

Woman's Club Plans Annual Bazaar; Set For Friday, Nov. 1

Friday, Nov. 8 has been set as the date for Torrance Woman's club annual bazaar in the clubhouse, 1422 Engracia ave.

The assistance of clubwomen to complete last minute details for the affair is urged. They are asked to meet at the clubhouse at 10 o'clock tomorrow.

Dining Salon Is Offered For Private Parties

Harry Carr, manager of Vurp's Cafe, 1434 Marcelina ave. is offering the cafe's private dining salon for club meetings, bridge parties or other social gatherings.

The room, located on the mezzanine floor at the back of the main dining room, is being redecorated.

Carr says that no obligation is involved in the use of the private dining room, other than a few hours' prior notice to him that it is to be used.

Reception Marks First Anniversary Of 203rd Club Here

Marking the first anniversary of the founding of the 203rd Club an attractively appointed reception was held in the recreation hall on Saturday afternoon.

Also introduced were Mrs. Rubin Ordaz, mother of Alphonso Ordaz, club president and Mrs. Joseph Oloque, who gave a fine talk to club members and their guests.

Halloween Party Is Surprise Affair For Marilyn Thomas

Doris Lee Quagrin was a delightful hostess to more than 35 girls and boys when she entertained at a Halloween party at her home Sunday evening.

The affair complimented Miss Marilyn Thomas on the occasion of her 18th birthday.

A profusion of fall leaves, corn stalks and pumpkins covered the family garage into a traditional harvest setting, where hot dogs, donuts, punch and birthday cake were served.

Intensive Campaign For ALA Members To Be Launched Nov. 1

One hundred and eight members enrolled for 1947 is the goal of an intensive membership campaign to be launched November 1 by Bert S. Crossland Unit of the American Legion auxiliary.

The campaign will be directed by Mrs. Roxie Sleeth, unit membership chairman, assisted by a large committee.

The auxiliary unit has an enrollment of 79 for 1946, but is planning enlarged activities which will require far greater membership strength in the year ahead, according to Mrs. Sleeth.

Flowers used for the occasion were a gift of Torrance Flower Shop. The attractively decorated cake was presented by Miss Fladung.

Three Arts Pupils To Participate In PTA Carnival

Pupils of the Three Arts Studios will appear today at the P. T. A. Halloween Carnival at Orange Street School, Lomita.

Participating are: Connie Ericson, in a tap dance; Marjorie Lovell, in Indian dance numbers and a tap group composed of Betty Jean Wilson, Donna Pratt, Barbara Cracknell, Marlene Schildmeyer and Beverly Fritz.

Concluding selections of this portion of the program will again feature Connie Ericson and Marjorie Lovell in a Boogie Woogie tap and a Chinese dance number respectively. Studio accompanist for the group is Mrs. Marguerite Hogue.

Womens Activities

By MARY VONDERAHE

CDA Members, Guests Enjoy Gala Halloween Party

Members of Court St. Catherine No. 1378 C. D. of A. with their guests, enjoyed a delightful Halloween party Monday evening, Oct. 28th at Nativity Parish hall.

Pat Hornick served as master of ceremonies introducing the following Accordionettes: Catherine Clouse, Janeene Colombo, Joan Blackman, Lolla Epps, Gail Thomas, Fred Diessel and LeRoy Moore.

Another feature of the evening was a fashion show, with 12 Court members as models, of the latest clothes for all occasions.

Following the ceremony a reception for intimate friends was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Candido Rivera, 1648 W. 213 street.

Dr. Louis T. Talbot To Present Program Each Sunday Morning

Doctor Louis T. Talbot, Australian born president of the Bible Institute of Los Angeles and well-known preacher, author and educator, will be heard coast-to-coast on a new radio program, "Bible Institute Hour," every Sunday morning over the Mutual Network.

CARSON STREET P. T. A. REPORTS ACTIVITIES

The regular monthly meeting of Carson Street P. T. A. was held Thursday afternoon at the school with Mrs. Elmer Lancaster presiding.

