BRIDAL COUPLE . . . Mr. and Mrs. Edward Lowlan Williams, whose marriage was solemnized in a Long Beach church. A reception for 100 guests followed at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John S. Kapsh, 20602 S. Normandie. They will live in San Pedro.

Home from their honeymoon at Big Bear Lake are Edward Lowlan Williams and his bride, the former Miss Patricia Ann Kapsh whose marriage was solemnized recently in Moore Memorial Church, Long Beach. Rev. D. Butler, officiated in the presence of 100 guests.

Given in marriage by her father, the attractive brunette bride was attired in a powder blue suit with patent accessories and she carried a sheaf of red roses and white sweet peas. Miss Shirley June Kapsh, who wore a beige suit with brown accessories and carried yellow roses and orchid sweet peas, Bobbie Fitzgibbon was in charge of the guest book. Merrell Williams was the bridegroom's attendant and Clarence Sephar and Melven Dunkle ushered.

Preceding the ceremony Miss Ethel Phillips played the accompaniment for Miss Diane Licht, who sang "Because" and "At-ways."

The bride, whose parents are Mr. and Mrs. John S. Kapsh, of 20602 S. Normandie, is in her senior year at Torrance high school. Her husband, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Williams of 1400 West E st., Wilmington, is a veteran of 36 months with the Royal Air Force.

A reception at the home of the bride's parents followed the church ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Williams will live in San Pedro.

Junior Clubwomen Announce Plans For Annual Fashion Show

Under the direction of Mrs. Carl Forkum, plans are nearing completion for the fashion show to be staged at 8:00 p.m. in the Junior Woman's club on Tuesday, Feb. 25 at 8:00 p.m. in the Torrance Civic auditorium.

Spring and summer fashions will be modeled by club members and their children who will show play clothes, afternoon and evening dresses. Mrs. H. L. Wagner, president of the club, will narrate and Mr. Robert Eaton, well known pianist, has been engaged to furnish the piano music during the show. Door prizes will be given away throughout the program.

Stores entered in the show to date include Charleston's, J. C. Penney Co., Ellwood's, Benson's, The Gay Shop, Tiny Tyke, Children's Wardrob- and Kiddie Lane.

Chairmen at work on the affair are Mmes. B. H. Smith, H. O. Mann, Ray Sleppy, M. F. Garton, E. R. Lillenthal, G. T. Derouin, Don Moshos, Ronald Mennuir, Rufus Sandstrom, Regis Jones and C. H. Bennett.

Tickets now on sale at 75 cents for adults, 25 cents for children, may be secured from club members or by calling 839-J. They will also be available at the door on the night of the show.

Club Juniors Interesting Report Of Board Meeting

Members of the executive board of the Torrance Junior Woman's club met at the home of Mrs. Carl Forkum last Thursday night. The main business for the evening was centered around discussion of the contest for "Miss Torrance of 1947," out no definite plans were made.

A letter was read from Dr. Don C. Moshos telling of the project under way to raise funds to purchase an incubator for the Torrance Memorial hospital. In his letter Dr. Moshos pointed out that an incubator is a serious need in this area. Further discussion about the project will be brought up at the next regular meeting of the club.

An invitation was read from the Torrance Terrace Garden club inviting members to display flower arrangements in a show May 24 and 25.

After the meeting was adjourned refreshments were served by the hostess, Mrs. Forkum to Mmes. H. L. Wagner, Don C. Moshos, J. P. Montague, M. F. Garton, Rufus Sandstrom, Frank Farrell, Muriel Floyd, Sam Rauss and H. E. Massie. The next board meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. M. F. Garton on March 4.

LUTHERAN LADIES PLAN MEETING

The Priscilla Circle of First Lutheran church will meet at the home of Mrs. W. F. Hauck, 2358 Sonoma st., on Thursday, February 20. A pot-luck luncheon will be served.

Torrance Terrace Garden Club Tells Flower Show Plans

The bi-monthly meeting Wednesday afternoon of the Torrance Terrace Garden club was held at the home of Mrs. Arthur Fritz, 1543 W. 214th st., with Mrs. Kathleen Colley as co-hostess. Mrs. Fritz, president, directed the meeting. Mrs. Gladys Ruble reported the selection of the executive chairman for the coming flower show, who are: Mrs. Arthur Fritz, general chairman; Mrs. Estelle Ewalt, housekeeping chairman; Mrs. Marie Olsen, registry; Mrs. Gladys Ruble, entrant secretary; Mrs. William Scholl, advertising; Mrs. Meriam Cooley, demonstration; Mrs. Virginia Rugg, judges secretary.

