamentary law.

Commander Totten thanked the auxiliary girls for their fine support of the American Legion activities.

T. T. Babbitt discussed on operating the hot dog stand through the winter months.

The unit decided to serve a turkey dinner to the 20-30 Club on Saturday, Oct. 18. All members are urged to assist.

The 19th District meeting will be held on Wednesday, Oct. 16 at 8:00 p.m. at Samuel Thomas unit, North Long Beach. A large representation from Torrance will attend.

Plans for a breakfast to be served Nov. 16 were completed. Many fine prizes will be given away. An electric iron is among the awards, it is reported.

A "Kids" party will feature the October social meeting, with fun for all being planned by Hostesses Selma Godard and Daisy Watson.

was given Ella Robinson following her report of the recent successful Edison Masonic dinner, during which she served as general chairman.

Irene Davies was winner of a handsome blanket given away at this meeting.

At a table colorful with pink lighted tapers, delicious refreshments were served at the close of the meeting.

ART CRAFT CLUB AT DEROUIN HOME

The home of Mrs. G. J. Derouin on Beech avenue was a setting for a meeting of the Art Craft club Friday evening.

In the absence of Mrs. G. E. Middleton, president, Mrs. C. C. Bohrer presided at the short business meeting.

Copper and leather tooling and shell jewelry will be the club's pre-Christmas projects.

At the close of the meeting delicious refreshments were served by the hostess and her mother, Mrs. C. E. Ward. Mrs. J. MacDonald was a club guest.

Mrs. F. L. Parks will open her home on Eldorado avenue for the next meeting, scheduled for Friday, Nov. 1.

V. F. W. SEWING CLUB TO MEET THIS MORNING

Mrs. Earl P. Kent will open her home at 2007 Gramercy ave. for a meeting of the V.F.W. Auxiliary sewing club at 10:30 a.m. this morning. A large attendance is anticipated.

The regular meeting of the Auxiliary of V.F.W. Post No. 3251 will be held at 8:00 p.m. Monday evening, Oct. 21.

Womens Activities

By MARY VONDERAHE

BRIDAL COUPLE . . . Mr. and Mrs. Max G. Coast, pictured following their wedding at First Christian Church. The bride, the former Aileen Jarvis, is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Cota of 1312 Cota ave. Her husband's parents are Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Coast of 736 Border ave.

Mata-Espinoza Recite Nuptials In Tia Juana

In simple rites performed Friday in Tijuana, Lower California, William Mata, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. Mata, of 1016 Arlington ave., took as his bride Miss Dolores Espinoza, of Redondo Beach.

The bride was attractively attired in grey crepe with contrasting accessories.

A daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. Espinoza, of Redondo Beach, she had attended Redondo Union high school. Her husband, an ordinary seaman in the Merchant Service, was a student at Narbonne high school. Before entering Merchant Marine he was employed at Torrance Herald as an apprentice pressman.

They will live in Torrance.

AT HOME AGAIN

City Treasurer Margaret Fordice, who returned recently from an extended vacation in North Dakota, Minnesota and Kansas, is at home at Apt. 2, Castle Apartments, 1218 El Prado. Her telephone is 776.

CDA Evening Meet Reported; Varied Interests Outlined

The regular business meeting of Court St. Catherine No. 1378, C.D.A., was held Monday evening Oct. 14. Grand Regent Clare Farrell presided. She reported on the benefit held recently at the home of Edward Everett Horton in Encino for the court's pet philanthropy, Camp Teresita Pines, and thanked members for their splendid cooperation in this affair, as well as for their work for the successful Parish dinner of last Sunday at Torrance Civic auditorium.

On Sunday, Oct. 20 at 7:30, the Convert League will present "The Living Rosary" at Nativity Parish hall. Soloists will be Mr. Jack Herter and Mrs. Marie Turner Kiecklifter. There is no admission charge for this production, and while the play is of particular interest to converts, all members of the community are invited to attend.

A theatre party is being planned for the premiere of "Trial by Fire," the first major production of Los Angeles unit of the National Catholic Theatre Conference. The initial performance of this play will be given Oct. 27 at Wilshire Ebell Theatre. For information call Mrs. Hedberg, 1200-R.

After hearing an appeal from Archbishop Richard Cushing, of Massachusetts, the Court voted to give support to the drive to aid the Sisters of the Home of the Good Shepherd in Manila, P. I.

Volunteers for the Community Chest drive answered the appeal of both the grand regent and Court Chaplain Father McGuinness for support of this worthy cause. Members were justly proud of their record in last year's drive by being the first "over the top" and going 527 percent above their quota.

Following the business session, refreshments were served by October chairman Ana MacDonald aided by Vee Hussey, Katherine Flynn, Opal Yorker and Bertha Hedberg.

Next meeting of the Court is scheduled for Monday evening, Oct. 28, when the committee is planning a delightful Halloween party for members and their guests.

