Mrs. Joe H. Moore is Complimented At Going Away Parties Complimenting Mrs. Joe H. Moore, who left Friday for a new home in Provo, Utah, members of the executive board of Torrance high school P.T.A. entertained at the school. Many beautiful handkerchiefs were presented Mrs. Moore, who has been active in the organization for many years. During the current year she served as historian.

Feted By Club Group Another delightful affair given to honor Mrs. Moore was a surprise party Friday evening at the home of Mrs. H. E. Masie, 1318 Engracia ave., when about 20 charter members of Torrance Junior Woman's club were guests.

Cards furnished entertainment for the group with prizes for winners at each table. Following the presentation of a gift of costume jewelry to the honoree, dainty refreshments were served.

VISITS PARENTS Paul Mitchell, fireman 2/c, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Mitchell, arrived this week from Great Lakes Training School enroute to a new assignment at San Pedro Receiving station.

LUTHERAN LADIES The Ladies' Missionary Society of First Lutheran church will meet at 2:00 p. m., Thursday, February 13 in the parish house.

Accordionettes Entertain For Various Groups

Bettie Thomas and her Accordionettes have been heard in several enjoyable programs recently, including a one-hour presentation at Long Beach municipal auditorium. Appearing on this program were: Steve Hornick, Jimmie St. Dennis, Bob and Norzette Church, Gall and Bettie Thomas, Joan Blackman, Cathryn Clouse and Fred Diesel, accordionists.

The song and dance portion of the program was performed by Yolanda Francis, Jimmie Morris, Cindy Hornick, Louise Clouse, Tracy Dale, Steve Hornick, Gloria St. Dennis, Robin Thomas and Marsha Maddock.

The above mentioned group of entertainers and Emalene Verser, accordionist, entertained at the Townsied club meeting on Friday night.

A triple birthday party at the Accordionettes Studio last Saturday afternoon, honored 10-year-old Cindy Hornick, 11-year-old Louise Clouse, and Tracy Dale, nine.

A decorated, candle-lighted cake inscribed with the celebrants' names, centered the refreshment table from which 20 children were served. Games followed.

The next afternoon the talented young people performed for Coed Club members gathered in Banning park for their annual picnic. The accordionists played while seated on one of the picnic tables and a nearby table was the platform for the new dancers and Patsy Dummyer.

A program by the same group was presented before the Redondo Woman's club on the occasion of their annual installation. This presentation marked the initial use of the Accordionettes public address system.

V. F. W. AUXILIARY IN MANY ACTIVITIES Mrs. Frankie Brown will open her home at 10:00 o'clock today for a meeting of the V.F.W. Auxiliary Sewing club.

Mothers and babies will be entertained at a Valentine tea on Friday, February 14 at the home of Mrs. Hilma Malin on Plaza Del Amo.

Members and friends of the organization are reminded of the evening card party in Torrance Woman's clubhouse at 8:00 o'clock, Saturday evening, February 15. Everyone is invited.

MAGICAL LARSEN... Geraldine Conrad Larsen, assisted by her husband, William Larsen, and their two young sons, will present a pageant of mysteries in four acts in Torrance Woman's Clubhouse Friday evening, Feb. 7, at 8 o'clock. Special music accompanies the program lending an air of charm to the distinctive presentation. Everyone is invited.

Dinner-Bridge Is Courtesy For Bride-Elect

Mrs. Benjamin W. Roberts was a gracious hostess at a dinner party for bride club members arranged Tuesday evening in her home, 1609 Amapola ave.

The affair was a prenuptial courtesy for Mrs. Mildred Larsen whose marriage to Mr. William MacFaden, of Redondo Beach, will be solemnized Friday evening, Feb. 7 in St. Andrew's Episcopal church.

Red carnations and acaia blooms flanked with lighted tapers accented the Mexican theme used for party appointments, and menu.

Places were arranged for the honor guest and Mesdames John W. Beeman, C. E. Basley, M. N. Felker, Robert Lessing, G. J. Devoun, M. W. Hinshaw, Edward Rhone, J. T. Oursler and the hostess.

Following the presentation of a handsome group gift the ladies spent the evening at bridge. Contract winners were Mmes. Esasley and Lessing.

Brownies, Mothers Club Report Gala Dinner-Program

A recent enjoyable occasion for Brownies of troop 698 and the Mothers Club of the troop was the pot-luck dinner and program held in St. Andrew's parish hall.

Marilyn Wixom, as announcer, presented Constance Walton in an address of welcome and a song. Mrs. Kay B. Molyneux and Mrs. Leona E. Lotis.

Present were Messrs. and Mmes. T. J. McCart and Jeff, Chas. Stewart and Charles, Jr., James Albright, S. F. Webb and sons Thomas and John, W. E. Walton, Mmes. Raymond Nell, J. N. Rubeo, Philip Humphreys, Kay B. Molyneux, Leona E. Lotis, Robert Eastrop and Arlene, V. T. Vanderpool, R. F. Folts, Don Castle, C. L. Jones and W. L.