Plans were completed for the annual Halloween party on Thursday, Oct. 31, which will feature a fortune-telling booth, a fish pond and other attractions.

At the social hour following, refreshments were served by the board members.

CONTRACT BRIDGE PARTY ENJOYABLE

Woman's Club members and their guests were delightfully entertained Monday evening at the weekly contract bridge party at the clubhouse when Mrs. Gordon Davis and Frank M. Krekow were in charge of arrangements.

A large attendance is anticipated for his Monday's evening with the customary prizes and seasonal refreshments.

ILL AT HOME

Dr. W. A. Hoxie is confined to his home with an attack of flu.

Torrance Herald

Established, Jan. 1, 1914. Published Every Thursday Grover C. Whyte Editor-Publisher

Adjudicated a Legal Newspaper By Superior Court, Los Angeles County.

Official Newspaper of City of Torrance

VFW Auxiliary Notes Important Dates For Month

V.F.W. Auxiliary of Post No. 324 stresses the following dates as being important to the organization:

Today, Thursday Oct. 31, has been set as the regular sewing day at the home of Mrs. Ann Warburton, 2436 Andree ave.

Nov. 4, visit of 4th District president, Esther Hudson. Inspection night will be noted and initiation will be featured. Refreshments will be served.

On Thursday Nov. 7 the ladies will sew at the home of the president, Mrs. Mabel Weiland, 2408 Andree ave.

Feiler-Kavanaugh Wedding Vows Are Exchanged Monday

In simple rites performed Monday afternoon in Catholic church of the Nativity Miss Evangelina Kavanaugh, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John D. Kavanaugh, of this city, became the bride of Mr. Lawrence Harry Feiler, of Long Beach.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was beautifully attired in white tulle over satin and she carried a bridal bouquet of white roses.

Following the ceremony a reception for intimate friends was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Candido Rivera, 1648 W. 213 street.

GARDEN CLUB PLANS TREE PLANTING RITES

Members of Torrance Terrace Garden club met Wednesday, October 23 at the home of Mrs. Marie Wood, 1668 W. 213th st. to plan a birthday party Saturday at his home.

Games and contests were included in the festivities. A Halloween motif, followed through out, was accentuated by the clever costumes worn by the children.

Leo's guests were Billy and Irene Davis, Dexter Patrick, Diane and Willard Wicker, Chas. Williams, and the host's brother, Larry, all of Torrance; Richard and Deanna Boulanger, Steven and Jack Franklin, Billy and Peggy Capper, Hawthorne; Marston Robertson, Johnnie Graham, and Butchie Robertson, all of Rolling Knolls. Also present were Mmes. Moore, Patrick, Graham and Franklin and Leo's aunts, Mmes. Boulanger and Robertson.

NEWS OF WOMEN OF THE MOOSE

Torrance Chapter No. 44, Women of the Moose, held their regular meeting last Wednesday, Oct. 23 under the leadership of Senior Regent Mrs. A. Packard.

The regular monthly card party will be held Nov. 6 at 8:00 p.m. at Moose Hall. On Nov. 13 a pot luck supper and secret pal exchange will precede the regular meeting at 8 p.m.

Verla T. Stokoe, publicity chairman.

AT FORMER HOME

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Harshbarger, of 1104 Acacia ave., have returned from a week's vacation at Salt Lake City, where they visited friends and relatives. The trip marked their first visit to their former home since their arrival here four years ago.

SHEPHERDS ENTERTAIN

Weekend guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Shepherd, 2233 229th st., were Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Sorenson, of San Bernardino and formerly of this city. The Shepherds' Sunday guests included Rev. Lillian Tower and family, of Los Angeles.

Plans will be discussed for a food sale and bazaar to be held on Saturday, Nov. 16.

Halloween Fete Marks Meeting Of Legion Auxiliary

On Monday night the parish house of St. Andrew's looked for all the world like the little red school house on the hill. Inside were black cats, skeletons, witches and everything for Halloween.

