Budget Dinner Of St. Andrew's To Be Tomorrow

The congregation of St. Andrew's church will hold a dinner meeting, Friday, November 8, commencing at 6:30 p.m., in the parish house. The purpose of the dinner meeting will be the annual presentation to the congregation by the vestry of the financial estimated budget for the forthcoming year of 1947. Following the presentation of the budget needs, the sound film, "We Too Receive," will be shown.

The dinner will be a pot luck affair with a committee of girls and boys from the Young Churchmen's League serving the dinner and clearing tables. General chairman of the evening will be the rector of St. Andrew's, assisted by the senior warden, Wallace Post. The church treasurer, Burleigh Rice, will present the 1947 proposed budget.

Other than the ordinary operating expenses of the parish the vestry proposes for 1947, a program of enlarging the seating capacity of the church by installing new pews and beautifying the church by remodeling the sanctuary with a new altar and reredos. Charles Eade and Frank Church are preparing the plans for approval of the congregation.

Ben Griffith To Give Revival Services

Evangelist Ben Griffith, Jr., is conducting revival services in the Torrance Foursquare church, 1207 El Prado, preaching Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday at 7:30, and Sundays at 11:00 a.m. and 7:30 p.m.

Some of the subjects which he will be preaching upon are: "The Greatest Sin in the World"; "No Armistice This"; "The Unavoidable God"; "World Crises"; "Did We Win or Lose the War?"

Evangelist Ben Griffith is the son of Rev. and Mrs. Ben Griffith, who were pastors of the Torrance church for some years. He spent nine years on the theatrical stage and in motion pictures, previous to his conversion. Since entering the ministry, he has held many revival campaigns, as well as pastored the Roscoe Foursquare church, and has preached as a "Youth for Christ" evangelist. Friday night will be a youth rally service to which everyone is welcome.

Evangelist Griffith will be assisted Sunday morning at 11:00 by the musical Harp, who are noted evangelists and are conducting revival services in Hawthorne. Musical groups and special talent will be a feature in these revival services. He will be assisted in some of the services by June Griffith, his wife, who is an excellent song leader and soloist. Everyone is cordially invited to attend.

Church Motion Picture For Month Revealed

Picture of the month at First Christian church will be "The Courageous Mr. Penn," British made film starring Deborah Kerr and Clifford Evans, to be shown in the church sanctuary on Sunday evening at 7 o'clock. This story of the struggle for religious liberty, flight to a new land, and the establishment of a home in the wilderness is most appropriate to this Thanksgiving season.

"Mr. Penn" is one of a series of feature films shown each month at the Christian church. December's special event will be "The Child of Bethlehem," a Cathedral film, to be shown on December 22nd. Other Sunday nights the church is showing a series of moving pictures on the life of the Apostle Paul, accompanied by special studies of this subject.

A social hour and refreshments follow each Sunday evening service.