Four new members were welcomed, including Mesdames Doris Riley of Long Beach; Naomi Davis of Fern avenue; Phyllis Hoffman of 215th st., and Eleanor Meyer of 213th st.

At the conclusion of the meeting Mrs. Estelle Ewalt was complimented with a birthday handkerchief shower.

All "green-thumbs" of this area are urged to participate in the flower show. Call Mrs. A. Fritz, Torrance 1372-M, for a list of seeds which planted in the garden in May is for the flower show.

Mrs. Iris Steffen will entertain the club at her home, 1539 W. 214th st., on Wednesday, February 19.

Valentine Party Follows OES Meeting Thursday

Following the regular meeting of Torrance Chapter No. 380, Order of the Eastern Star last Thursday evening, members retired to the banquet room for a Valentine party. Entertainment was furnished by Betty Thomas and her Accordionettes in song and dance numbers.

A report of her recent visit to the Scottish Rite Temple in Yakima, Wash., given by Worthy Matron Jeannette Clark, was an interesting feature of the evening. She was followed by Worthy Patron Ernest Mosher in a talk on "The Life of Lincoln."

Dainty refreshments following the Valentine motif were served by Gladys Mothersell and her committee.

Billie Kerber will serve as chairman of arrangements for the next meeting on Thursday evening, February 20, when initiatory work will be exemplified.

LORITA VALLELY

In the second of her lectures in the current series to be presented in Torrance Woman's clubhouse at 10:45 Wednesday morning, Feb. 19, Mrs. Lorita Baker Vallely will present "The World in Review."

The speaker will discuss other "ennemies at home" in addition to the industrial-labor difficulties earlier planned for review. She also will give special emphasis to books with a "lift," many of which are now pouring off the nation's presses, all this as she surveys the panorama of world affairs and reviews of current books.

Books to be reviewed include: "Spotlight on Labor Unions," Wm. J. Smith S. J.; "Labor and Laws," Charles O. Gregory; "The Lull," Max Miller; "Eating I am Home," Donald Hought; "Glass House," Dorothy W. Baruch; "Boy From Nebraska," Ralph G. Martin; "Color Blind," Margaret Halsey; "On Being Fit To Live With," Harry Emerson Fosdick; "Ideas Have Legs," Peter Howard; "From the Top of the Stairs," Gretchen Finletter; "Two on a Continent," Lili Foides; "Priestess of the Occult," Gertrude Marvin Williams; "Lydia Bailey," Kenneth Roberts; "The Thresher," Herbert Krause; "Holdfast Gains," Odell and William Shepard; "The Walls of Jericho," Paul I. Wellman.

Another club sponsored affair is the weekly contract bridge party set for next Monday evening in the clubhouse. Refreshments will be served by the hostess committee. The ladies report this week's party as being an outstanding success financially and socially.

Post-Nuptial Party Sunday Compliments Mr. and Mrs. Davis

Mr. and Mrs. Sheldon Davis, of 2216 Andreo ave., were complimented Sunday evening with a post-nuptial party given by a group of friends at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth S. Clary, 3501 Paseo del Campo, Palos Verdes Estates.

Clary, William Walker, Jess Martin, Daniel Barnard, Charles Fulton, Frank Steinhilber, George Bradford, George Peckham, Malcolm Johnson, Stanley Selover, William Munds and Hugo Miller; Mesdames Ila Gilbert, Juliette Johnson, June Laski, Betty Vandegriff, Frances Clark, Margot Gray, Esther Osborne, and Messrs. Walter Schlick, Charles Mitschrich, David Johnston. Also contributing to the group gift were Mr. and Mrs. Tom Ulrich, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Armitage, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Quimby, Mrs. Mabel Boynton, Mrs. Elizabeth Leeds and Mrs. Minnie Hannan.

Altar Society Members Elect Officers; Hear Fine Speaker Feb. 4

Nativity Parish hall was the setting for the pot luck luncheon and meeting of the Altar Society on Tuesday, Feb. 4. Places were set for 70 members and friends at the beautifully decorated tables. Mrs. Michael Cunningham presided and Mrs. Frank Forrester introduced the guest speaker, Rev. P. K. Roche P. D., who is assistant superintendent of Catholic schools of the archdiocese of Los Angeles. Father Roche gave a very inspiring and interesting talk.

The following officers were elected for the coming year: President, Mrs. Elsie Felton; vice president, Mrs. Elizabeth Cochran; secretary, Mrs. Edna Nolan; treasurer, Miss Opal Yorker.