The guests were all dressed as children. The kindergarten must have opened a box of bubble gum because it was much in evidence. School Marms Daisy Watson and Selma Godard were very busy with someone on the "dunce stool" most of the evening.

Guests from Redondo were President Veda Hawks, Martha Ritchie and 19th District Membership Chairman Alice Newbanks.

Mrs. Newbanks urged everyone to vote "yes" on proposition No. 1—and concluded with a pep talk on memberships.

Fine Program Is Outlined For Husbands' Night

Wednesday evening, Nov. 6, will mark Husbands' Night for the Torrance Women's Club.

Always an outstanding affair the splendid program outlined by Mrs. Samuel V. Rauss, first vice president and program chairman, this year promises an especially enjoyable evening.

Beginning at 7:00 o'clock a picture and sound program, presented by Squibb and Company, will depict the use of curare and physical therapy in the treatment of polio.

Scheduled to follow is a program vocal and instrumental selections featuring Dorothy Borchers of concert, stage and radio fame. An artist of exceptional accomplishment, the beautiful and talented young lady is a master of many instruments.

Refreshments will be served at the conclusion of the program.

LEO ROBERTSON IS FIVE, NOW

Leo, five-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Robertson, of 1551 W. 221st. st., was host at a birthday party Saturday at his home.

Games and contests were included in the festivities. A Halloween motif, followed through out, was accentuated by the clever costumes worn by the children.

Leo's guests were Billy and Irene Davis, Dexter Patrick, Diane and Willard Wicker, Chas. Williams, and the host's brother, Larry, all of Torrance; Richard and Deanna Boulanger, Steven and Jack Franklin, Billy and Peggy Capper, Hawthorne; Marston Robertson, Johnnie Graham, and Butchie Robertson, all of Rolling Knolls. Also present were Mmes. Moore, Patrick, Graham and Franklin and Leo's aunts, Mmes. Boulanger and Robertson.

SOUTH DAKOTA VACATION

Mr. and Mrs. Swayne Johnson and daughter Jackie have returned from a vacation in South Dakota, where they visited Mrs. Johnson's parents. Pheasant hunting was an enjoyable feature of the trip for Johnson, who bagged the limit.

AT FORMER HOME

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Harshbarger, of 1104 Acacia ave., have returned from a week's vacation at Salt Lake City, where they visited friends and relatives. The trip marked their first visit to their former home since their arrival here four years ago.

SCOUT MOTHERS PLAN MEETING

The home of Mrs. J. H. Homolka, 710 Border ave., will be a meeting place for members of Scout Mothers of Troop No. 241.

Plans will be discussed for a food sale and bazaar to be held on Saturday, Nov. 16.

AT PALM SPRINGS

Mr. and Mrs. Charles V. Jones and Mr. and Mrs. Sam Levay will return this evening from a two-day trip to Palm Springs.

Junior Woman's Club Is Hostess Group To L.A. District Clubs

Amid black cats and eerie white skeletons, members of the Torrance Junior Woman's club entertained at a Halloween party last Wednesday evening for members of all Junior Woman's Clubs in the Los Angeles District.

The clubhouse was appropriately decorated for the occasion by Mrs. Regis C. Jones and Mrs. C. H. Bennett. On the platform was a life-sized scarecrow leaning against a huge corn shock surrounded by pumpkins. Another corn shock, filled one corner of the room. The tea table was centered with a miniature witch costumed in a black cape and hood and seated before a black cauldron.

Prizes awarded during the evening went to Mrs. W. O. Clausen for the most amusing costume, Mrs. J. P. Montague for the most appropriate, and Mrs. Regis Jones for the most unusual. Other prizes for the winners of various games played during the festivities were given to Mrs. Montague and Mrs. E. R. Lillenthal. The games were under the direction of Mrs. B. H. Smith.

Mrs. Ralph Rugraff served as chairman of arrangements for the successful affair.

