VFW Officers Are Installed

Impressive installation rites marked the meeting of V. F. W. Auxiliary held Monday evening in Civic auditorium.

Ruth DeHart, conductress, of Lomita V.F.W. Auxiliary, as installing officer, inducted Clairbel Darling, treasurer; Mary Towler and Hilma Mallin, color bearers; Sarah Jenkins, guard, and Gertrude Cook, chaplain.

Mrs. Frank Cook will open her home at 2422 Torrance blvd. today, for a meeting of the V. F. W. Sewing club. On Wednesday evening, Dec. 18, members of the auxiliary will be entertained at a Christmas party at the home of the president, Mabel Weigand, 2408 Andreo ave.

Job's Daughters Plan Installation Saturday Evening

At 8 o'clock Saturday evening, Dec. 7, Masonic Temple will be the scene of the semi-annual installation of officers of Torrance Bethel No. 50, Job's Daughters. Friends of the Order are cordially invited.

Miss Naomi Edwards, retiring honored queen and a staff of installing officers, will induct Miss Wanda Moore as honored queen and the Misses Wilma McBride, senior princess; Dorothy Warning, junior princess; Marlene Quaggin, guide and Joann Sandstrom, marshal.

CDA Board Meet Reported; Christmas Plans Are Outlined

The executive board of Court St. Catherine No. 1378 met Monday evening, Dec. 2, at the home of Rosa and Katie Ortman. Following the business session, which included a discussion of the Court's Christmas philanthropies, delicious refreshments were served by the hostesses to Clare Farrell, Frances Forester, Laura Felker, Marguerite Melville, Lillian Schott, Colett Ames, Alice Clayton, Hazel Hutton and Opal Yorker.

Arrangements were completed for the Court's Christmas party and gifts exchange on Monday Dec. 9, at 8 p.m. Lillian Schott is chairman for this affair. A program of Christmas carols has been planned, to be highlighted with violin solos by Frances Forester, accompanied by Theresa Murray. A short business meeting will precede the party.

A gala children's Christmas party is scheduled for Sunday Dec. 22 at 1:30 p.m. in the Nativity hall, to be sponsored by the Court in cooperation with their program of Confraternity of Christian Doctrine. All the children of the community are invited to this party.

Girl Scout Troop At Enjoyable Party In St. Andrew's Hall

The girls of Scout Troop 416 entertained their mothers and the Rev. and Mrs. Paul M. Wheeler at a spaghetti dinner in the Parish hall of St. Andrew's church Saturday evening.

Following dinner Eva Morang and Joyce Schlerf were officially welcomed into the troop in a beautiful candlelighted investiture, and several girls were presented with badges.

The evening's fun included a scavenger hunt and a mock radio skit before the girls took to their sleeping bags in a large circle on the Parish hall floor.

Enjoying the slumber party and the evening preceding it, were Marilyn Baer, Jane Fischer, Ann Olson, Julie Rhone, Claudette Buckley, Barbara Ludwig, Ann Marie Bishop, Emma Garsione, Beverly Harrington, Charlene St. Martin, Sally Sprout, Virginia Lewis, Joyce Schlerf, Eva Morang, Clara Broadbent and Janet Williamson. The girls were chaperoned by their leader, Mrs. George Baer and Mmes. H. C. St. Martin, and M. A. Williamson.

C.E. Guild Members To Enjoy Yule Party At Felker Home

Members of Central Evangelical Guild will meet Wednesday afternoon, December 11, at the home of Mrs. W. A. Felker, 1527 Post ave. for a Christmas party.

A pot luck luncheon will precede a brief business session to be conducted by Mrs. R. L. Harper, president.

Instead of the customary exchange of gifts at this annual party, members will provide gifts for patients of Ward 30 at Los Angeles County Harbor General hospital.

Legion Auxiliary Reports Thanksgiving Social; Plans Meet

Yellow and green were the colors used for the American Legion Auxiliary's Thanksgiving social last week at St. Andrew's Parish hall. A delicious repast featured turkey and all the accompanying foods. After the feast games were played, with prizes being awarded to Phyrne Laughon, Ethelyn Sears and Bea Burchett.

Hostesses for the evening were Alma Smith, Americanism chairman and Ruth Saunders, education chairman.

The next business meeting will be Monday evening, Dec. 9, when plans will be completed for Torrance's participation in the "packages for veterans" Christmas program. A report on the furnishings to be purchased for the new cancer ward in Long Beach Naval hospital will also be made at this time.

MAURINE BRADFORD IS BIRTHDAY CELEBRANT

Maurine, eight-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George A. Bradford of 1323 Beech ave., celebrated her birthday last Saturday with a delightful patio party at her home.

A yellow and white color theme was followed for table decorations and party accessories. Games occupied the children preceding the opening of Maurine's many lovely gifts. A decorated birthday cake and ice cream were enjoyed by Maurine, Richard and Frank Bradford, Mary Elizabeth Selover, Peggy and Sally Sprout, Nancy Humphreys, Shirley Reed, Mary Frances Gordiner, Judy Wright, Patsy Greene, Peggy Morin, Nancy Welton, Mrs. Savant, Shirley Ann and Beverly, all of Wilmington, and Jimmy and Chucky Montague, of Calexico.

DINNER PARTY AT BARRINGTON HOME

Wade Chandler, nephew of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Barrington, was complimented on the occasion of his birthday when they entertained at a dinner at their home recently.

Covers were arranged for the honor guest and the Misses Carlotta Dean, Yvonne Norton and Frances Barrington, Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Cagle, John Agallo, Fred Norman and the hosts.