LUNCHEON MARKS WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

Mrs. Charles Emery, 1678 W. 215th st., entertained last week with a luncheon in honor of the wedding anniversary of Mrs. Robert Shephard, Green and gold was the color scheme used for appointments. Guests included Mesdames Glen Spratt, R. C. Foer, W. F. Bannan and Glen Smith.

Methodist WSCS Monthly Meeting Is Outstanding Affair

Members and friends of the Woman's Society of Christian Service met Thursday, Oct. 3, in the social rooms of the Methodist church for a business meeting, program and tea. The business meeting at 1:30 p.m. was conducted by Mrs. Alice Palmer, president. Plans were made for a dinner and bazaar to be held Thursday, Dec. 5.

Devotions were given by Mrs. Clyde E. Ruckman. The program chairman, Mrs. Grover VanDeventer, presented Mrs. W. H. Sinclair, who gave an interesting talk on India, its customs, castles, religions, present conflicts and the opportunities for its 390 million inhabitants. Then followed Mrs. Dorothy Hodges, soprano soloist, who sang "Others" and "When Children Pray." "The World Around" was given by Mrs. Eva Paxton, Mrs. W. F. Bartholomew and Mrs. Grace Hooper.

Mrs. Sinclair exhibited many beautiful articles brought from India by Jack Teley, who spent three years in that country during the war, and by David Ward, of Texas, who also during three years in India collected the articles brought to Mrs. Marie Shanahan.

The tea table, decorated by members of Circle I, was lovely with lotus blossoms made by the members of Wesleyan Guild. Mrs. Katherine Mowry and Mrs. Alice Palmer poured.

MRS. RICKARD'S MOTHER PRESENTS PIANO PUPILS

Florence Reinhart Cade, teacher of piano at Pasadena Conservatory of Music, presented two of her pupils, Norma McCauley and Charlene Freund, in a 15-minute program, Pianists of the Future, on Saturday evening over radio station KXLA, Pasadena.

Mrs. Martha Jane Rickard of Three Arts Studios is a daughter of Mrs. Cade.

Torrance Herald

Established Jan. 1, 1914. Published Every Thursday. Editor-Publisher: E. B. Brown, Business Mgr. F. S. Selinger, Managing Editor. 1336 El Prado. Phone 444. Torrance, Calif.

Adjudicated a Legal Newspaper

By Superior Court, Los Angeles County. Entered as second class matter, January 30, 1914, at post office, Torrance, Calif., under Act of March 3, 1879.

Official Newspaper of City of Torrance

Subscription Rates Anywhere in Los Angeles County $2.00 per year.

Exclusive at the GAY SHOP

"Teaser" Skirt by Kret of California Inc.

Side-swept for flattery! Here's a skirt that fits like a sheath with cascading folds and a big bow-tie closing. Dress it up with your favorite blouses... it's in lovely rayon crepe. Sizes 22-32.

$795

"The Outlaw" SHIRT

Wanted... everywhere! Another Joy Steven Original of washable plaid pique in California colors - gold, pink and turquoise... as worn by Jane Russell, star of "The Outlaw". Another Hollis of California exclusive.

$5

USE THE GAY BUDGET PLAN

The Gay Shop 1319 Sartori Ave. Torrance

Emma Roberts Introduces GERALDINE RHODES Licensed Electrologist

UNWANTED HAIR REMOVED PERMANENTLY

PHONE 802 FOR APPOINTMENT

SPECIAL

RECOMMENDED MACHINE AND MACHINELESS PERMANENTS

$8.50

Stylish Hair Shaping Included

Emma Roberts Hair Stylist

Over Levy's Department Store

1313 Sartori

Phone 806

HOME AGAIN

L. Mort, of 1221 Cota ave., has returned following two weeks in Chester, West Virginia, at the home of his sister, Mrs. Harry McHenry.

A RUN-DOWN HEEL

Sure Wrecks Appeal DON'T WASTE TIME—GET YOUR HEELS IN LINE If you can't have new shoes at least keep your old ones in repair. Come in today and have your heels rebuilt for comfort...style...health

KENNY'S SHOE REBUILDING "Opposite Newbery's"

Phone 2068 1278 Sartori

ALLEN JEWELERS announces the amazing new

EVERSHARP CA REPEATER PEN

WRITES 3 MONTHS TO 3 YEARS WITHOUT REFILLING

World's smoothest writing pen. Rolls the ink on dry! It's self-blotting. Even writes dry when submerged under water. Writes for 3 months to 3 years on one refill—cartridge. Reloads—with a cartridge—in 15 seconds. Can't leak—at any altitude. You can't even shake the ink out. Writes on any paper or material, linen, textiles, etc. Makes 6 to 8 carbon copies at a time.

CLEAN! RELOAD IT YOURSELF WITH A NEW CARTRIDGE IN 15 SECONDS

$15

EVERSHARP CA REPEATER PEN Complete Set with Cartridge. Retail $21.50 (Please Plus Fed. Tax.)

CA does it! CA means Capillary Action... an exclusive Eversharp patent

Allen Jewelers

1321 SARTORI-TORRANCE