Three Arts Studio Presents Two Plays To Capacity Gathering

On Sunday afternoon, The Three Arts Studio presented to a very appreciative audience gathered in the studio, "Polly Put the Kettle On" and "Little Jack Horner," two one-act plays.

Both of the fast moving comedies were enjoyed by a capacity crowd of local and out-of-town guests.

Thursday, November 7 at 5:00 p. m. this group of players will start casting for their new plays at the Three Arts Studio. Anyone interested is invited to attend.

BROWNIE TROOP AT HALLOWEEN PARTY

Members of Brownie Troop No. 576, sponsored by Torrance Elementary P.T.A., enjoyed a festive Halloween party Friday at Scout House. The girls mothers were guests and songs, readings and a play were featured of the entertainment. Refreshments of doughnuts, cookies and punch were served. Mrs. C. A. Curtiss is leader of the troop and Mrs. Bernard G. Chambers is co-leader.

MRS. MARY L. BERRY IS BIRTHDAY HONOREE

Mrs. Mary Lou Berry of Yorktown, Ind., is visiting her son, Charles Berry, 2383 Torrance Blvd., owner of Chuck Cab's Co. Featuring her 82nd birthday celebration last week was a visit to Tom Breneman's Breakfast club in Hollywood in Hollywood, where she was presented with a beautiful orchid.

IN SAN BERNARDINO

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Shields, of 2004 Gramercy ave., last week visited at the San Bernardino home of Mr. and Mrs. George Hall.

EMMA ROBERTS

Hair Stylist

XMAS CARDS

Made With Your Own Kodak Negative

10 for $1

25 for $2.25

If you have no negative we'll make one from any print for a dollar extra.

DIXIE LEE STUDIO

CABRILLO AT CARSON

MARRY IN YUMA... Gerald R. Grafton and his bride, the former Miss Melba Ann Fry, who are at home in Wilmington following their recent wedding.

Fern Avenue PTA At Initial Meeting Wednesday Afternoon

Fern Avenue Parent-Teachers Association held their first meeting of the year on Wednesday, October 23 in the school auditorium.

The children of Mrs. Darleah Albright's room sang James Whitcomb Riley's "Little Orphan Annie" and Mrs. H. L. Wagoner, gave three dramatic readings.

After a visit to the rooms in the new building refreshments were served in the kindergarten by members of the executive board, with Mrs. H. T. Markham and Mrs. Lloyd C. Davis presiding. The table was beautifully decorated with autumn flowers and a cake decorated in the same motif was served.

Jack Schlangers Celebrate Silver Wedding Anniversary

Mr. Jack Schlanger and his wife Florence were receiving congratulations yesterday from friends on their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary.

LOVELY HAIR

Heads the Autumn Parade

Phone Torrance 806

—for an appointment at the Beauty Salon—

Emma Roberts

Hair Stylist

Permanents $8.50-$15.00

Cold Waves $10.00-$25.00

Hair Shaping $1.50

Hair Sets $1.50-$1.75

Hair Styling $2.00-$2.25

Dyeing, Bleaching, Henna Packs, Scalp Treatments, Manicures, Facials

Unwanted Hair Removed Permanently by Licensed Electrologist

1313 Sartori Ave. Over Levy's Dept. Store Complete Permanent and Cold Wave Service

IN TORRANCE IT'S THE GAY SHOP

Mouton with the elegance of beaver

Soft, deep fur, rich silver highlights, luxurious balloon sleeves — all the beauty and styling of beaver combined with the down-right practicality of mouton. From slacks to evening gowns, mouton makes the perfect topping.

And just look at the value $149.50 Others $59.95 to $195.00

USE THE GAY BUDGET PLAN or Put It Away 'Til Xmas

The Gay Shop

1319 Sartori Ave. Torrance

GUARANTEED Watch & Clock REPAIRING

FAST SERVICE R. E. McNEES WATCHMAKER

1317 SARTORI AVE. Torrance