

PUEBLO TOPICS
By AGNES FLADUNG

Clem Camou returned home Monday from the Philippines. Clem is the last of the Pueblo veterans to be discharged from the U. S. Army.

Mr. and Mrs. Tony Flores of San Pedro are the proud parents of a baby girl.

Rafe Escobar left for Colusa, where he will pick fruit.

Junior Perez recently discharged from the Marines returned from Arizona where he has been visiting with his sister.

The younger girls club of Pueblo Center held election of officers. Amelia Grajeda was unanimously chosen president and Connie Solis vice president.

Members of the Redskins touch football team are Charles Camou (Captain), Joe Oloque, Benny Flores, David Molinar, Adolph Grajeda, Angel Acosta and Larry Banda.

The Trojans are the senior boys team and their line up is the following: Victor Ordaz (Captain), Leo Castillo, Louie Flores, Salvador Gonzalez, Mike Martinez, Rudy Flores, Gilbert Durande, Louie Acosta, and Frankie Mora.

The installation of officers for the 203rd Club will be Saturday at 4:00. There will be special guests and all members are invited.

Hospital Cases

Local patients admitted to the Torrance Memorial Hospital during the past week, are the following:

Mrs. Jessie Hatfield, 2031 Andro ave.
Roy Johnston, 1850 Plaza del Amo.
Hans Rosmussen, 25906 Pennsylvania ave.
Mrs. Anna Twiford, 2308 W. 256th st.

LEAVE FOR OAKLAND

Mrs. H. E. Appenzeller and her daughter Mary Ann leave tomorrow for Oakland, where she will join her husband, recently appointed as district sales manager in charge of specialties for Sherwin Williams Company.
