PTA BRINGS HAPPINESS TO COUNTLESS CHILDREN

Cuddle toys by the thousand, hundreds of "finger puppets," motion pictures, puppet shows, or old-fashioned Christmas parties in all of the schools, with trees, in many cases, bearing gifts for every child.

Because they have helped to make a Merry Christmas for so many others, Tenth District P.T.A., its councils, unit associations and members will this year find Christmas a deeply happy experience.

In the first place, twenty-one "adopted" schools—the largest number in years—are now receiving regular and generous monthly checks from more privileged parent-teacher groups.

"In addition to this," says Mrs. W. A. Myers, Tenth District's child welfare manager, "a total of $801.00 has this year been sent to underprivileged schools by other schools for Christmas. Further checks to the amount of $390.00 have come into the district for other Christmas welfare. Besides, unit associations and councils have been so thoughtful in their staging of Christmas parties for children, that it is believed no school, underprivileged or otherwise, has been neglected."
