Newspaper Men To Be Guests At Institute

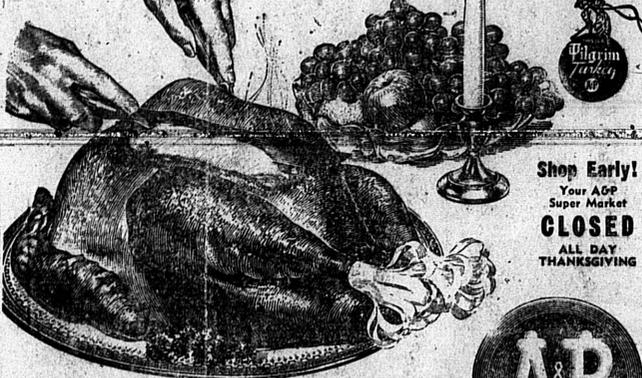

Representatives of the Department of State, the Senate and Washington headquarters of the Army Air Force, will join with educators in participating in the 23rd Institute of World Affairs at the Riverside Mission from December 8 to 11.

Editors and publishers of Southern California newspapers will be guests of the Riverside Chamber of Commerce and the Inn at a dinner on December 10, according to Prof. Marc N. Goodnow of the Institute. That evening, session speakers will be Dr. Claude A. Buss of Stanford university who served as executive assistant to the commissioner of the Philippines during the Japanese occupation, and Wesley F. Rennie, associate general secretary, World Committee of the Y.M.C.A., speaking on Problems of the Orient and Europe and World Order, respectively.

BEAR HUNT

Bear hunters are meeting with success in Del Norte county, where some large ones have been taken of late.

The Proclamation, designating the day as a day of thanksgiving, will be read by the First Reader. A period will be set aside for the giving of testimonies by Christian Scientists appropriate for the occasion.

The Golden Text of the Lesson-Sermon is from Colossians, "Let the peace of God rule in your hearts, to the which also ye are called in one body; and be ye thankful." The Bible lesson will include this passage from I Chronicles: "Thine, O Lord, is the greatness, and the power, and the glory, and the victory, and the majesty: for all that is in the heaven and in the earth is thine; thine is the kingdom, O Lord, and thou art exalted as head above all. Both riches and honour come of thee, and thou reignest over all; and in thine hand is power and might; and in thine hand it is to make great, and to give strength unto all. Now therefore, our God, we thank thee, and praise thy glorious name."

Correlative selections from "Scriptures and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, read, "Unfathomable Mind is expressed." "The world would collapse without Mind, without the Intelligence which holds the winds in its grasp. . . . The Immense sense of Mind-power enhances the glory of Mind."

Nightly Church Services At Evangelical

Hearty congregational singing, directed by Lawrence Green, is an important and inspiring part of the nightly services being held throughout this week, and the next, at the Central Evangelical United Brethren church, in Torrance. Green not only is a director much in demand throughout Southern California, but he is a soloist of outstanding talent. His hymn interpretations have already won the hearts of Torrance listeners. He is associated with the business staff of Los Angeles Pacific college. The college is situated in Highland Park.

Dr. William Johnson is bringing the message each night throughout the meetings. They have proven to be practical and purposeful. Life Enrichment is the general theme. Throughout this week he speaks on such things as "Need of Today," "Next week his message will consider the theme, "What It Means To Walk with Christ."

The guest speaker in the Crusade for Christ is an associate pastor of the First Presbyterian church of Hollywood. As minister of evangelism in that church, he is instrumental in bringing an average of 50 persons a month into the membership of the church.

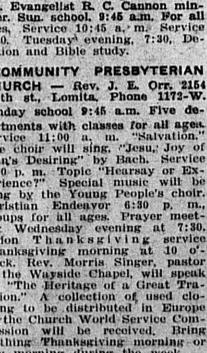

Central church is located at the corner of Marcella avenue at Arlington. The Reverend H. Wesley Roloff is pastor.
